Matheson-Nevers

A very pretty house wedding took place on Tuesday afternoon Dec. 12th 1911 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Boyer, 2703 Woodland Drive, Vancouver, B. C. when Miss Fannie Nevers cousin of Mrs. Boyer became the wife of Mr. Angus Matheson of Vancouver. Only the immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom were present. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. F. Waring, M. A. pastor of 5th Avenue Baptist Church, Kitsilano. The bride wore a handsome gown of blue velvet with trimmings of silver sequin net and pipings of satin. She carried a beautiful bouquet of bride roses and maiden hair ferns. Following the ceremony a dainty lunch was served after which the happy couple took their departure for a short tour of the coast cities. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Matheson will proceed to their new home at 527 Reid Street Collingwood West. The bride was the recipient of many dainty gifts including silver, china and linen, the grooms gift was a handsome set of furs. Mrs. Matheson has a large circle of relatives and friends in Carleton County who will be pleased to learn of this happy event.

Hartland Boy Rhodes Scholar

Wolfville, N. S., Jan. 19.—The Nova Scotia Rhodes Scholarship for 1912 has been awarded to Harvey T. Reid, of the senior class of Acadia University. Reid is a son of John H. Reid, of Hartland, Carleton County, N. B., and entered Acadia in October, 1908. From the beginning of his college course, he has had a very high standing in all subjects, and has also found time to take part in athletic contests. He was best full back in the Intercollegiate Football League, and has also been a regular member of the Acadia baseball team and basketball team. He is very popular with his fellow students, who are all congratulating him on his appointment.

No Cause To Doubt

A Statement of Facts Backed by a Strong Guarantee

We guarantee immediate and positive relief to all sufferers from constipation. In every case where our remedy fails to do this we will return the money paid us for it. That's a frank statement of facts, and we want you to substantiate them at our risk.

Rexall Orderlies are eaten just like candy, are particularly prompt and agreeable in action, may be taken at any time, day or night; do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, griping, excessive looseness, or other undesirable effects. They have a very mild but positive action upon the organs with which they come in contact, apparently acting as a regulative tonic upon the relaxed muscular coat of the bowel, thus overcoming weakness, and aiding to restore the bowels to more vigorous and healthy activity.

Rexall Orderlies are unsurpassable and ideal for the use of children, old folks and delicate persons. We cannot too highly recommend them to all sufferers from any form of constipation and its attendant evils. That's why we back our faith in them with our promise of money back if they do not give entire satisfaction. Three sizes: 12 tablets 10 cents, 36 tablets 25 cents and 80 tablets 50 cents. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Woodstock only at our store—The Rexall Store. E. W. Mair.

One Million Dollars for a Good Stomach

This Offer Should be a Warning to Every Man and Woman

The newspapers and medical journals recently have had much to say relative to a famous millionaire's offer of a million dollars for a new stomach.

This great multi-millionaire was too busy to worry about the condition of his stomach. He allowed his dyspepsia to run from bad to worse, until in the end it became incurable.

His misfortune serves as a warning to others.

Every one who suffers with dyspepsia for a few years will give everything he owns for a new stomach.

Dyspepsia is commonly caused by an abnormal state of the gastric juices, or by lack of tone in the walls of the stomach. The result is that the stomach loses its power to digest food. We are now able to supply certain missing elements—to help to restore to the gastric juices their digestive power, and to aid in making the stomach strong and well.

We know that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are a most dependable remedy for disordered stomachs, indigestion, and dyspepsia.

We want you to try them and will return your money if you are not more than satisfied with the result.

Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store. E. W. Mair.

Editor DISPATCH, Woodstock, N. B.

Dear Sir:

In your issue of Nov. 29th., you publish an article copied from the "Telegraph" on which, we would like space in your valuable paper, to correct a few of the mistakes, or lies, as Bishop Richardson expressed it, when referring to the Western Pamphlets.

In the first place, we gladly confess to belong to the Charles Richardson family, from Newburg Station, N. B.

Some of us have been here five years, and have raised good crops each year. Last year on account of the drought, our crops were not as good as in other years, yet we threshed more and better grain than we ever did in Carleton Co., N. B. This year has been an abnormal one in the West, as it rained right up to harvest time, and gave the grain no show to ripen; nevertheless we will thresh as good oats and barley as ever grew out of the ground, and though our wheat is frosted there is plenty of it good enough for seed, and we emphatically deny that we have or ever have had to burn any, as per Mr. Hartt's statement. Now we don't know where Mr. Hartt got his information, but we do know that if anyone wrote it from here, they were looking through blue glasses, as there was just one man in this township who burned his grain, and he only a part of his crop.

'Tis true, we cannot raise fruits grown only in tropical countries, such as His Lordship, the Bishop, would have one believe could be done in N. B. Yet this is the first season that we have not grown such garden commodities as corn, beans, cucumbers and tomatoes and get ripe.

Regarding Mr. Hartt's statement as to the district where he lived, we think would fit in with the Bishop's "lying pamphlets," as we are personally acquainted with people living in that section of country, who report no such failure.

This is a new country and not all clear sailing, so one needs go, grit and gumption—commodities not evenly divided, so therefore the failures.

But when we fail to make good here, we hope we have man enough in us to lay the blame where it belongs, and that will be with ourselves not with the country.

B. MCKINNEY,

The Personality of Thackeray

The most notable thing about Thackeray, was his own unique personality. He had a noble physique and a striking appearance. He had hosts of personal friends—among them both Carlyle and Tennyson—and he had no enemies in spite of his penchant for satire and even for burlesque. His visit to America on a lecture tour made a favorable impression on the cultured classes on this continent, who have ever since been his readers and admirers. His versatility is shown by the fact that he combined in himself the roles of novelist, poet, historian, satirist, and cartoonist, and that he was equal to all of them.
