Saturday At The Hayden-Gibson Theatre

Woodstock audiences should not fail to see Miss Crawley and her company including Mr. Arthur Maude in "What Kitty Did," a modern farce comedy in three acts, each of which creates a round of continuous laughter from start to finish. The plot is written around the old marriage question of convenience and involves an English dandy, a Peruvian Widow, a London Solicitor and a little country Miss, who is a match for them all. One scene where she disguises herself so that the Peruvian widow won't recognise her is extremely comical and again where the dandy fails to know his own wife is very amusing.

The play is written in English vein and around English people and should appeal to Canadians.

Meeting of the Board of Trade

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Board of Trade met in the Council Chamber on Monday evening. The delegation that went to Ottawa to interview the government concerning the location here of a divisional point and the car shops of the St. John Valley Railway, and the establishment of an Agricultural College and Experimental Farm, submitted a most encouraging report.

Concerning the location of the shops, Dr. W. D. Rankin reported that, accompanied by Mr. F. B. Carvell, M. P., the committee interviewed the Minister of Railways. A delegation from Fredericton had already presented to him the claims, of that city but nothing has been definitely settled yet. After hearing the delegation the Minister of Railways seemed quite favorably disposed to Woodstock and assured them that nothing would be decided against us without giving us an opportunity to present our claims. The Government however, does not have the selection of the divisional point. That rests with the constructing company of which Mr. Gould is the head.

The Secretary, A. D. Holyoke, reported that the delegation had a very satisfactory interview with the Minister of Agriculture, who was so impressed with the advantages of Woodstock that he would not act in the matter of establishing an Agricultural College and Experimental Farm for the Province until he had made a personal inspection, which he expected to do at an early date.

Mr. E. W. Mair reported that the Committee had been unable to meet Mr. Gould who was going South, but the matter of fixing upon a divisional point for the Valley R. R. was largely in the hands of his Chief Engineer, Mr. Ross Thompson. Mr. Thompson was in town lately to decide finally upon the route by which the road should enter Woodstock. He was met by the Committee and seemed very favorably disposed to Woodstock as a divisional point. He wanted the town to grant the Park, a 300 foot right of way from the Park to the Houlton Road, and a 100 foot right of way from the Park to the town line. The Town Council will ask for legislation to enable them to meet this request, and he thought we were practically sure of the divisional point here.

The President presented the plans for the proposed yards. These will be in the hands of the Town Clerk and Finance Committee who will try to obtain prices on the land required. A Town Meeting will then be called for a discussion of the proposition.

Mr. W. S. Sutton raised the question of a publicity fund and an animated discussion ensued, and a motion was passed asking the Publicity Committee to submit an outline of proposed literature, with approximate cost, at next meeting.

Pres. J. T. A. Dibblee, Col. Dibblee and Dr. Rankin were appointed delegates to the Immigration Convention to convene at Fredericton on March 8th.

A communication from the St. John Board of Trade was read concerning the "Back to New Brunswick for a Week" movement. Supt. V. A. Harshaw, J. N. W. Winslow, Jas. W. Gallagher, W. T. Blake and Col. Dibblee were appointed a committee to consider the matter and report at next meeting.

Meeting adjourned to meet on March 11th.

AN EXCELLENT MEDICINE FOR ALL LITTLE ONES

Mrs. Ovila Lamarre, Malvina, Que., writes: "I have found Baby's Own Tablets an excellent medicine and would not use any other for my little one. I think all mothers should keep the tablets in the house." Thousands of other mothers have the same praise for the tablets. They are absolutely safe—being guaranteed by a government analyst to contain no opiate or other harmful drug. They break up colds, expel worms, cure constipation and indigestion, in fact they are good for all the minor ills of little ones. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Getchell--Weatherhead

A very interesting event took place on Tuesday, February 20, at noon at St. Luke's Episcopal church, Caribou, when Miss Rachael Weatherhead, a popular and esteemed young lady of Gillespie, N. B., was united in marriage to Lyman F. Getchell, a prominent resident of Limestone. Rev. H. H. Gillies performed the ceremony, the beautiful and solemn rite of the Episcopal church being used.

Miss Laila Long of Limestone acted as bridesmaid and Ernest Weatherhead supported the groom.

The bride was charmingly attired in a gown of white satin draped with white net, and hat to match, her traveling suit being of gray. The bridesmaid wore a pretty fawn silk.

The groom's gifts to the bride were a beautiful gold necklace set with amethysts and a set of furs. The bride presented the bridesmaid with a ring set with sapphire and diamonds and to the groomsmen a watch fob.

The wedding breakfast was served at the Vaughan house, a large number of guests being present.

The happy couple left on the 3.45 p. m. train on a trip, to take in Boston, New York, Washington and other places. Many friends were at the station to see them off and to shower upon them their good wishes, confetti and the other usual symbols on such occasions.

Mr. Tompkins was converted in early manhood and ever lived a consistent faithful Christian, and was at the time of his death a member of the Reform Baptist Church of Hartland. He was an indulgent husband a devoted father, a kind and obliging neighbor always ready to assist any and all who needed his help. A man of great integrity and uprightness of character. A Statesman Passes. Edward Blake Dead

Hon. Edward Blake, K. C., LL. D., died at his home, 449 Jarvis street, shortly before 7 o'clock Friday night, after a lingering illness. The news of his death brought a severe shock to a large section of the community, who, while knowing of Mr. Blake's illness, were ill-prepared to hear of his death.

About two weeks ago Mr. Blake's condition took a change for the worse. He sank rapidly, and yesterday afternoon it became apparent that the end was near. Dr. Wm. Goldie, who was in attendance, summoned the members of the family to the bedside of the distinguished Canadian. Mr. Blake lost consciousness about half an hour before death. As he breathed his last he was surrounded by his wife, Mr. Hume Blake, K. C., a son, Mrs. (Prof.) G. M. Wrong, a daughter, and Dr. Goldie. Mr. Samuel Blake, another son, is at present in England, and was advised of his father's decease by cable.

About four years ago last summer, when in England, Mr. Blake suffered a paralytic stroke, and as a consequence he decided to retire from public life and seek rest and quiet in Canada. In August of 1908 he arrived at Quebec, accompanied by his son, Mr. Samuel Blake, and came right through to Toronto. Since that time he had lived in complete retirement. For the last two years he had undertaken no work whatever, spending the summer months at Murray Bay. Since coming to Canada Mr. Blake had two paralytic strokes, which induced the heart failure which brought about the final collapse. Mr. Blake's condition has been such as to preclude any attempt at literary reminiscences, and he will be best remembered by his constructive work in the early days of Canada both as lawyer and statesman.

Those who toiled and fought with Edward Blake, those who were associated with him on the great historical arguments that made his fame as a counsel extend to the bounds of the Empire, those who knew his constructive genius as a statesman, are best qualified to testify to his worth. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who succeeded him as Liberal leader in Ottawa; Sir James Whitney, who comes in the succession of Provincial Premiers; Sir John Boyd, his associate at law, and others, all speak in glowing terms of the man and his work, while his striking though kindly face, his pleasing manner, his ability as an orator, his achievements as a lawyer and statesman, and his distaste of ostentation will make him a figure never to be forgotten.

Hon. Edward Blake is survived by his wife, a daughter of the late Rt. Rev. Benjamin Cronyn, Bishop of Huron; his sons, Mr. Hume Blake, K. C., and Mr. Samuel Blake, and a daughter, Mrs. G. M. Wrong. Hon. S. H. Blake, K. C., a brother, is the only surviving member of his father's family.

Took Two Days For stage To Come From Meductic

Mr. A. W. Grant, stage driver and carrier of His Majesty's mail between this city and Meductic, arrived here Friday afternoon after spending two days on the journey from Meductic, a distance of fifty-two miles, plowing his way through snow which at some places had drifted across the road to a height of five and six feet.

The snow was heavier in the vicinity of Meductic and it was only with the help of Mr. Harvey Strange and Mr. Herbert Ingraham, road commissioner, that the delayed mail reached this city yesterday.

Mr. Grant stated that very few people along the road had made any attempt to shovel off the roads, and Hon. H. F. McLeod, on being informed of the existing conditions, made the necessary arrangements for the opening up of the road.

The last snow storm was undoubtedly the heaviest this season, and while only about ten inches fell in this section of the province, reports from Harvey Station state that the snow fall there was eighteen inches, and C. P. R. trainmen says that at Brownville Junction, Me., the fall measured a depth of three feet.
