Household Hints

NEW LINGERIE.

Hints For the Woman Who Makes Her Own Underwear.
New nightdresses recently brought over from Paris are more than ordinary expensive owing to the scraps of real point lace inserted among the embroideries crossing the chest and at the tops of the sleeves. As a matter of fact, these scraps of lace are very little more costly than are some of the pieces of genuine old English eyeletting, but they wonderfully impress the thoughtless shopper, who does not take into consideration that a half

NIGHTGOWN IN NEW EFFECT.

dozen nightdresses may be thus enriched with the addition of a ten dollar a yard piece of rose point. In buying lace for this purpose the woman who makes her own nightdresses should be careful to get a pattern of the medallion order, as these furnish the conspicuous insert for the front of the gown, while the scraps cut from about it may be worked together and inset at the sleeve tops. The nightgown illustrated is a charming model in nainsook and cluny lace.

THE NEW HOUSE.

Keep a Scrap Book For Valuable and Helpful Suggestions.

When a family decides to build a new house or even to transform an old one by additions and alterations the children, as well as father and mother, should be encouraged to suggest and plan for the convenience of all, says the Boston Cooking School Magazine.

A very good idea is to keep a scrap book or note book in which are put all the magazine and newspaper articles containing suggestions for porches or fireplaces or general building. To these should be added the observations made when visiting other homes or when going through unfinished houses. Friends are eager to give information and advice as soon as they see the plans, and by keeping all such suggestions in the note book mistakes and errors may be avoided and conveniences secured that had been unthought of.

The height of the laundry tubs and dish sink often determines whether or not the mother has a backache, and yet most contractors are allowed to put in the plumbing by their own rule, regardless of the woman who occupies the house. She must conform to the average, instead of having the tubs made to accommodate her. And why should the kitchen stove require a woman to kneel before it every time she looks into the oven? A platform under the stove will raise it to table height and save that stooping which so tires the back.

Sewing Room Hints.

All those who are fond of tatting will save much time by whittling a sharp point on the end of their tatting shuttles so they can pull the thread through the picots with the shuttle without having to use a pin or crochet needle each time.

When the weekly wash comes up from the laundry take the clothes that need mending and find patches of the material, yarn to darn with or whatever is necessary to mend with and pin the pieces to the article to be mended, then put them aside in a drawer or sewing bag until you have time to sit down quietly and sew. Having everything ready, you will be surprised at the amount you can do at one sitting.
By this method the weekly mending loses half its terrors for the busy housekeeper.

In order to keep spools of cotton and silk always handy have the drawers of your sewing machine fitted with thin boards through which are driven wire nails placed two inches apart.
Place these in the drawers with the points of the nails upward and on each nail slip a spool of thread.

One row holds white thread from 24 to 100, another holds black thread and silk and still another all the odd shades of silk and cotton that have been used in the making of frocks or those that are likely to be used in the ordinary sewing for the family.

People do not know that the very best thing to eat is apples for the night. Perhaps the mystery of the night is the fruit are the bane of the night. The in horror of the night. The which such a condition may summon up, but no one can come even to a delicate system of the eating of ripe and juicy apples before going to bed.
The apple is a potent brain food because it has phosphoric acid in easily digested form than any other fruit. It excites the action of the liver, promotes sound and healthful sleep and thoroughly disposes of the mouth. This is not all; the apple prevents indigestion and throat diseases.

GOVERNOR'S GOVERNOR.

When the late Senator Taylor, of Tennessee, was Governor of that State he was interrupted just as he sat down to luncheon at home one day by a message from the capitol to the effect that two men from an outside town wanted to see the Governor at once.

The Governor said to Sam, his negro butler, who brought the message: "Sam, tell them I'll be right down."

"Yes, sir," said Sam.
"Sam," broke in Mrs. Taylor, "you tell them the Governor will be down in half an hour—after he has finished his luncheon."

"Sam," said the Governor, "say I'll be right down."

In half an hour, Sam," said Mrs.
Taylor.

"Sam," said the Governor, "do you know who is the Governor of Tennessee?"

"Yes, sir," replied Sam; "I'll tell 'em you'll be down in half an hour."

THE WRONG "CYLINDER."

The motorist emerged from beneath the car and struggled for breath. His helpful friend, holding an oil can, beamed on him:

"I've just given the cylinder a thorough oiling, Dick."

"Cylinder?" howled the motorist, "That wasn't the cylinder. It was my ear!"

Mi-o-na

An Excellent Stomach Remedy

Mrs. J. R. Whyte, Killarney, Manitoba, who says: "I have found great comfort and relief from Mi-o-na. I had been greatly troubled for months with heartburn and a heavy burning feeling in my stomach. A fair meal would disturb me so much that I would have to sit up at night—the food would sour on my stomach and form a gas which would cause belching and dizzy spells. These distressing troubles disappeared after using Mi-o-na and I shall always speak highly of this excellent stomach remedy."

Mi-o-na is the best prescription for tomach trouble ever written. It gives quick relief and cures permanently.

WHY OATMEAL VARIES

Only One-Third of the Oats Are Fit

To make a really delicious oatmeal, one must use just the plump, rich grains. Common oatmeal, made of oats as they run, lacks flavor and richness. And it lacks, above all, that wealth of energy element which makes one "feel his oats."

Thousands of people eat oatmeal without ever knowing what a vim-producing food it is. They never know how enticing it can be. They buy oats in bulk without even a brand on them to guarantee the grade they get.

The choicest oats are sifted 62 times in getting the grains used for Quaker Oats.
Only ten pounds in a bushel—the choicest third of the finest oats—is good enough for Quaker.

The Quaker process makes these grains into an oat food worth having. One who once eats it will never again care for a common oatmeal.

Oats are the vim-producing food. But they who get the utmost effects are the eaters of Quaker Oats.
Made in Canada.
