Servia to Get a Commercial Port.

London, Dec. 19.—The Belgrade correspondent of the Daily Mail sends the following: "I learn that the Austro-Servian dispute has been solved. Servia will recognize an autonomous Albania, receiving the use of a commercial port on the Albanian coast, connected with Servia by a neutral railway. The Servian minister of railways is leaving Belgrade for London for the purpose of giving technical advice to the Servian peace delegates."

London, Dec. 19.—Whether peace is to be declared between Turkey and the Balkan allies or whether the war is to be continued is expected to be settled within forty-eight hours. In diplomatic circles in London the opinion prevails that if the thorny obstacles which are likely to present themselves at the sessions of the peace conferences in St. James Palace to-day and to-morrow, can be surmounted or circumvented peace will be assured.

The revictualing of the Turkish fortress of Adrianople, on which the Turks are reported to insist as a condition to the waiving of the demand that Greece should sign the armistic, is a most troublesome point and if the Turks maintain their attitude it will indicate that they are still firm on the subject of the retention of the fortress after the war.

Athens, Dec. 19.—A violent cannonade occurred yesterday between the Greeks attacking and the Turks defending Bizani fort. A Greek aviator flew over Bizani and Tanina. Turkish fire slightly damaged his planes, and he replied by dropping bombs. He eventually landed safely.

London, Dec. 19:—The peace plenipotentiaries of the Balkan allies and Turkey were in session at St. James Palace to-day for only about three-quarters of an hour.

Use Your Influence for Concrete Roads

There's no need to point out the advantages of good roads.

The kind of good road, however, is another matter.

It used to be that there was little choice. Macadam for the country and smaller cities was the only material used. Then, twenty years ago concrete was introduced. And for these twenty years concrete has been proving itself.

It is now acknowledged to be one of the best known materials for roads or for street pavements—to be as far superior to ordinary macadam as macadam is superior to sand.

Estimating the Cost.

It is not the first cost of a road that determines its real cost; nor is it the first six months of service that determines whether it's a good road or a poor one.

The only sure way to find out what a road has cost, is to add to the first cost all that is spent for repairs in fifteen or twenty years.

Now, that's where concrete roads win every argument—their first cost is practically their only cost; they require little or no upkeep cost. Concrete, instead of needing repair, actually becomes stronger with age.

Then Rehad Pasha and Salih Pasha hurriedly left the palace and went to their hotel. They refused to give reporters any information.

The Ottoman government has authorized its delegates at the peace conference to propose at the next session that Adrianople and all the other besieged Turkish towns shall be revictualled, and if the proposal is not accepted by the delegates of the Balkan allies, negotiations are to be broken off, according to a news agency despatch received here to-day from Constantinople.

EBST INDIAN DRAWN-WORK

East Indian drawn-work makes a pretty finish for towels and pillow-cases, and can be used as a substitute for the ordinary drawn-work. It has also the advantage of not causing the eyestrain that is inseparable from pulling a large number of threads. The results of the work are similar in effect to punch work, but the process itself is quite different. The effect is got by using a large needle and fine thread, and doing the work on the wrong side of the cloth.

For a towel, draw one thread at the top of the hem to serve as a guide in keeping the work straight but do not turn the hem. Use number forty sewing-cotton and a large-sized punch-needle. Hold the towel in such a way that the hem part is in the left hand. Take four threads of the towel on the needle, holding the thread under the thumb as in a buttonhole stitch, and draw the thread firm. Do this twice with every four

If your urine is thick and cloudy or your passages frequent scanty and painful, your kidneys and bladder are out of order. Neglect quickly brings on rheumatism, diabetes, lumbago sciatica and etc.

Mrs. John Wagner of 110 Hollis St., Halifax, N. Spots would dazzle before my eyes and everything would turn black. I would fall to the floor and be unable to get up again without assistance. A friend told me of Booth's Kidney Pills and I began their use. The first box gave me relief and I am now well and strong."

threads. Repeat this, leaving four threads between each two stitches until the embroidered strip is of the desired width; then turn the material round until the line already done comes under the left hand, and using the same stitch between the holes of the right-hand line, work back to the guide line. That will leave one thread of the sewing cotton showing over the holes. That thread, as well as the four threads of the towel, you will take up in the next row of stitches. Turn the towel so that it is in the first-position, with the hem part under the left hand, and repeat. When you have completed the drawn-work, turn the hem as usual, and finish it with French hemming.

CANDY PUDDING FOR CHRISTMAS.

Grind in a meat chopper a half-cupful each of shelled nuts, best-seeded raisins, figs, dates, coconut, candied cherries and candied pineapple, and a very small amount of citron. Spread the ingredients on the centre of a large marble slab. Boil together two cupfuls of sugar, the milk of a cocoanut, half a thimbleful of salt, half a thimble of soda, two tablespoonfuls of cream, and one tablespoonful of butter, with just enough water to cover them.

When the mixture "threads," or seems hard enough to handle upon being dropped into cold water, remove it from the fire and pour it over the chopped fruit. Stir it constantly with two forks until it is cold enough to knead. Work the mixture until it is smooth and well blended, press it into square, shallow pans, and leave it there until it is perfectly cold. Cut it into pieces to fit small pasteboard boxes, and wrap it in oiled paper. Wrap the boxes in scarlet paper, and tie them with holly ribbon.

This candy, if properly made, will not be at all sticky, but will slice thin without clogging to the knife.
