MRS. PUGSLEY'S RECITAL.

A varied and interesting program of music was given on Thursday evening by pupils of Mrs. Sanford Pugsley in her studio. The audience which filled the house to overflowing was delighted with the fine playing, a great deal of which was from memory. The very young performers are deserving of more than passing praise, as they played without notes and in a perfect manner. Of the older pupils, the mezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana" by Mascagni, and the "Humoresque" Dvorak two difficult pieces played by Miss Helen Pringle are deserving of especial praise. This young lady is very gifted and has brilliant possibilities ahead of her as pianist. The March from "Tannhaeuser" by Wagner was beautifully played by Miss Dorothy Risteen, who also shows great talent. Indeed the entire program was of such a high order that we can only go on praising the performers. The program was varied by the organ selections played by the Misses Vanwart. We understand these young ladies have had only ten lessons each, beginning with Mrs. Pugsley yet they played two duets on the organ in a finished manner and from memory.

Mrs. Adney assisted in the evening's enjoyment by a vocal number. The singing of vocal exercises by Mrs. Pugsley's pupils, who are also members of the Woodstock School of Music Junior Chorus, was a pleasing feature.

Mrs. Pugsley is having great success in her teaching, this recital being the third in the school year just ended. She is an accomplished musician, a good organist and pianist, and has had the advantage of a musical atmosphere in her early home life,--her father the late Mr. John Fisher, educated in music, playing the pipe organ with much skill--has much to do with her success as a teacher. Mrs. Pugsley is taking the normal course with Mrs. Adney for those intending to teach and, so keeping abreast of the times in the best modern way of teaching music especially in the primary grades.

The following is the Program:

NATIONAL ANTHEM.

Lightning Killed

William Parks

FREDERICTON, N. B., June 28--William Parks, the fifteen-year-old son of Erastus Parks, of Keswick, was struck and instantly killed by lightning in the terrific electrical storm early last evening. He was sitting on a lounge at an open window in the corner of the dining room while his father was finishing his supper, having been somewhat delayed.

Lightning entered the room by the telephone wire and went out the open window at which the young man was sitting, passing through his body while it went. The young man's father was knocked off his chair by the shock and received a bad shaking up. The boy's mother was in the kitchen, and Miss Clara Parks, his sisters, was in the sitting room at the time, and they escaped without injury.

SHARKEY'S SETTLEMENT

The schools have closed for the summer vacation after a successful year in most cases. Special mention must be made of the Sharkey Settlement school, where the young teacher, Miss Ramsey, has kept up continued interest and won credit for herself and her scholars, by the well arranged garden they have made in spare hours. It is to be desired that all schools, especially in the country should emulate Miss Ramsey's example in developing the interest of the boys and girls in the farm. We wish Miss Ramsey great success wherever she may go and regret that she cannot continue here another year.

Mrs. Kelly, of Fairville St. John, will spend this week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Sharkey. Mr. Eugene Sharkey is expected home shortly from Detroit to spend his vacation. Mr. Eugene has a remunerative position in Detroit where he purposes, with his brother Williard, to make his home.

Mrs. John S. Gray is visiting relatives in Bellville.

Misses Caroline Munro and Cassie Hay, students at the Ladies College-Halifax, are home for their vacation. Before coming home they visited relatives in Wolfville for a few weeks.

Mrs. Lee Raymond attended the McNeillie-Raymond wedding in St. John last week.
