Lepers Get Five States In Tangle

Washington, D. C., July 27.—Federal health authorities and five states are worried over the disposition of two lepers. One is detained at Buffalo, N. Y., with Buffalo objecting to his detention there, and the other is held in Denver, Col., with Denver asserting that the sufferer ought to be sent to wherever he came from as soon as possible.

Buffalo officials insist that Samuel Isen, one of the victims, has a home in Bay City, Mich., and that he ought to be shipped there at once. Bay City authorities deny that Isen has a home there and have sent word to Washington that they will not receive the man.

Denver health officials declare that C. W. Browning, now in their care, escaped from San Francisco's leper colony. The Health Department of the Pacific coast metropolis reports that Browning is a citizen of Texas and demands that he be sent to that state. Washington awaits word from the Lone Star officials.

Gas For Sussex. Will Locate Wells Between Apohaqui and Sussex. Work Starts Soon

Several weeks ago the record announced that it had been definitely decided by the Maritime Oilfields Limited to start work on the sinking of gas wells in the vicinity of Sussex. Matthew Lodge, of Moncton, who has been largely interested in the oil and gas development of New Brunswick now announces that boring operations will be started in the near future between Sussex and Apohaqui. From the wells located here, Sussex will receive its supply of fuel and pipes will be laid between here and St. John to supply the city and intermediate points. The coming of natural gas is bound to have a decided effect on the growth of Sussex. The news is good. It means cheap power and cheap fuel for this town and the removal of a lot of nuisance which attend the consumption of coal and wood.

Destructive Wind Storm at Morden, Man.

Morden, Man., July 28.—The most destructive wind and hail storm ever witnessed in this district took place here yesterday evening between 6.30 and 7 o'clock. As part of the result of the work of the wind at that time the Morden curling rink is completely demolished, the large stable at the agriculture grounds is minus a roof, the Arlington Hotel is short of bricks and also its back verandah and kitchen steps. J. H. Black's residence, the Canadian Pacific Railway freight sheds, the Ogilvie elevator and a number of other buildings have had parts torn off them and box cars were shifted off the tracks. Reports from the country indicate that many stables and small frame buildings have either been destroyed or moved by the storm.

The King is Dead; Long Live the King.

TOKIO, Japan, July 30.—The great state ceremonies in connection with the change in the rulership of the Japanese Empire, caused by the death yesterday of Mutsuhito, and the accession to the throne of his son, Yoshihito, were continued to-day. The announcement was made at an early hour of the name under which the new era is to be known. The era changes with every reign and an official decree says the new designation is to be Taisho, in place of Meiji, as it was during the reign of Mutsuhito. Calm reigns throughout the empire today, and the nation for the moment appears completely overcome with sorrow. All the people have put on signs of mourning, and all festivities and public functions have been stopped.
