CHESTER

Jan. 13, 1913.

The "Aid" met last week with Mrs. Charles Giberson. A profitable meeting was held and a delightful afternoon spent. The beautiful supper served was most appetizing. In the evening the young folk had a fine musical treat with singing and instrumental selections. Misses Helen Giberson and Della McIsaac are attending Florenceville Consolidated School this term. Miss Thistle is back again in charge of Wicklow School.

Many from here attended the funeral of Michael Welch at Bristol on Saturday last. Leverett Shaw was a recent guest of his uncle, Otis Shaw. Mrs. Russell Smith is visiting her sister at Littleton, Maine. Miss Jane Brooks is sewing at Mrs. Gildeon Estabrooks'. Mrs. S. Farley and daughter, Roxy, were recent visitors of Mrs. Farley's sister, Mrs. Upton Squires.

ANDOVER

E. W. Jarvis and wife of Woodstock, were in town last week to attend the Masonic ball. Paul Porter who spent Christmas with his parents has returned to Toronto. Miss Lawson spent Sunday at E. W. Sissons. Sherrey Sisson and Wilmot Curry have gone to Fredericton to attend Business College. Cecil Sisson returned from a visit to Woodstock on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Bedell spent part of last week in St. John. Mrs. Irons, of St. John, arrived in town last week and will spend the winter. Mr. Burns and mother went to Ottawa last week. Mrs. Shaw who has been visiting her sister Mrs. D. R. Bedell has returned to her home in New York. Mrs. J. W. Niles entertained at six o'clock dinner on Monday night. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kupkey announce the engagement of their daughter Muriel to Herbert Baird, son of Senator and Mrs. Baird. Miss Jennie Curry has taken the school at Four Falls this term. Mrs. B. W. Moore is visiting friends in Florenceville. Miss Mable Peat entertained at Bridge on Thursday night. Mrs. Gillett entertained a number of friends on Friday night. Bernard McKimon entertained a number of his young friends to a skating party on Saturday.

Miss Cora Brotherton, of Meductic, is visiting Miss Helen Marsten. Miss Florence Grant who has been spending a few weeks in Andover returned to her home in Aroostock Junction on Friday. At the new opera house the sign "The Specialty" brought out by electricity looks fine and adds much to the appearance of the building. The pictures that are being exhibited every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday night are of first class order and are drawing large crowds.

The At Home given by Senator and Mrs. Baird on New Years night was a very pleasant function. The guests were met at the door by Miss Millie Carter and presented by Herbert Baird. Those who received were, Senator and Mrs. Baird, Mrs. Fred Baird of Fredericton and Miss Muriel Kupkey. The hostess looked very nice in a gown of white satin with pearl trimmings. Mrs. Fred Baird wore pink silk with lace over-dress. Miss Kupkey wore cream serge with black trimmings and touches of red. Music was furnished by Knowles orchestra of Port Fairfield. A dainty lunch was served by Misses Jennie Curry, Gertrude Tibbits, Grace McPhail and Esme Stewart. Mrs. S. P. and Miss Pearl Waite presided at the tea table. During the evening solos were sung by Mrs. Bertha Waite and Guy Porter. T. F. Allen of Bangor was in Andover last week. Mrs. Marteen went to Meductic last week on business.
