Last year the sale of Pelham's Peerless fruit and ornamental trees increased 40 per cent in New Brunswick because we deliver standard trees and to contract grade. Our agents made money in proportion to the increase in sales. We want now a reliable agent for Carleton county. Write for best terms.

BOARD OF HEALTH

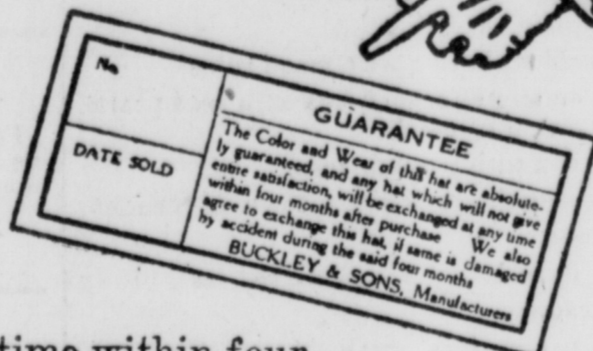

HE ANSWERED HIM.

The testy old gentleman forced to wait an hour at a wayside station, was bemoaning his fate, when a mild mannered countryman strolled into the station and commenced to converse. Looking at the many labels on the visitor's bag, he began:—You've travelled about quite a lot? Yes. Ever seen a Jew? Often. Ever seen a Jap? Yes. Ever seen a—The testy old gentleman could stand it no longer, and, rising to his full height, shouted in stentorian tones—Did you ever see a fool? The mild mannered one let his keen eye rest on the irate traveller a moment, then in a sweet low voice, replied:— Yes, I have.

Did you ever know of a hat guarantee so strong as this?

Think of it—

a new hat any time within four months, to any man who can show a Buckley hat that has succumbed to wear and tear, or to accident, within that length of time after date of purchase.

The man who wears Buckley hats is sure of a reasonable hat-cost—because the makers of the Buckley guarantee that each Buckley hat shall be good for at least four months' wear.

The man who is Buckley-hatted knows that he is "hat-right" not only as to quality, but also as to style—the style supremacy of the Buckley has long been recognized. English as to quality, it conforms to American style tendencies.

The Buckley creates styles where lesser makers are content to follow the beaten path.

Another feature of the Buckley is that it is strictly a Union-made hat.

Note the "accident clause" in the guarantee. Many have wondered at its insertion, claiming that it makes it too easy for a man to get a new hat. That feature of the guarantee was prompted by a strong belief in the inherent honesty of mankind and a desire to remove all possibility of quibbling or questioning on the part of the merchant. Backed with that clause, your hatter is in a position to hand you out a new hat without hesitation and without suspicion.

Any good hat store can get you the Buckley—the price is no greater than for an ordinary hat. They sell for $2.50.

BUCKLEY HATS

He Was Scared

There used to be a sheriff in a Green Mountain county of Vermont who for forty years had driven his prisoners—murderers, moonshiners and thieves—through the woods in his buggy to the county jail and yet who had never carried a revolver nor used a pair of handcuffs in his life. He had a strong hand, a brave heart and a stutter.

"Weren't you ever afraid? some one asked him one day.

"W-well, I low once I w-wuz t-t-to-l-'rable well skeert, he admitted slowly. "I h-heard S-Si P-Perkins, the b-barber, wuz g-gone d-daft an wuz c-carvin p-people up, an I c-calculated it wuz my official d-dooty to g-go an arrest him. So I w-went d-down to S-Sis shop an w-went in, an S-Si c-come at me w-with a r-razor in each h-hand. An then I 'low I wuz t-t-to-l-'rable well skeert.

"What did you do?"
 "W-w-well, said the old sheriff, spitting thoughtfully into the sand box beside the stove. "I wuz s-so s-s-skeert that I t-t-took 'em a-away from him.—Everybody's.

Maryland Beaten Biscuit.—Sift a quart of flour with a half teaspoonful of salt and rub in quarter of a cup of lard. Mix with a cup of cold water to make a very stiff dough. Knead until thoroughly mixed, then beat hard with a rolling pin, turning the mass over and over until it begins to blister, and looks light and puffy or, as the old recipes give it, "bill, a piece being pulled off quickly, it will give a sharp, snapping sound. Pull off quickly a small piece at a time, form it into a round biscuit, and press with the thumb, leaving a hollow in the centre. Put the biscuits some distance apart in the pan, and prick them with a fork. Bake twenty minutes in a quick oven. The biscuits should be light and of a fine even grain.

What was that tiresome old explorer talking about?" inquired the languid lady. "Progressive Patagonia."
 And how do you play it?—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Eggs in nests make a very attractive dish. Boil hot boiled potatoes through a potato ricer; there should be three cupfuls. Add three and one half tablespoonfuls of butter, one teaspoonful of salt and one half cupful of scalded milk and beat with a fork until creamy, then add two canned pimentes and beat until thoroughly blended. Reheat and arrange on a serving dish that can endure oven heat. Make nests in potato mixture and in each carefully slip an egg. Put in a moderate oven and cook until eggs are set. This same potato mixture is a very delicious accompaniment to roast beef.

SPRING SKIN TROUBLES

Pimples, Eruptions and Spotty Complexions

At this season scores of people—girls and young women especially—find their faces disfigured by pimples, dark spots, eruptions, etc. The skin needs attention—needs renovating after the trying time it has passed through during the winter.

Just think what it has gone through! You have been out in rain and sleet and snow. You have been at one moment perspiring from skating, or some other exertion. Then you have stood to "cool off." You have spent hours of the day indoors at a temperature equal to summer heat. Then you have covered up your skin—except your face—and gone out into a temperature away below zero! No wonder that with all these changes the skin of the face and neck shows signs of needing attention.

Zam Buk and Zam Buk Soap are the remedies. Smear Zam Buk lightly over the spots, the eruptions, the scaly patches, at night, and wash with Zam Buk Soap (only 25¢ per tablet) each day. Then notice how quickly your appearance improves. As the rich, refined, herbal essences sink deep into the tissue, the hard, scurfy like patches are removed. Better color results. The cells of the skin become transparent. The blood beneath is able to impart its proper coloring to the tissue and the delicate bloom of health replaces the sallowiness and pallor of disease.

Zam Buk is also a sure cure for skin injuries and diseases. Eczema, ulcers, ringworm, yield to its use. For cuts, burns, bruises, children's rashes, etc it is unequalled, and for piles. Mothers will find Zam Buk Soap best for baby's bath! All druggists and stores at 50¢ box for Zam Buk and 25¢ tablet (or 3 for 70¢) for the Soap. If you have any difficulty in obtaining, order from Zam Buk Co., Toronto, and send price.

EASTER MORNING

(John White Chadwick)

A gentle tumult in the earth,
 A murmur in the trees,
 An odor faint but passing sweet,

Upon the morning breeze,—
 The heralds these whom thou dost send.

Dear spring, that we may know
 How soon the land, from side to side,
 Shall with this beauty glow.

And 'tis by tokens faint as these,
 O Truth that makest free!
 That thou dost give assurance strong
 Of better things to be,
 Of higher faith and holier trust,
 Of love more deep and wide;
 Of hope whose anchor shall not break,
 Whatever storms betide!

O truth of God! it is not ours
 Thy summer to forestell,
 Not ours to taste the fruit which now
 Doth in the blossom swell;
 But we are glad and free of heart,
 That we thy spring have known;
 Well speed the days whose sweetest praise
 Is to be called thine own.

To Keep Moths Away

Line each box with a newspaper, arranging it so that there will be a good flap left to fold over on each side of the box and at the top and bottom. The printers' ink is unpleasant to the moth, and so newspapers are always valuable in excluding the pest. Lay in each garment as you have folded it, the parts of each suit together, fold over the papers, put on the top, which should fit tightly, tie it down securely, mark the tag and attach this to the string binding the box.

All sorts of woollens may be put up by this method, but it is especially excellent for suits, coats and other articles which are injured by close packing. Who of us fails to recall the wrinkled condition in which garments have been taken from their swathings of cotton cloth and newspapers, after they had been put up with camphor or tar balls? Yet this way of putting up, serves very well for woolen underwear and other articles which are not injured by crushing.

Would You Provide for the Care of Canada's Needy Consumptives?

THEN SEND YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE
MUSKOKA FREE HOSPITAL FOR CONSUMPTIVES

MUSKOKA FREE HOSPITAL FOR CONSUMPTIVES. MAIN BUILDING FOR PATIENTS.

A national institution that accepts patients from all parts of Canada. Here is one of hundreds of letters being received daily:—

John D. McNaughton, New Liskeard, Ont.: A young man not belonging here, and suffering from, it is believed, consumption, is being kept by one of the hotels here. He has no means and has been refused admission to our hospital. The conditions where he is offer him no chance. Could he be admitted to your Free Hospital for Consumptives? If not, could you inform me where he can be sent, and what steps are necessary to secure prompt admittance? NOT A SINGLE PATIENT HAS EVER BEEN REFUSED ADMISSION TO THE MUSKOKA FREE HOSPITAL BECAUSE OF HIS OR HER INABILITY TO PAY.

Since the hospital was opened in April, 1902, one thousand five hundred and twenty-four patients have been treated in this one institution, representing people from every province in the Dominion. For the week ending November 20th, 1909, one hundred and twenty-five patients were in residence. Ninety-six of these are not paying a copper for their maintenance—absolutely free. The other twenty-nine paid from $2.00 to $4.00 a week. No one pays more than $4.00. Suitable cases are admitted promptly on completion of application papers.

A GRATEFUL PATIENT

Norah P. Canham: Enclosed you will find receipt for my ticket from Gravenhurst, hoping that you will be able to oblige me with the fare. I was at your Sanatorium ten months, and I was sent away from there as an apparent cure. I am now working in the city, and I am feeling fine. I was most thankful for the care I got from the doctors and staff, and I must say that I spent the time of my life while I was there.

TAKING THE CURS IN WINTER AT MUSKOKA FREE HOSPITAL FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

The Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives is dependent on the good-will and gifts of the Canadian public. Money is urgently needed at the present time to make it possible to care for the large and increasing number of patients that are entering the institution.

Will you help?

Where greater urgency?

Truly, Canada's greatest charity.

April ATHLETIC WORLD

The April number of that interesting Canadian publication "The Athletic World" has just reached this office. A perusal of its pages and a glance at the many illustrations give free proof that in the covering not only of Canadian but also of universal sports and general pastimes, this magazine is more than fulfilling past promises and marking out a future of certain and unqualified success as a national periodical for Canadian followers of sports of all sorts.
