S A CONCERT.

Captain Urquhart of the Salvation Army, assisted by the other members of the army from Woodstock gave a most delightful musical entertainment in the Foresters hall on Friday evening May 26th. Mr Urquhart played nearly a score of instruments and was adept on any one of them. The people seemed more pleased with the violin music, however. The Band, led by Julius Neilson, was really excellent. Hartland will welcome the army again.—Hartland Observer.

BASE-BALL

The Woodstock base ball fans are making great preparations for a strong team to represent their town in the New Brunswick & Maine leagues. Chas Allan, the old Houlton player will captain their team. Roy Good has also been engaged to play. Many familiar faces will be seen in the clubs representing the different towns in the league. Houlton enthusiasts will attend the Woodstock games, as probably no base ball will be played in this town this season.—Aroostook times
