NOT MUCH SNOW ON UPPER ST JOHN RAIN IS NEEDED.

Reports from lumber operators on the headwaters of the river St John are to the effect that there has been difficulty in hauling on account of scarcity of snow and that unless there are heavy rains during the spring a considerable proportion of the drives will not get into safe waters. At present the snow on the Upper St John is about four feet deep but is very light and will not make any great amount of water when it melts as is has already begun to do.

WILL LEAVE LUMBER ON YARDS.

The St John Lumber Company of Van Burden Me, on two operations will leave 3,000,000 feet of lumber on the yards. The scarcity of snow has been the cause of abandoning this lumber and it is expected that other operators will also have to leave lumber on the yards. The American companies westward haulers to a considerable extent but for some time have found it impossible to use them.

EARLY BREAK UP EXPECTED.

Present indications are that there will be an early opening of the main river St John and an early commencement of steam driving. An early break up of the ice is usually considered by the lumbermen as an indication of hard times for the drives.—Fredericton Mail
