FLORENCEVILLE

A new boy has added his interesting personality to the family group of Mr and Mrs W E Kilpatrick.

P R Semple is chairman and Mrs John Everett is Secretary of the Billeting Committee in view of the County S S Convention that meets in the Methodist church East Florenceville, the latter part of July the date soon to be announced. Let us look forward to one of the best Conventions in our County S S history.

Herbert Gordon of Winnipeg is visiting at H H McCains.

Mrs W W Jewett, Mrs F E McNally and Mrs W A Taylor left on Wednesday the 28th ult. for Edmonton and the Coast etc to combine sight seeing with the visiting of relatives.

Mrs M H Manuel returned home on Thursday. She reports the Twenty Second Annual meeting of the St John Presbyterian held in Greenwood church St Andrews on the 20th and 21st ult. to have been a very interesting one. While the new arrangement of the delegates paying their own way at the hotel instead of being entertained as on former occasions made the number in attendance fewer; yet the free and intimate association of delegates at the one hotel resulted in a happier and more perfect acquaintance, and made the speaking more easy at the several sessions. There were 34 delegates present. The new President is Mrs Logan, The Secretary Miss L Walker of Woodstock. The papers on Ideal Officers by Mrs James Ross, on methods, by Mrs Sterling on the uninterested girl and how to win her by Miss Stevens and on the power of influence by Mrs J H Thompson were deeply interesting and richly helpful. Officers need to be humble followers of Christ, pleasing in manner, ready for service and sacrifice. The key note in influence is walking hand in hand with Christ. Rev Mr Hobson led the devotional exercises on Tuesday evening. The address on Foreign Missions by Rev A W Thompson, 20 years mission ary in Trinidad, was specially impressive. His text was Sam L:12. He placed great emphasis on prayer. He spoke of the consecration and hearty cooperation of his people in church building. Rev James Ross Supt of Home Missions in his address spoke of the 20,000 without or with few religious services. Mrs James Ross's prayer dedicating of money to the work was one of ineffaceable memory, the papers on songs by Mrs Horseman was of live interest. The money raised was of encouraging amount for the students and to aid in meeting college expenses in preparing for the ministry there was raised $733 90. The amount raised for missions $2193 89 There were 12 from the Association made life mem bers and 15 from the Mission Bands in vested with similar honor

Johnson Thompson and family left on Thursday a m for Moncton

Howard Taylor had a fine barn frame raised on Friday the 30th inst

Miss Mary Fitzpatrick who has been clerk for some years at W E Kilpatrick's, where by her efficiency and pleasing manner she had won many friends left for her home at Port Elgin on Friday the 30th. She has left a blank in the Sunday school where she was the beloved capable and progressive teacher of a fine class of girls. Before leaving a large number of members of her class met her in the office and presented her with an address accompanied by a nice work box.

A Florenceville party visited Beaufort at the week end.

A large number from Florenceville attended the Plaster Rock picnic on Saturday July 1st. The Florenceville concert band accompanied the excursion who before reaching their destination numbered about 300 or more. The picnic was a success and netted a large sum. Some of the party were keenly interested observers of the interesting farming enterprise carried on by D Fraser. The field of barley formed a fascinating picture. The onions were a striking element. The acre of garden, the 16 acres of turnips were a stirring sight, great fields of oats testified to the fertility of the soil. Reference was made to the 24 acres on which on a previous year the trees were cut down in spring, the stumps removed by teams and dynamite and the ground so thoroughly cleared that the reaper was used at the harvesting.

Mr Manuel attended on Friday the funeral of one of the elders of the three Brooks congregation, Joseph Margison of St Elmo.

The Womens Missionary Society meets on Thursday 6th inst at the home of J H Kilpatrick.

The public closing of the Consolidated school on the evening of Thursday the 29th ult was a pleasing social function. The seating accommodation was overflowed. The 23rd Psalm was read by the Principal.

Rev Mr Turner led in the Lords prayer. Solos were rendered by Misses Eva Smith and Hazel McCain. The larger girls of the school presented an attractive appearance in two parallel lines. The school choruses were well sung. Miss Willa Hunter's paper on the origin and development of the English Drama showed wide reading. Miss Alice Lockart's paper on agriculture did her credit in its sensible and practical character. Charles Chapman's paper on reciprocity pro and con was full of suggestiveness. Miss Jennie Chapman delivered a thoughtful and pleasing valedictory. Principal Simms address was an eloquent one and revealed a broad view of education. The Provincial Secretary J K Flemming delivered a strong address to the graduates. He warmly commended uniting agriculture with education. He gave as elements in line of success, honesty, sobriety and industry. He declared illustratively knowledge to be power. Miss Alveretta Estabrooks gave an instrumental Solo. The Florenceville band rendered fine selections.

Good
tea is the result of care and experience
in blending—must be the combination of fine
flavor, smooth strength and richness. Because all these elements are so generously included
in Red Rose Tea it
well merits the term
"good tea."
