

Sufferers From Piles!

Zam-Buk Has Cured These!

Friction on the hemorrhoid veins that are swollen, inflamed and gorged with blood, is what causes the terrible pain and stinging and smarting of piles. Zam-Buk applied at night will be found to give ease before morning. Thousands of persons have proved this. Why not be guided by the experience of others?

Mr. Thomas Pearson, of Prince Albert, Sask., writes: "I must thank you for the benefit I have received from Zam-Buk. Last summer I suffered greatly from piles. I started to use Zam-Buk and found it gave me relief, so I continued it, and after using three or four boxes I am pleased to say it has effected a complete cure."

Mr. G. A. Dufresne, 183-185 St. Joseph Street, St. Roch, Quebec, P. Q., writes: "I can highly recommend Zam-Buk to everyone who suffers from piles."

Magistrate Sanford, of Weston King's Co., N. S., says: "I suffered long from itching piles, but Zam-Buk has now cured me."

Mr. William Kenty, of Upper Nine Mile River, Hants Co., N. S., says: "I suffered terribly from piles, the pain at times being almost unbearable. I tried various ointments, but every-thing I tried failed to do me the slightest good. I was tired of trying various remedies, when I heard of Zam-Buk, and thought as a last resource I would give this balm a trial. After a very short time Zam-Buk effected a complete cure."

Zam-Buk is also a sure cure for skin injuries and diseases, eczema, ulcers, varicose veins, cuts, burns, bruises, chaps, cold sores, etc. 50c. box all druggists and stores, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Refuse harmful imitations. Try Zam-Buk Soap, 25c. tablet.

Man and Wife Killed

by Snowslide

Skagway, Alaska, Oct. 7.—Stanley McLellan and his wife were killed yesterday by a snow slide that demolished their home at the Partridge Mine, West Arm of Lake Atlin, Y. T. Victor Carlson, who was standing near the house, was caught up by the avalanche and carried a thousand feet down the mountain. He suffered several broken ribs, but will recover.

Caused Palpitation, and Prevented Sleep—When Health Was Gone, Cure Followed Use of "Nerviline."

"My last wish will be," writes Harry P. Pollard, a well-known boot and shoe traveler of Hartford, "that everyone with a bad stomach may learn as I did, before it's too late, that Nerviline is the one remedy to cure. Why, I was in mighty bad shape, my digestion was all wrong, and every night I would awaken with a start and find my heart jumping like a threshing machine. This was caused by gas on my stomach pressing against my heart. When I started to use Nerviline I got better mighty fast. It is certainly a grand remedy for the traveling man; keeps your stomach in order, cures cramps, prevents lumbago or rheumatism, breaks up chest colds and sore throat—in fact there hasn't been an ache or pain inside or outside for the past two years that I haven't cured with Nerviline. Do you wonder I recommend it?"

For general household use Nerviline has no equal; it will cure the aches and ailments of the entire family—refuse anything but Nerviline, 25c. per bottle, five for $1.00, all dealers or the Catarrhzone Co., Kingston, Ont.

BORDEN AND HIS CABINET

Premier and President of the Council—Canada's first citizen.
When Sir Wilfrid Laurier resigned office in favour of Mr. R. L. Borden he left behind him a position that the leader but of the people as well. In short it is a government of which Canada can be proud.

had been made great by the man, — the man who will go down to posterity as the greatest Prime Minister since Sir J. A. Macdonald, and whose shoes were not easy to fill and though Mr. Borden had shown something of his calibre as a statesman, while in opposition, he had yet to show his worth as the first minister of the crown. And the earliest test was the forming of his government. How he has succeeded we know. The prime minister's difficulty was not Sir J. A.'s when a friend once complained about the weakness of the make up of one of his governments, "Give me," said Sir John, "better timber and I'll build a better cabinet." Rather it was the splendid quality and number of his followers — practically it was the process of elimination. Further, it is an unwritten law in the Dominion that every Province shall be represented as well as the two races and two great religions, so that while it would be possible to have chosen better individually, on the whole the cabinet chosen by Premier Borden to help him in the governing of this great country is worthy not only of representative Cabinet of Canada. When the task of leading his Majesty's loyal opposition fell to Mr. R. L. Borden in 1901 the Conservative party was weak in numbers and there was jealousy within the ranks — and to make matters worse even his friends had little confidence in this quiet lawyer from Nova Scotia to ultimately lead his party to victory. They did not know the man. He gave up his law practice which was considerable, and gradually gathered around him young men — each a born fighter and of irreproachable character both in public and private life — and instilled into them something of his zeal and honest determination to win. The work of overturning a strong government was great but Borden and his men held on and there is no doubt that their opposition last session to the Liberal government was a magnificent example of a fighting combination who had confidence in each other and their leader. Sir Wilfrid Laurier realized the strong position of the opposition and trusting to the country again returning him to power resigned. Again the Liberal premier was frustrated. Mr. Borden and his lieutenants had organized the party so well that even Sir Wilfrid had no chance in the elections. This quiet man from the province by the sea had surmounted obstacles that few would attempt. He had after ten years of splendid labor — work, that as it began to be known gained the encouragement and then the admiration not only of his friends but of his political foes — come to his own.

That Mr. Borden is determined to carry on the governing of this country himself — without the aid of busy bodies — was well exemplified in the forming of his cabinet. Sir Hugh Graham of Montreal "Star" fame evident thinking he had won the election with his paper tried to force one of two of his friends on to the Premier — but he failed.

Mr. Robert Laird Borden, who is the eighth Prime Minister of Canada since confederation was born fifty seven years ago in the hamlet of Grand Pré and after a short scholastic career as professor in Glenwood Institute was called to the Bar in 1878. As a lawyer Mr. Borden soon had a good practice and his popularity amongst his fellow-members of the Bar is evidenced in his retaining for ten years the presidency of the Nova Scotia Baristers'

Society. Mr. Borden was first elected to the House of Commons in 1896 for Halifax and though he was defeated in 1904 his first constituency re-elected him in 1905, again returning him in the election that made him Premier as well as member.

students — a wider appreciation of the possibilities of Canada's prosperity on the world's politics. Be that as it may in placing the destiny of their country in the hands of R. L. Borden the people of this country have taken a step that can only mean one thing—Empire building in its best sense.

HON. GEORGE FOSTER

In asking the old war horse Hon. George Foster to join his government as Minister of Trade and Commerce, Mr. Borden took a wise step for outside his long and brilliant experience in the political field under such leaders as Macdonald, Tupper, Abbot and Thompson, and as principal supporter of Borden during his uphill fight against the Laurier administration, Mr. Foster is easily first in the house as a debater and all his debating powers will be wanted to fight Laurier as opposition leader. Further Mr. Foster's complete knowledge of parliamentary procedure, and his previous two official visits to England will be of invaluable help to the new government.

GEORGE H. PERLEY

In looking over the list of ministers none is more popular than George H. Perley whose wonderful powers of organization as chief whip did so much to bring victory to his party in the last election. When Mr. Perley — who is a wealthy man and head of the great lumber firm of G. H. Perley & Co. — went in for politics he determined to make parliament take keener interest in the elimination of disease from our congested districts, and though he has not succeeded as yet in carrying out these reforms Mr. Perley has, with his speeches — which are always worth listening to — induced many municipalities to take a saner course in the granting of building leases and the acquisition of open spaces for the people. This public spirited man has given his time and his money to practically every philanthropic institution in Ottawa and district.

C. J. DOHERTY

In selecting his minister of Justice, Mr. Borden had many lawyers of experience to choose from, but when his choice fell upon ex-judge C. J. Doherty everyone realized the wisdom of the appointment. As a jurist and authority on constitutional questions the new Minister of Justice has few equals and his knowledge of men will do much to leaven the purely technical side of his great position. Judge Doherty — who is one of the most cultured men in the House — is a brilliant conversationalist and those who have had the privilege of his company have left feeling stronger and with a new confidence in human nature.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
