Packard--Stephenson

A very pleasant company to the number of 135 gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stephenson, Florenceville, on Wednesday evening March 20th at 6 o'clock to witness the marriage of their youngest daughter Faye Mabel, to Elbridge Decker Packard, oldest son of Webster and the late Eva Packard, of Bridgewater, Me. They were attended by Edwin Louie Mackay, cousin of the bride and Miss Isadore Gensen, friend. The bride looked very lovely in a gown of cream serge trimmed heavily with cream satin and cream silk fringe with white satin slippers and wore a wedding veil of brussels net, her only ornament being a string of gold beads the gift of the groom's uncle, Mr. Willard Packard, of Bridgewater, Me. The bridesmaid looked very pretty in a dress of pink cashmere, trimmed with black fringe. Mrs. Rolland Semple rendered the wedding march very effectively on the piano, while Rev. Mr. Manuel, Presbyterian, performed the beautiful ring service in his most impressive manner. Immediately after the ceremony congratulations of all the friends present were showered upon the young couple and many were the good wishes tendered them for a happy and useful life.

Dinner was served immediately after congratulations and a sumptuous repast was served. The bride will be very much missed by all her friends in this place and on the East side, as she was a general favorite of all, both old and young, and will be much missed in the homes she visited as she was always the life of any party or social she attended.

On Thursday afternoon the happy couple left for Robinson, Me, where a large reception of over two hundred people was held that evening in Rideout's Hall, Mr. Rideout being an Uncle of the groom. The bride wore a beautiful dress of shell pink albatross, handsomely trimmed with pink satin and black silk fringe and large satin covered buttons. The bride and groom with their attendants received their many friends seated on a sofa on the stage, and as a bride always looks lovely, we will have to in this case say that the groom is a very fine looking young man, and has made many friends around the bride's home the past winter, wherever he has gone, and is of an estimable character. Refreshments of sandwiches and cake with tea and coffee were served at the reception at 12 o'clock after which fruit and cigars were passed round. During the evening dancing was indulged in by both old and young. The reception broke up about 3 A M everyone voting it the time of their lives. On Saturday morning March 23rd. the young couple took the train for Waterville, Me., where they will visit the groom's friends and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Parkhurst sister of the bride, they will be gone two weeks. The bride's travelling dress was of green broadcloth with coat, with black satin trimmings, her hat was of Irish green velvet handsomely trimmed with green wings and touches of black velvet. Her appearance suit is of a fine light fawn shade of cloth with hair stripe of green and handsomely trimmed with green satin. Her hat is of cream satin, faced with black panne velvet with large black willow plume and black jet ornament. The presents at wedding and reception were beautiful being nearly all of silver and china. Those who attended the reception from this place were C. E. Stephenson, father of the bride and son Rex, who came down from Green River to be present at the wedding. Ed. Mackay, Miss Ennis Perkins, Centreville, Bertram and Fred. Perry, and George and Faye Perley, Connell. Below is a list of presents received at the wedding, the reception list is not at this writing at hand.

Actual Starvation

Facts About Indigestion and Its Relief That Should Interest You

Although Indigestion and Dyspepsia are so prevalent, most people do not thoroughly understand their cause and cure. There is no reason why most people should not eat anything they desire—if they will only chew it carefully and thoroughly. Many actually starve themselves into sickness through fear of eating every good-looking, good-smelling, and good-tasting food, because it does not agree with them.

The best thing to do is to fit yourself to digest any good food.

We believe we can relieve Dyspepsia. We are so confident of this fact that we guarantee and promise to supply the medicine free of all cost to every one who will use it, who is not perfectly satisfied with the results which it produces. We exact no promises, and put no one under any obligation whatever. Surely, nothing could be fairer. We are located right here and our reputation should be sufficient assurance of the genuineness of our offer.

We want every one troubled with Indigestion or Dyspepsia in any form to come to our store and buy a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Take them home and give them a reasonable trial, according to directions. Then, if not satisfied, come to us and get your money back. They are very pleasant to take; they aid to soothe the irritable stomach, to strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, and to promote a healthy and natural bowel action, thus leading to perfect and healthy digestion and assimilation.

A 25c. package of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets furnishes 15 days' treatment. In ordinary cases, this is sufficient to produce a cure. In more chronic cases, a longer treatment, of course, is necessary, and depends upon the severity of the trouble. For such cases, we have two larger sizes which sell for 50c. and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store. E. W. Mair Co.

A DAILY THOUGHT

"Small virtues require the praise of man to sustain them, just as little children require encouragement to walk or stand alone. But true virtue goes quietly through the world, scattering good around, and performing noble deeds, without even the knowledge that what it does is heroic.
