We Will Order It For You

IN a district where so many people are constantly moving out and others coming in, it is not possible for a druggist to always have in stock the exact kind of goods which the newcomers have been in the habit of buying. However, you will not have to make a second request at our store in order to get the goods you desire. Anything which we do not have in stock we will gladly order and carry in stock for you, if you request us to do so. Those who have resided in this neighborhood for some time can vouch for the statement that our store is very completely stocked with all goods used in the neighborhood. This is an accommodating store. It tries to accommodate every customer, whether he is a 5c. customer or a $5 customer. We cordially invite YOU to come and make the acquaintance of our store.

Base Ball

The Reds invaded St. John, Monday, June 3rd, where they easily took into camp the St. John team at both engagements. The morning show was a battling contest, Houlton being the star performer. Anderson held the fort for the Reds and did good work.

The matinee in the afternoon was easily taken by Houlton by a score of 8 to 6. Martini was the mound artist and he showed that he is a valuable asset for the team.

(Morning) Score by innings:
Houlton 2 1 1 1 0 3 0 0 2--10
St. John 0 0 1 0 3 2 0 0-- 6
Hits, St. John 12, Houlton 17. Errors Houlton 2 St. John 8. Batteries, Anderson and Watt; Woods and Cannon.

(Afternoon) Score by innings:
Houlton 0 0 0 2 2 4 0 0--8
St. John 0 3 0 1 0 2 0 0--6
Hits, Houlton 19, St. John 12. Errors, Houlton 1, St. John 3. Batteries, Martini and Watt; Berry and McGovern.

The Reds made it three in a row Tuesday, June 4th, at Woodstock when the Queen City ball tossers forced them through a fierce contest, the count being 3 to 1.

Urquhart was on the firing line for Steve's "Reds". His salary arm was in prime shape and he had the enemy at his mercy during the entire engagement.

One might start here and say the features were—as a matter of fact, however, there wasn't anything that was not a feature.

"Eke" Johnson and "Tanker" Hughes both poled the singles each while Fredette contributed a brace of singles.

There was something doing from start to finish.
