SCHOOL PICNIC

A School Picnic will be held at Bedell on Friday, June 21st.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

The engagement is announced of Miss Clara Mabel, daughter of Mrs. Fraser J. Dalling of Belleville to Mr. John K. MacIntosh. The wedding will take place on Wednesday afternoon, June 26th, at three o'clock, at the home of the bride, Belleville, N. B. They will be at home July 16th and 17th, Bath, N. B.

COUNTY COUNCIL

The County Council met in the Court House at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning and transacted all the necessary routine business. The building committee reported on the repairs to the jail and were authorized to proceed and complete the work.

AFTERNOON TEA.

Mrs. R. G. Thompson entertained a number of her friends very pleasantly at 5 o'clock tea on Tuesday afternoon in honor of her guest Mrs. P. P. Gunn of Sussex. The drawing room and dining room were very prettily decorated with snowballs and double buttercups. Mrs. Thompson was assisted in receiving by Mrs. A. E. Jones. The Misses May Gillen, Jean Smith, Marion Lindsay and Marie Thompson served in the dining room. About thirty-five guests were present.

OTTAWA HAS WON HIGH HONORS

Wendell Clarke, of 93 Gilmour Street, has been awarded the Petit scholarship of the first year in Hebrew and Greek at Toronto University. He was also awarded a gold medal in oratory at Trinity College.

Mr. Clarke is a bright and talented young man, as was evidenced by his capturing the Ottawa Collegiate Institute scholarship last year. —The Ottawa Evening Journal. Mr. Clarke is the only son of the late Rev. J. W. Clarke, who was pastor of the Free Baptist church in this town for three years. Mr. Wendell Clarke received his early education in Woodstock.

The Fort Fairfield friends of Benjamin Kilburn of Kilburn, N. B., will grieve to learn that he has for some time been in rather poor health. However, he is now gaining somewhat, and hopes to be around again in a comparatively short time. . . . An optimist recently predicted that because it rained June 4, it would rain 40 days. He said that, if it rains June 4, it always rains 40 days afterwards. We hope this man is the poorest prophet that ever stepped foot on Aroostock soil. . . . At Aroostock Junction, N. B., on Sunday, evening June 9th, Rev. J. A. Ives preached his farewell sermon as he expects soon to leave for another field. We are sorry to lose Mr. Ives as he is a very fine man and an earnest worker in the cause of anything good.

The Methodists And Church Union

Winnipeg Man., June 15.—Rev. Dr. Carman, General Superintendent of the Methodist Church, in addressing the Methodist Conference here last night, expressed his "unbounded satisfaction" at the conclusion reached by the Presbyterian Assembly at Edmundton regarding Church Union. While he did not commit the church to any course of procedure, he thought personally that it was desirable that the proposed union should take place. The divine indications pointed that way, he believed. He said that the special committee of the conference would likely meet in July, and they would decide the advisability of calling the General Conference for a special meeting. It would in his opinion, be unseemly for the Methodist Church to delay proceedings, but there would be no undue haste.

Base Ball

Houlton took another game from the Marathons, Saturday afternoon by the score of 4 to 3. The game was close all through and the Marathons put up a pretty good article of baseball. Duffy was on the mound for the Greeks while Anderson heaved them over for the visitors. The pitching was about even, each team getting ten hits and each pitcher six strikeouts.

Duffy pitched a consistent game and with the team behind him it should have been chalked up as a win.

WOODSTOCK, 2; FREDERICTON, 1.

At the league game held at Connell Park on Friday between Fredericton and Woodstock both nines were in the game every minute, putting plenty of life into the contest. Stinson, the Woodstock pitcher, had the game well in hand at all time and twirled good ball from start to finish. Both teams supported their pitchers in a brilliant manner, every man accepting the chances that came his way, with very few errors. It was the best exhibition that Woodstock has put up this season but there is room for considerable improvement. The summary:

Rev. R. W. and Mrs. Weddall and Miss Weddall are attending conference in Fredericton. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Weddall.

George R. Burt returned from Anover on Tuesday, of last week, accompanied by his son, George F. Burt, and daughter, Mrs. Paul M. Taylor. His health is still poor. . . . On Sunday George Raymond of Middle Simmonds thought he saw a new horse in A. R. Foster's pasture. He went to look at it, going leisurely toward it without looking particularly in its direction. Hearing the rattle of hoofs he looked up to see a bull moose coming at him. A nearby tree afforded the started man a means of escape. . . . Miss Ruby Carvell of Lakeville, has been visiting Mrs. A. R. Foster. The road bed of the C. P. R. just north of the Begaquimac bridge is being widened. A train of 20 cars is being used to bring ballast for the purpose from Downey bluff where a steam shovel is at work.

Mrs. Richard A. Crabb

On Wednesday, June 5th., the death of Mrs. Richard A. Crabb occurred at her home in Richmond. Her death after a few days illness from pneumonia came as a great surprise to all. She was in her 44th year, and was the daughter of Mrs. Laurence Keefe, of Lakeville. She leaves to mourn her sad loss her husband and seven children. She was much esteemed by a large circle of friends and acquaintances, and her funeral which took place in the Catholic cemetery at Debec Junction on Saturday morning, was one of the largest in that vicinity for some time.
