It Grows Hair.

Here are Facts We Want You to Prove at Our Risk.

In all our experience with hair tonics there is one that has done more toward gaining our confidence than any other. We really believe this remedy, known as Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is so superior to other preparations that we offer it to you with our personal and unqualified promise that if you use it and it doesn't prove in every way satisfactory to you, we will upon your mere request at our store, return to you the money you paid us for it.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic acts scientifically, destroying the germs which are usually responsible for baldness. It acts to penetrate to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet necessity, is delicately perfumed, and will not gum nor permanently stain the hair.

We want you to get a bottle of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair and in every way give entire satisfaction, come back and tell us, and get your money back. Two sizes 50c, and $1.00. Sold only at our store---the Rexall Store---E.W. Mair.

Mr. Tedley of Newburg has been appointed operator in the W. U. T. office here in place of Miss Clark who left for Watrous on Monday.

CENTREVILLE

December Sixteenth and wagons and autos yet on the road---who will remember next year what a pleasant December we have had?

William Hovey a respected resident of Royalton passed away at an advanced age last week. He was laid to rest in Tracy Mills Cemetery and within a few days Mrs. Reynard Wheeler followed to the Spirit Land. For many years the late Mr. and Mrs. Reynard Wheeler were residents of Tracy Mills but for the past few years they had resided at Bridgewater Centre she was also buried at Tracy Mills.

A slight shock of earthquake was felt here one morning last week, the vibrations continuing for several seconds.

Shepherd Burt lost a valuable Jersey cow last week. Mr. Burt has lost a number of good cows within a few years.

George Briggs who has been in the Customs office at McAdam for the past few years has returned to Centreville and will move into his own home lately vacated by John McLean.

Mr. Moore of the advanced Dept. of the Centreville Graded School has tendered his resignation with the prospect of taking the Superior School at Marysville.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sherwood have gone to California to spend the winter.

Mr. William Wilson has opened the Balloch Store vacated by the Tweedie Company. He is putting a good stock which he says will be exchanged for produce or cash at a small margin.

Word was received on Sunday by S. W. Burt that his son Dr. Lee Burt of California is very ill.

The farmers are getting good prices so far again this year. Oats are higher than usual at this time of the season.

TOWN COUNCIL

At the regular meeting of the Town Council on Friday evening Dec. 6, all attending, with His Worship Mayor Ketchum in the chair, after passing the bills and paying the salaries, the Council adjourned, but not before a spirited speech was made by the dean of the Council.

Coun. Dibblee said that he had waited upon Magistrate Holyoke in reference to the Scott Act bill of A. B. Connell, the legal adviser to Inspector Colpitts. The magistrate's report for three months showed 59 convictions--31 were fined and 28 committed to jail. He (Dibblee) thought that some work should be got from the latter class. Some of them go periodically to jail, feed on the best the jail affords, come out slick, and after a few weeks of freedom ready to go back. The magistrate said he had no jurisdiction to sentence to hard labor, and he suggested that the town by-laws should be changed to read "or imprisonment for any term with or without hard labor." When he (Dibblee) was a boy, Mrs. Baker kept the lock-up and all a prisoner got was bread and water; so long as the sheriff feeds the prisoners on the best in the land, he will have no difficulty in getting boarders. We have a lot of wood to saw which the town pays good money for having done, and the prisoners could do it just as well as not. In the two cases laid over, one for speeding an auto and the other for kicking over a garbage can, the least these young men should be made to do is to pay the costs of the case. Referring to Scott Act matters, which is a delicate question, as a person is bound to be condemned either way, he spoke to the Magistrate about Mr. Connell's bill; the former said the bill was a just one and should be paid. He (Dibblee) spoke to Inspector Colpitts and told the latter that he thought when five or six papers are served on a man, the cost should be regulated; it was not fair to the town for all the papers to carry cost. On the advice of a bum, the Inspector entered suits against four parties in town, neither one of whom the speaker thought was selling rum; after getting money from the inspector the fellow skipped out without giving evidence (which would not have been believed anyway) and it cost the town $75. He requested that the inspector be more careful in getting informers. While the Scott Act was not being run for revenue, still there should be sufficient fines to pay the bills, which so far has not been the case although it may come out even by the end of the year.

Calder-Harding.

At eight o'clock yesterday morning at St. Paul's church, Miss Mary Agnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip A. Harding of this city, became the wife of Rev. Archibald Clement Calder also of Regina. The full marriage ceremony of the Anglican service was used, His Lordship the Bishop of Qu'Appelle officiating, while Rev. Canon Hill was the celebrant of the holy communion. The choir was present and sang "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden" and "O Perfect Love." The Mendelssohn Wedding March was played as the newly married couple left the church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Phillip A. Harding, and was attended by Miss Peart. The groomsmen were Messrs. Roy Harding and Rutledge.

Miss Harding's wedding dress was of white satin, the skirt draped and the bodice trimmed with net and lace. Her veil was of net arranged in becoming mob cap style and she carried a cluster of cream roses and maiden hair fern, and looked altogether charming. Miss Peart wore a blue silk frock with drapings in pannier effect and trimmings of lace. Her hat was black with white plume and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony at the church a reception was held at the home of Mrs. Calder's uncle, Mr. J. F. Bole, on Hamilton street. Here the young couple received the congratulations of their friends before a delicious wedding breakfast was served. Mrs. Bole received the guests, wearing black velvet and a large black hat with plumes.

Fred C. Squires
Principal.

Mrs. Harding, mother of the bride, was dressed in black with black and white hat.

The health of Mr. and Mrs. Calder was proposed by Canon Hill in a neat little speech, while the singing of "They Are Jolly Good Fellows" cheers for the bride and groom were enthusiastically led off by Rev. Sidney Hawthorn. Mr. Calder responded to the toast and song.

Mr. and Mrs. Calder went to Winnipeg last evening, where they will spend a short honeymoon. The bride's travelling dress was of golden brown cloth with brown hat and brown fur coat. The groom's gift was a pearl and sapphire pendant, and to the bride-maid a pearl brooch.

On their return from Winnipeg, Mr. Calder will be stationed at Pilot Butte and will make his home there. Mrs. Calder has been a faithful member of St. Paul's choir and will be much missed. The large number of beautiful gifts bore testimony to the well wishes which will accompany the young couple in their new life.

The Rev. Mr. Calder, who has been a worker in the diocese of Qu'Appelle for a number of years, is a native of New Brunswick. He was graduated from Dalhousie College in Halifax and practised law for some time. Later, however, he became a divinity student at Bishop's College, Lennoxville and was graduated from that institution before coming to this western mission. Vancouver Daily Province.

Mrs. (Dr.) Mann and Miss Dorothy, of Houlton were in Woodstock on Wednesday.
