Mr. Whitehead was for many years one of the most prominent figures in the Libera party in York Co., politics. In 1895, he was a member of the unsuccessful Liberal ticket, but he was elected four years later at the general elec of Fort Fairfield, and Ira of Ur- tions in 1899, and was re-elected in 1903. In 1908 he secured the Liberal nomination for the taen approaching federal elections, but he later retired owing to ill-hea!th.

> Besides his wife, who was formerly Miss Frances C. Crawford, of Hampton, N. B., and whom he married in 1877., he is survived by two sons, Guy B, now in the Shushanna gold fields and Stephen B., in Vancouver, B. C., two daughters, Mrs. A. H. McKee, of Ottawa, and Mrs. F. S.
