G. P. Burchill, Chatham, F. D. Swim, Doaktown and Jas. F. Connor, Chatham, a committee from the Northumberland County Council, were in town Monday Feb. 19th, looking over the court house. Northumberland is to have a new court house, costing $30,000 and it is said the committee were very favorably impressed with the design and convenience of the Woodstock building.

Emery C. Cobb, of Penobscot Co., Maine raised 2575 bushels of Potatoes from 5 acres, an average yield of 503 bushels to the acre. He used one ton of Bradley's Complete manure to the acre, on an old worn out field—this field received no other dressing whatever—and shows what Bradley's Fertilizer will do. It is an old Stand-by in the States, and if it will do such good work there—why not try it here? Benn & Turney are agents.
