MIDSUMMER SESSION OF CARLETON COUNTY COUNCIL

Coun Morgan moved that the bill be handed back to the overseer of the poor for the parish of Peel.

Coun Shaw seconded the motion.

Coun Melville—What evidence could we bring that this man was Adams? We could not prove it. The parish of Peel can pay his bill but it has not been the practice before this to saddle it on the parish. He did not claim this county should pay as a matter of law.

Coun Phillips asked how they can find out who the man was.

Coun Melville—We do not know who he was.

Coun Balmain—How do you know his family was simple?

Coun Melville—We do not know.

Coun Kinney—Let us be human—let the county pay this bill.

Coun Perry thought if the parish of Peel cannot collect the bill, then the County would come in, but this man was drowned at Rowena in March last. He knew of the circumstances. His name was Adams, he lived at South Tilley, and he has sons living there.

Amendment carried.

Council then took recess.

AFTER RECESS.

Following bills were discussed and on motion paid:

Wm. Armstrong (dep Sheriff) $134.35

Coun Smith asked as to first item, "Searching for tramps, Lower Woodstock, Aug. 1910." It was explained.

Coun Morgan asked if expense taking lunatic to asylum should be parish or county bill.

Mr. Hartley—It is a county charge.

Robert Kinney $ 5.30

Dr. M. E. Cammins (coroner) 4.40

Albion R. Foster 19.05

Union of Municipalities 10.00

(Bill for membership)

Miss Susie Shaw 4.00

(To be paid when attested)

A. W. Adams 8.75

A. R. Currie (dentist work for prisoner) 1.00

Coun Melville objected to the bill as it was a departure to employ dentists.

A motion that the bill be paid when attested was carried. Four Councillors voted nay.

Harley Hanna $38.25

Coun Melville thought this should be a parish charge as there was a charge for board

Coun Shaw—Mr. Hanna told me four weeks ago of this case. A year or perhaps two years ago Hannah Kinney was taken to the asylum. She remained there for some time, when a nephew came and took her to Boston. She was there less than a year.

Then she was brought to Wakefield to Harley Hanna's home, and they kept her for some 12 days and the bill was for that. That is the history of the case.

Mr. Hartley—The U. S. Immigration agent deported her on the ground that she was an undesirable immigrant.

Coun Shaw—If there are any items in that bill that, under the advice of the Sec-treas, the parish of Wakefield should pay, the parish will pay them.

Sec-treas—As to the charge for shoes it might be chargeable to the parish but usually bills of such necessary clothes as would be required would be payable by the county.

Any length of board, not necessary, might be chargeable to the parish of Wakefield. Any ordinary charge would be charged to the county.

Coun Melville thought that this woman was in charge of the Parish of Wakefield poor authorities for ten days and moved in amendment that the bill be paid less $13.00

Amendment. Seconded and carried.

Dr. D. W. Ross (coroner) $ 4.80

Press Publishing Co. 1.50

D. E. Brooks 30.00

Mr. Brooks was on motion, heard in the matter. He claimed this was a bill for a return of commission, or taxes collected, overpaid.

Coun Keenan moved that the bill be paid and charged to Parish of Kent. Carried.

The Warden said that Rev. Mr. Jenkins, Curate of Woodstock, had extended an invitation to the members of the County or as many of them as could, to attend a coronation service to be held in St. Luke's church on Coronation Day.

Coun Perry moved, seconded by Coun Scott that a cordial vote of thanks be extended to Photographer Green for the bother he had taken in rearranging the photograph of the council, and supplying the councillors with copies.

On motion the collectors of Wakefield and Wicklow parishes to receive 5 per cent on the amount collected for this year.

Coun Williams spoke of the auto nuisance. He understood that the county council had the right to set apart one day in the week in which the autos would be prohibited on the roads.

The Warden said that he understood Mr. Munroe tried to get such a provision through but it did not go through.

Coun Williams moved, seconded by Coun Phillips, that this Council is of opinion that one day should be set apart in the week, where automobiles be not allowed on the roads.

Coun Kinney—This is not a question to be passed over carelessly. It should be given thorough consideration. Coun Williams has put this motion before the board, because he may want his wife and children to come to town in safety. It was reasonable that there be this elimination of autos for one day in the week.

HAVILAND-NEALES.

In St. Luke's church on Wednesday morning last, Miss Elizabeth Howard Neales, youngest daughter of Mrs Thomas Neales and the late Ven Archdeacon Neales, was united in wedlock to Rev Douglas Haviland, rector of Grand Falls and Edmundston Episcopal churches. The brides who wore a dress of cream serge entered the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march with her brother Dr Stanley Neales, of South Lawrence Mass, who gave her away. The choir also sang, "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden" Mrs Baker of Newport, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. The ceremony was performed by Rev Canon Neales of Sussex, uncle of the bride assisted by the Rev David Jenkins. During the signing of the register the Choir sang the Hymn "How well come was the Call."

The church was beautifully decorated, and a large number were present to witness the ceremony. The bride received many beautiful and useful presents. After the ceremony the young couple left for a wedding trip to Canadian cities. The bride's travelling suit was of king blue cloth with black trimming and hat to match.

SMALL & FISHER CO'S PLANT BURNED

One of the most destructive fires that have occurred in this town for a number of years broke out in the Small and Fisher Co's machine shop about 1.15 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon last.

The fire is supposed to have originated in the motor room of the machine shop, and when the firemen arrived the building was completely enveloped in flames which the intense heat made it difficult for them to fight. A high wind was blowing and the fire spread to the moulding shop which was badly gutted before the flames were extinguished. Several other small buildings in connection with the plant were damaged: the office and salesroom being the only buildings saved. Had the wind been blowing in from the west nothing could have saved the town from destruction.

The plant was leased by Alex Dunbar and Sons who had about twenty men at work, and were very busy. They had a small insurance on part of the plant which they owned. The buildings and part of the plant were owned by Albert Hayden and others and were also insured.

SMITH-HACKING.

A quiet wedding took place at the Methodist parsonage on Wednesday afternoon when Rev R W weddall united in marriage Thomas J Smith and Elsie M Hacking, both of woodstock. The happy couple, accompanied by the bride's mother, Mrs Wm Hacking, left immediately on the express for Vancouver, B. C. where they expect to reside.

JAMES KAUGHTERTON

Many friends will regret to hear of the death Tuesday night at his residence here of Mr J K Aughterton, aged 68 years. The deceased gentleman was born in St Andrews. He took up railroading and was employed on the old New Brunswick Railway running from St Andrews to Richmond. He continued with the N B & C. as a conductor and shortly after his marriage he removed to Woodstock. Some 15 years ago he left the road and was night watch of this town for a few years after which he left for Port Limon, Costa Rica, Central America. He was conductor in Central America until his health failed him and a few months ago he returned to Woodstock. He was widely and favorably known and his friends were numerous. He leaves to mourn; a widow, one son, G M Aughterton, and three daughters, Mrs James A Gibson, Mrs Donald Mc Cormac and Miss Mary Aughterton of Woodstock.

Rev David Jenkins held a service at the house on Thursday morning after which the remains were taken to St Andrews accompanied by C M Aughterton James A Gibson Joseph Lamb and Wm Armstrong. There the body was taken to All Saints church where service was held before burial.

MRS JANE SMITH

Mrs Jane Smith died at St. Wicklow, June 21, of gangrene, aged 90 years. Deceased was born at Wicklow, professed religion in early life, and united with the church of her choice at that time; 36 years ago she united with the Primitive Baptist Church, being one of the charter members. She had a long experience and died full of faith in the promised reward of the faithful followers of the Saviour that she had so untiringly followed to her long Christian life. She leaves to mourn three sons and five daughters and a large number of grand children and several great grandchildren and a very large number of other relatives who will miss the kindly council of this aged pilgrim.

She was buried beside her husband who having died some 17 years ago, the deacon of her church Brother Robert Luna having charge as funeral director. The bearers were four of her old neighbors. The choir and organist, 8 in number, gave some fine selections appropriate to the occasion, for which we desire to thank them, voicing the sentiment of all present. The religious services by the request of the deceased were presided over by Rev C H Orser, assisted by Rev Kilcolliers of Mars Hill, he being a nephew of the deceased.

CONNOLLY THIBIDEAU

A very quiet wedding was solemnized on Tuesday morning, June 27, when Rev F J McMurray united in Marriage Miss Margaret May Thibideau daughter of Mr and Mrs John Thibideau, and Archibald Graham Connolly of the C. P. R.

The bride was dressed in cream French albatros and white hat. The bridesmaid Miss Sadie Thibideau sister of the bride, wore pale blue silk mull and white hat. Jack McMullin of the C P R was best man. After wedding breakfast at the home of the bride Mr and Mrs Connolly left on the 7.30 train for their wedding trip. On their return they will reside in Aroostook for the summer. Many handsome presents were received.

BISHOP FLEWELLING.

The home of Mr and Mrs George Flewelling was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday last when their second daughter Sylvia V was united in marriage to Wallace Melbourne Bishop youngest son of Mr and Mrs James Bishop of Chipman.

The ceremony was performed by Rev H G Kennedy in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride who was dressed in white was unattended. She received a large number of beautiful presents.

Mr and Mrs Wm Dunson of Victoria, B C and two children are guests of Mr and Mrs C B Snow.

Miss Hilja Torrop of the waltham Training School for nurses, is visiting her parents Mr and Mrs N H Torrop.
