How to Tell If Your Hair is Diseased

Even if you have a luxuriant head of hair, you may want to know whether it is in a healthy condition or not. 98 per cent of the people need a hair tonic.

Pull a hair out of your head, if the bulb at the end of the root is white and shrunken, it proves that the hair is diseased and requires prompt attention if its loss would be avoided. If the bulb is pink and full, the hair is healthy.

We want everyone whose hair requires treatment to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. We promise that it shall not cost anything if it does not give satisfactory results. It is designed to overcome dandruff, relieve scalp irritation, to stimulate the hair roots, tighten the hair already in the head, grow hair and overcome baldness.

It is because of what Rexall "93" Hair Tonic has done and our sincere faith in its goodness that we want you to try it at our risk. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store.—E. W. Mair.

He was 80 years of age and leaves a widow and one child. The remains were taken to Glassville on Friday afternoon for interment.

TOWN COUNCIL.

The town council met in regular session Monday night Nov. 4th and approved of the minutes of the previous meeting. A number of bills, (always a feature of a Council session) were presented and scrutinized by the members of departments after which ceremony they were passed on to the finance and audit committee for approval.

Coun. Balmain felt that the old hospital should be relieved of taxes, about $30.00 due for years 1910-11. He moved that this be done and the motion carried.

Coun. Mair had a copy of the by-law relating to buildings covered by the fire district—he claimed there was a very serious error or omission in the law as it now stood, as the district between the armoury and Green street was not mentioned. Other members of the Board agreed with this view and Coun. Mair moved that a committee, including the Clerk and building Inspector, be appointed to draft an amendment to Sec. 2 of the by-law respecting buildings. The section referred reads:

"The use of wooden shingles shingle roofs is prohibited in the following district, the district bounded on the West by Green Street, on the south by Chapel and Regent streets, on the north by Elm Street, and its prolongations to the River St. John, and on the east by the River St. John, and in this district all buildings must be covered with gravel or metal roof or other proof roofing."

All water rates not paid by Dec. 1st were ordered given to a collector. The street committee were ordered to insure the street roller.

A motion was carried that the 67th band be paid $100.00 balance of the appropriation of $200.00 granted for concerts during the summer.

Council met at 8 p. m. on Friday evening, present His Worship the mayor and Couns. Dibblee, Balmain and Mair. Nothing of importance came before the meeting. The bills passed the Council and the salaries falling due were ordered paid.

There were a few remarks made on the liquor question but no action was taken.

Coun. Dibblee—it seems by the local newspapers that it cost more to enforce the Scott Act than the receipts amounted to. I have no objection to that if the Scott Act was carried out, which it is not. If Inspector Colpitts thinks he wants more assistance, I believe he should have it. The officers should exert themselves and assist the Inspector. There is altogether too much liquor drinking. The hotels are not to blame, but the liquor is brought in and sold by pocket peddlers. I believe the Inspector should have every support, and I think a committee should be appointed to talk the matter over with the Inspector.

Mayor—I think the matter should be left to the license committee.

Coun. Balmain—There is no question but that pocket peddlers are to blame. I do not wish to mention names but I have a suspicion that I could name one young man who is in the pocket peddling business. I also hear that the liquor is made by these peddlers and believe that it is rank poison. It is a crying shame that something cannot be done to abolish the evil.

Coun. Dibblee—Is it true that loads of liquor can be carried through the town after dark free from seizure?

Solicitor Hartley—The trouble is you cannot get a search warrant after dark.

Chief Kelly—The general conditions are not very good. From the magistrate's report it will be seen that the arrests are numerous, and most of the liquor comes from pocket peddlers.

Why Was It Rejected?

(To the Editor of THE DISPATCH)

Sir:—At the recent synod of the Anglican church of the Province of Canada the Rev. Cancn Tucker submitted the following resolution, which was seconded by Mr. Justice Ermatinger:

"Believing that peace on earth is one of the fruits of the Gospel of Christ.

"Believing also that war is, in its spirit and character, fundamentally opposed to the spirit of Christ;

"And being further convinced that a war between any European nations, which is incredible, would be an unspeakable disaster to civilization, Christianity and the best interests of the human race.

"This synod most earnestly deprecates anything that has a tendency to inflame the warlike spirit anywhere, and most solemnly calls on all men of good will to promote unity, peace and concord among the nations of the earth."

Can anyone think of an apter and more becoming thing than the submitting to such a body as that in question of such a resolution? It is redolent of brotherly love; it glows with the last-born beams of advancing civilization; it breathes the very spirit of the Master. Surely if anything could be said to be honest, to be just, to be pure, to be lovely, to be of good report, it could be said of this. And yet when it was brought forward to be voted upon it was defeated,—as grand and as beautiful an expression of human thought as could be penned was driven forth dishonored from their presence by an eminent body of Christian leaders. There are many things occurring in our world today which will escape the knowledge of future generations and this is well for our reputations with those generations but if ever this act of the Episcopal Synod of Canada, in the year of Grace Nineteen Hundred Twelve should reach the knowledge of a war-emancipated future people can anyone imagine what thought it would awake? Would they be proud of us? No! no more so than we are proud of the clergymen who opposed the freeing of the slaves.

Yours etc,
D. E. JACKSON.

Cholera Breaks Out Among Troops At Constantinople

Constantinople, Nov. 10—The outbreak of cholera is assuming serious proportions. Twenty-three cases have occurred among the troops along the Tihahajja lines up to Wednesday. There are many more suspected cases among the wounded. A train-load of wounded has just reached here, eight of the soldiers having died on the way presumably from cholera.

The disease is getting a firmer hold on account of the massing of the troops, the lack of proper food and the complete absence of sanitary arrangements. The danger to Constantinople is great on account of the influx of refugees. Already several suspected cases among the latter have been reported. The authorities are preparing a special quarantine hospital with 400 beds at Sirkeji.
