Watch Out For Bad Money

Toronto, Oct. 4--An ambitious swindler is at work in Canada, raising $1 United States bills to $5. The fraud is being so cleverly perpetrated that more than a casual glance is necessary to discover it. Recently a teller in one of the branch banks was victimized. At a quick glance a person not expert in handling money would not detect the fraud.

Every place there was a figure "one" it had been covered over with a "five" taken from the government seal bands on cigar boxes.

E. W. Mair returned on Saturday from a moose hunting trip. He was successful in securing a head.

Miss Mary Wright, left for West Newton, on Wednesday to resume her studies in the hospital there.

Mrs. Hubert Seeley entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening in honor of her guests, the Misses Ketchum.

F. L. Mooers is rising his house four feet and placing a stone wall underneath. Henry Post has the contract.

Rideout-Pearson.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Pearson, Upper Brighton was the scene of a happy event on Wednesday Sept. 25th, when Christiana M. their youngest daughter was united in marriage to Arlington A. Rideout one of the counties successful produce dealers, a son of Frank F. Rideout, Peel, N. B.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. A. Manuel pastor of the Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. S. W. Schurman, pastor of the United Baptist Church of Hartland. The guests assembled on the lawn during the ceremony which took place at 2.30 p. m. under an arch of evergreens near the door. The bride entered the archway on the arm of her brother Joseph, while Miss Pauline Rideout sister of the groom played the wedding march.

The bride wore a silk mull dress trimmed with bullion fringe, a bridal veil and orange blossoms carrying a shower bouquet of white carnations, sweet peas and maiden hair fern. Her travelling suit was grey broad cloth with hat of white felt with white ostrich mount. The bride received many nice presents mostly in silverware and money.

The grooms gift to the bride was a set of Alaskan Sable furs.

Among the many guests present were the Hon. J. K. Flemming and wife; and A. D. MacCain with whom Mr. Rideout is associated in business.

After the wedding supper the young couple took the train for St. John where they will spend a few days. On their return they will make their home in Hartland.

Rev. Douglas Haviland

The many friends of Rev. Douglas Haviland were sorry to hear of his death, which took place at Montreal on Monday of last week. Mr. Haviland, who had been in poor health for the past year, went to Montreal to undergo a surgical operation with the hope of regaining his health. He taught school at Upper Woodstock for a time, after which he studied for the Episcopal ministry. His first pastorate was Grand Falls, which he had to resign owing to failing health, and for the past year he has been living in Woodstock.

He is survived by a widow, who is a daughter of the late Ven. Archdeacon Neales, and an infant son; also three sisters, Mrs. M. R. Loggie, Chatham, Mrs. T. H. C. Benson, Ottawa, and Miss Ida Haviland, Providence R. I., and one brother, Archibald Haviland, of Vancouver, B. C.

The remains were brought to Woodstock on Wednesday's train and were taken to the Parish church, below town, where the funeral service was said by the rector, Rev. A. S. Hazel, and the body was laid to rest in the Church yard adjoining. The pall bearers were Mayor Ketchum, A. D. Raymond, W. S. Skillen and Raymond Gabel.

Miss Ida Haviland, Archibald Haviland and Mr. T. H. C. Benson accompanied the remains to Woodstock.

Coun. Geo. Colter Was Found Dead

Mouth of Keswick, N. B. Oct. 5.--Coun. George L. Colter was found dead in the woods on what is known as the Hill, not far from his home, by his father, Hon. George J. Colter, early this morning.

He had gone out into the woods on Thursday to enjoy a day's gunning, but did not return that evening. When he had not returned by last evening some anxiety was felt and several parties commenced searching for him it being feared that possibly he had become lost in the woods.

This morning his body was found by his father, the young man having been shot. Apparently the gun had been accidentally discharged, but it may have been that he was shot by another hunter. The affair has cast a gloom over the community, but up to the time of writing complete details of the sad accident could not be obtained.

Coun. Colter was one of the youngest members of the York County council, being about thirty years old. He had been elected in the parish of Douglas for the second term and was believed to have a public career in view.

A sad feature of the case is that it is only a few months since the deceased was married, his widow being formerly a Miss Wright, of Douglas. Besides his father, he is also survived by one brother, Mr. Ashley Colter, C. E., a former U. N. B. student, and a graduate of McGill University. Dr. N. R. Colter, post office inspector, of St. John, is an uncle of the deceased.

Up to noon today no announcement had been made as to the arrangement for the funeral.

Paynter-Colter

A pretty house wedding for which both the principals had travelled from the Pacific coast, took place Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the residence of Dr. N. R. Colter, Post Office Inspector, 271 Charlotte street. The bride was Miss Annie, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Colter, who has been in Vancouver since last August, while the groom was Mr. Horace Paynter, manager of the East End branch of the Bank of Hamilton in Vancouver. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wilfred Gaetz, pastor of Queen Square Methodist church, in the presence of a large number of invited guests in the spacious drawing room, which had been tastefully decorated for the occasion, the prevailing colors being pink and green. As the bridal party entered the room they were met by the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Daisy Weddall of Fredericton. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore an elegant gown of duchesse satin trimmed with lace with a bridal veil and orange blossoms, and carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses. Miss Faye Camber of Woodstock, who was the bridesmaid, wore a gown of pink satin with chiffon overdress. She had on a pink hat with willow plume, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Eleanor Colter, sister of the bride, waited on the young couple as maid of honor, wearing a costume of maize yellow satin, with beaded chiffon tunic, a black picture hat with willow plume. She also carried pink roses. Little Miss Helen Benson of Lindsay, Ontario, made a charming flower girl in a dress of pink and white carrying a basket of pink carnations, roses and maiden hair ferns. Mr. Harold Smith acted as groomsman. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held, after which all present sat down to a tempting luncheon. Among the out of town guests were: Mayor and Mrs. Hatt, and Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Williams, of Marysville; Mr. John J. and Miss Daisy Weddall, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Weddall and the Misses Alice and Eleanor Weddall, Mr. C. A. Sampson and Miss Sampson, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Colter, Mrs. B. H. Torrens, Mr. and Mrs. James Colter, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Murray, Mrs. Smith, Miss Grieves, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Morrison, of Fredericton; Hon. George Colter, Keswick; Mrs. George Fisher and Miss Fisher, of Chatham; Mrs. J. J. Benson and Miss Benson, of Lindsay, Ontario; Mrs. A. A. Sterling, wife of Dr. Sterling, Stanley; Mrs. W. D. Camber and Miss Camber, Woodstock.

Denis B. Gallagher

Mr. Denis B. Gallagher, a barrister of many years standing, died of paralysis at the Fisher Memorial Hospital, Tuesday night, aged 65 years, after a week's illness. Deceased spent his boyhood days in Woodstock and studied law with the late L. P. Fisher. He practiced here for a while, then removed to Andover, where he carried on his profession for many years. He then located in Bath, N. B. some ten years ago, where he practiced until his death. He was a prominent member of the A. O. H. in Johnville, and was highly respected. He is survived by two brothers and two sisters, J. J. Gallagher, barrister, Grand Falls; Charles of San Francisco; Mrs. Hugh Judge of Woodstock, and Miss Rose Gallagher of Oakland, California.

The funeral was held on Thursday morning, from the residence of his sister, Mrs. Hugh Judge, to St. Gertrude's church, where a requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. F. J. Mc-

Murray, after which interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

The pall bearers were Hon. J. L. Carleton, A. B. Connell, K. C. Colonel D. McLeod Vince and Hugh E. Gallagher. Chas. F. Gallagher and Coun. Wm. Gallagher represented Division No 2, A. O. H. of Johnville, of which he was an esteemed member.

Thompson-Street,

A very quiet wedding took place on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. James P. Hull, Richmond Street, when Miss Mary Steven Street was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, to William Thompson, formerly of Sackville, now employed with W. J. Cogger of this town. The bride, who was unattended, was becomingly attired in a dress of white lingerie. The house was prettily decorated with autumn leaves and cut flowers. Rev. R. W. Weddall performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride. Miss Street, who for the past two years has been stenographer for J. A. Clark & son, was very popular to which the large number of presents received testified.

SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF AT HALIFAX

The school for the Deaf at Halifax has re-opened after the summer holidays and the Principal, Mr. J. Fearon, would be grateful for the addresses of parents who may have deaf children. There are throughout the Maritime Provinces many children who are not totally deaf, but so hard of hearing that they cannot take due advantage of the instruction in ordinary hearing schools. Such children should attend the school in Halifax where their speech will be improved and everything possible done to help their hearing by prominent ear specialists.

HARVESTERS' EXCURSION.

Advices from the West indicate that the demand for labor is more urgent than it has been at any time since the harvest commenced. This is consequent upon the fact that a greater number of men are required to assist in the work of gathering the immense crops, which are the greatest in Canada's history.

It will be readily understood that the great task of gathering the crops requires a greater amount of assistance than the mere work of cutting. At the present time there is work for 20,000 men to help in harvesting, and the wages are higher than ever before paid. The extra help cannot be provided in the west, and for the purpose of helping to meet the requirements the Canadian Pacific Railway will run a Harvesters' Excursion from St. John and points on its line in New Brunswick on October 14th. The rates from all points will be $12.00 going to Winnipeg and $18.00 returning. Those from other points in the Provinces will come to St. John or nearest junction point with C. P. R.

Would Shoot Lloyd-George

Lipton Will Challenge

London, Oct. 5.--During a reception last night to the released suffragettes at Clapham, Mrs. Duval said that if she was present with a revolver at one of Chancellor Lloyd George's meetings, she would unhesitatingly shoot him.

Liverpool, Oct. 5.--"I am going to New York prepared to challenge for the America's cup, after discussing the terms under the latest rules of the American Yacht Club," said Sir Thomas Lipton on his departure to-day or New York. The definite statement of Sir Thomas Lipton that he is about to make a fourth attempt to win back the America's cup confirm recent rumors that he intended to issue another challenge. There had, however, been some doubt as to the British yachtman's willingness to risk a further effort to regain the famous trophy and conflicting reports published during the past few days had added to these. The race if it should be arranged, cannot take place before next year, as ten months must elapse between the sending in of the challenge and the race. Since the last race in 1906, a new code of rules has come into force and it is to consider the effect of these in connection with the American yacht clubs that Sir Thomas Lipton is now going to America.
