"An Interesting Letter to The Dispatch"

With my daughter, I have just arrived in Saskatoon from Vancouver, where we spent a week, and where, I can assure you, we had the time of our lives. To the average New Brunswicker, Vancouver seems almost like home, so many are there from home, especially from Victoria and Carleton Counties.

The palm for clannishness is usually awarded to the Scotsman, but I have an idea that it should be divided with the New Brunswicker in Vancouver. They certainly cling together, and there is a marked spirit of cordiality and welcome abroad, for all from "home." We certainly did appreciate meeting so many old friends. Among the many we met, I will mention a few. Mrs. Geo. Anderson from Woodstock, Mr. Fred Hale, who with Mrs Hale gave us a drive about the City and park. Being shown about the City by one so familiar with it as Mr. Hale, made the drive doubly pleasurable.

In Stanley Park, I noticed many new walks being laid out, and numerous gardens, which were just in the height of their beauty, and were lovely sights. We also took in English Bay, which is to Vancouver what Coney Island is to New York. In the City, we had the pleasure of seeing what will be one of the highest buildings in the Dominion. It is the building of the World Newspaper, and is now in the course of construction, being nearly completed. It is 170 feet high, and with its high tower can be seen all over the City. Mr. W. Anderson gave us a ride in his new car, which is one of the finest machines I have ever had the pleasure of riding in. He took us about the City, and Lulu Island, where I saw some very fine crops. In fact, everywhere we went, we saw great improvements being made in streets, etc. To a down Easterner, it is simply surprising.

We called on Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Roberts, at their new home on Barclay St., and were made very welcome. Tommy is a very busy man, as he is building a new five-story brick building in the heart of the City. We also spent some time with Mr. Sam. Brown and family, who we found well, and liking Vancouver very much. They tell me that all old people renew their youth and young ones grow better looking. To my mind, as far as Mrs. Jackson, Miss Jackson and Miss Brown are concerned, if improvement in personal appearance is possible, the Vancouver climate is responsible for it.

We called on Mr. and Mrs. Walter Atherton. Walter still wears the same genial smile as in N. B. We did not see Mr. and Mrs. Everett, as they were summering at their summer cottage at Howe Sound Beach, about thirty miles up the coast.

We went with the Browns to a picnic at Kitsilano Beach, and fell in with a veritable nest of friends. We met Mr. Rob McLean, who gave us a pressing invitation to tea, which we accepted, and found them very comfortable. We also met Mr. J. G. McAdam, who formerly was principal of the Andover Grammar School. He has been offered a splendid position on the staff of one of the High Schools, and I believe, has accepted.

We saw Mrs. Perkins and her sons, the Flanagan boys, who have made good in the West, also Mr. Burt and the Wallace boys from Bairdsville who are doing well. We also saw Gordon Loane from Woodstock. But to go on enumerating would be almost as much of a job as taking the census.

I may conclude by saying that the New Brunswicker has never any need to feel ashamed of his fellow country men in Vancouver, for they are all well liked there, and, generally speaking, make good. They also know how to make good with a friend, who happens to drop into their city for a visit, for although so far away, they seem not to have forgotten New Brunswick and its people.

BENJAMIN KILBURN.

Mrs. John P. McCluskey died Saturday noon, Sept. 2nd., after a long illness. Mrs. McCluskey was about 40 years of age and leaves a husband and family of five girls and one little boy 15 months old to mourn the loss of a kind, good wife and mother. The funeral took place Monday morning at the Roman Catholic church, Fr. Joyner officiating.—Fort Fairfield Review.

Carleton--McKeen

The marriage took place at St. Gertrude's Catholic Church on Wednesday morning Sept. 6th at 9 o'clock of Judge John L. Carleton and Miss Annie Josephine daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McKeen.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father. She wore a beautiful gown of cream satin with veil fastened with orange blossoms and carried a white prayer-book. Her sister Miss Gussie McKeen was bridesmaid. She wore a dress of white embroidered Swiss and carried a bouquet. Mr. Francis J. Mahon, of St. John, was groomsmen.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of the friends of the contracting parties by Rev. C. P. Carleton, of Petersville, Queens County, brother of the groom, assisted by Rev. F. J. McMurray, of Woodstock according to the impressive service of the Catholic church, the Nuptial Mass being offered up by Father Carleton.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride at Richmond, where many congratulations were extended to the happy couple. They left for an extended wedding trip to the United States, going west as far as Montana. The bride received many beautiful and costly presents.

Smith-McClements

The marriage took place on Tuesday morning Sept. 5th of Miss Mame McClements and Mr. Marvin Smith, of McAdam. Rev. Father McMurray performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride. Miss Lena McDonnell of St. Stephen, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Fred Dorey of this town, acted as best man. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left by the C. P. R. for Bangor and other American cities.

Saunders--McCain

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allison McCain, Florenceville, on Wednesday, September 6th, at 2:30 P. M., when their eldest daughter Eva R., was united in marriage to Harry P. Saunders, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Saunders, of Calgary, Alta., formerly of Woodstock.

The drawing-room was decorated with potted plants and streamers of white ribbon.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a very pretty gown of white Marquisette, trimmed with satin bands. Her veil was fastened with sweet peas, and she carried a bouquet of white asters and maiden hair fern. As the bridal party entered the drawing-room "Lohengrin Bridal Chorus" was played by the bride's sister, Miss Edith McCain. The bride was given away by her father. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Walden, of Centreville, in the presence of about 50 guests. Luncheon was served after the ceremony. The bride's going away gown was blue cloth with blue turban to match. Mr. and Mrs. Saunders left on the B. and A. for a short wedding trip.

They will come back to Florenceville for a few days before leaving for their home in Calgary, where Mr. Saunders is engaged in practising law. The bride received many beautiful presents in china, silver, and cheques. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Oldham, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Campbell, Miss Ella McAdam and Miss Jean Wilson, of Fredericton. Mrs. Geo. Saunders and son Ted, Mr. and Mrs. John Dunbar and Miss Beryl Dalling, of Woodstock.

Jarvis Watson and his daughter Miss May Watson returned last week from a ten days visit in Augusta and Waterville, Me. They attended the Fair in Waterville.

Beattie Guilty Of Wife Murder

Canadian Press.

Chesterfield Court House, Va., Sept. 8.—Henry Clay Beattie, jr., to-night was found guilty of murder in the first degree. The jury had been out but fifty-eight minutes when it came into court with a verdict of guilty. No degree of guilt was specified, however, and Judge Watson directed that the jury retire again to consider that matter. It seemed but a minute or that the jury was gone.

When they re-entered the foreman announced that the jury held Beattie to be guilty of first degree murder in putting his wife to death on the night of July 18 last. The penalty is electrocution.

Council for the defense moved to set aside the verdict on the ground of being contrary to the law and evidence and of misdirection by the court and because of various rulings on the evidence excepted to by the defense. The court overruled the motion for a new trial. Judge Watson stated that the trial consisted almost entirely of question of fact and that no questions of law entered materially into the decision of the jury.

The defense asked for ninety days to file a petition for a writ of error to the supreme court of appeals of Virginia. Attorney Wendenburg, for the state, asked that the defense be restricted to within a few days of the meeting of the supreme court in November.

Judge Watson decided that in view of the fact that there had been little delay in the actual trial of the case the request of counsel for the accused was reasonable and granted a stay of execution for ninety days.

Judge Watson sentenced Beattie to be electrocuted at Richmond on Nov. 24.

Asked if he had anything to say why he should not be sentenced the prisoner replied: I have nothing to say.

To friends, Beattie said: I have not got yet.

The trial began on Aug 21.

Normal School Graduates To Wed.

An interesting event will take place the last week in September when Miss Annie Laura Grass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Grass, Windsor, Carleton county, will be united in marriage to Robert L. Simms, principal Florenceville Consolidated School. Both of these young people are well known in the city having graduated from the Normal School the same year and since that time both have been students at the University. Mr. Simms while here was a prominent member of the Conservative Club, and spoke through the country for the party during the last local and federal election campaigns.—Gleaner
