The Doctor's Question Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders

"A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, 'are your bowels regular?' He knows that ninety-eight per cent. of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Resall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of their great remedial value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Resall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, gripe cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effect. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Two sizes, 25c. and 10c. Sold only at our store—The Resall Store.—E. W. Mair.

Mrs C. Allan Smith entertained at five o'clock tea on Friday.

CENTREVILLE

Daniel Cronk, who was formerly a resident of this place, but for many years has resided in Bridgewater, Me., has moved back to Centreville and now occupies the dwelling house of J. B. Daggett.

Norris DeLong, of Charleston, has taken an interest in the J. B. Daggett Co. and is now doing business here.

A number of parties now engaged in other places in general merchandise have been looking over the Tweedie Co. Store and Stock with the idea of taking the business over and putting in a full stock. Mr. Wilson, of Lakeville, has made offers that will probably be accepted and if so will begin stocking up this week.

George Burt, graduate from the Ontario Veterinary College, has done some pretty skillful work along his line, according to reports of his employers. We are always glad to hear of the Centreville boys making good.

Mrs. James Crone is again confined to her bed with neuralgia. Mrs. Harey Kinney is suffering with the same disease. Dr. Field has the cases in Charge.

The friends of D. McLeod Vince in this place were very sorry to hear of his death. In all the years that the people of this place have known Mr. Vince he has held a high place in the estimation of all.

Mrs. Susin Watson, who has been visiting her brother H. J. Clark of this village for some weeks, has returned to Deerville to visit her daughter Mrs. Samuel Bayton.

The sound of the railway workers can now be heard in Centreville and hope is again revived that we will soon have more direct communication with the outside country.

The Late Lt. Col. Vince.

well Known Barrister, Leading Member of Canadian Militia and one of Our Honored Citizens.

BORN IN ENGLAND.

Lieut. Col. Donald McLeod Vince, one of the best known barristers in New Brunswick, and a man held in the highest esteem by all denominations, passed away at his home here at 10 o'clock on the evening of Nov 25th, aged 64 years. He was well known throughout the Maritime Provinces and the sincere regret of his friends here at his death will be shared by many others in Canada. Many provincial newspapers have commented on his death, the St John Globe saying he was one of the highest minded men in the province and one widely known and esteemed.

Mr Vince had been in failing health for the past year, but was able to attend to business until about five weeks ago.

The deceased gentleman was born in Berwick-on-Tweed, England, Nov 20, 1848. His father, Robert Vince, was a veteran of the Crimean war, who came out to Fredericton, N. B. with his regiment which was stationed there about 1847, and there he married Miss McLeod, the ceremony being performed by the late Rev W O Ketchum, curate in Fredericton, father of His Worship Mayor Ketchum of Woodstock. The regiment returned to England soon after where Colonel Vince was born. Later on the regiment went to Dublin, Ireland, where the Colonel was educated. He came to New Brunswick in 1866. He first engaged in teaching in this county under the old School Act, and afterwards became active in mercantile pursuits. In 1879 he entered the office of the late Lewis P. Fisher, of Woodstock as a law student, then graduated from Boston Law School, and in 1883 was admitted as an attorney and has since that time worked up a large practise.

ACTIVE IN CANADIAN MILITIA.

The real purpose and energy of his life, however, was given to the work of the Canadian militia and he will be known in Canada as one of its best officers. Shortly after his arrival in New Brunswick he joined what was then known as the N. B Militia, afterwards merged into the Home Guards. After confederation he commanded a company in the 67th Battalion Light Infantry. The pride of his life in the militia was the organization of the Brighton Company of Engineers, now known as the First Field Company of Canada of which he was the commanding officer for 20 years. At the expiration of that time he was called to the Divisional Staff and acted in several important positions, always to the perfect satisfaction of the Officer Commanding District. As one of the principal officers at the annual drill in Sussex, N. B., his presence and counsel will be much missed.

PROMINENT IN CHURCH WORK.

Deceased was a member of the United Baptist Church and since the amalgamation of the Baptist and Free Baptist bodies was the chairman of the N. B. Conference. At the local and general conferences of the Baptist denomination the deceased was always present. He was a man of great intelligence and while he lived quietly his hand was always ready to help the poor and unfortunate. He was a liberal giver to all Christian denominations and philanthropic works. His gifts were made quietly and when of a public nature the Colonel has frequently requested the writer, so far as he could, to "keep it out of the newspapers." He will long be remembered by all who knew him because of his charitable disposition and his splendid exemplification during life of a true Christian gentleman. The large attendance at the funeral, even, was a touching tribute to his exemplary life and his sterling manly Christian character.

NOT A POLITICIAN.

While versed in politics, he was not a politician as understood at the present day. He wished to win, but on his side everything had to be above board. There was no bribery and corruption, no rum and money used, when Colonel Vince was a candidate. In the early days when the Conservative party was not so strong in Carleton county as at present, he unsuccessfully contested three elections as a candidate of his party. In 1887 he ran against the late F. H. Hale, who was the Liberal candidate that year, and in 1891 against Dr. N. R. Colter, the present post office inspector for New Brunswick. The vote was Colter 2016, Vince 1908, a majority for Colter of 108. There was a protest entered on the grounds of bribery and corruption and in the by-election of April 1892, he was defeated by 265 votes, Colter having 2500, and Vince 2235. In the counsels of his party, during the excitement and heat of an election, his was the cool head that restrained the ardor of the enthusiastic element from doing or saying things that later they might be sorry for; when incidents were quoted of unfair tactics by the other fellows, showing how even himself was used when postmaster, his answer was to refrain and that two wrongs did not make the thing itself right.

WAS WOODSTOCK POSTMASTER.

In May 1896, he was appointed postmaster of Woodstock, but on the defeat of the Conservative party in the general elections of 1896, he was asked for his resignation, which was promptly given. As postmaster he was strictly just to all and brought to bear upon
