

ROSS--CURRY.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in The Presbyterian Church Andover on Wednesday, the 27th, at high noon, when Miss Bessie A. Curry, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Curry, became the bride of Rev. Arthur Ross, of Dawson.

The bride entered the church to the strains of Lohengrins Bridal Chorus and was given in marriage by her father. She looked very lovely in a gown of ivory satin with veil and orange blossoms and carrying a large bouquet of brides roses, Miss Janet Curry sister of the bride was bridesmaid and wore a handsome gown of blue messaline with black picture hat trimmed with touches of blue and a blue and yellow shaded plume and carrying a bouquet of pink roses. The groom was attended by C. H. Elliott, Rev. Gordon Pringle performed the ceremony, which was made doubly impressive by soft strains of music played by Miss Pearl Waite. At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party left the church to the inspiring music of Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The ushers were Messrs. David Wiley, Robert Curry, Wilnot Curry and Magner. The church was beautifully decorated with evergreen and golden glow, by friends of the bride.

After the ceremony about sixty guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents where a reception was held and a sumptuous luncheon was partaken of. The house was gaily decorated with cut flowers and white ribbons. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful emerald and diamond ring, to the bridesmaid a brooch of Yukon gold, to the best man gold cufflinks, to the organist a brooch of Yukon gold and to the ushers pearl tie pins.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross left on the afternoon train for a short trip through Nova Scotia and Cape Breton and will return for a few days before starting on their long journey to Dawson City. There were many out-of-town guests among them being Mr. John Anderson, of the Barony, grandfather of the bride, who is hale and hearty although in his 92nd year.

The costly and numerous presents gave evidence of the popularity of the bride and groom.

JACKSONVILLE

Aug., 30th. 1913.

The schools have opened with a splendid staff of teachers and a fair attendance. More pupils will be at school when the potato season is over.

Mrs. Simpson, of Grand Manan, is principal of the Jacksonville Superior School with Miss Frances Kinney, of Florenceville, in the Primary Department. Miss Mina Cowan, of Upper Woodstock, is in charge of the Upper Jacksonville School. On fine days both school houses have their flags flying, but more attempts should be made toward beautifying the grounds.

James Shaw has sold his farm to Mr. Hagerman, of Bear Island. This was formerly owned by George Watson and is a good place with fine buildings.

Miss Uarda Burt is visiting in Woodstock and will spend the week-end in Houlton.

W. Burt has been visiting his old home, spending most of his time with his brother, Fraser Burt. Mr. Burt will return shortly to Haverhill, Mass., where he now resides.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Harper are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Harper. The young people were married early in July in Prince Edward Island, where they have a large up-to-date farm. Mr. and Mrs. Harper have the hearty good wishes of all their friends here.

Leo Graves has taken up his school work again at Millville, where he taught successfully last year.

Miss Ruth Harper is teaching in Canterbury and her sister Miss Alma in Listerville.

Mrs. George Perley, of Maugerville, is visiting her brother, John N. Harper.

Miss Christina Tilly has been appointed teacher of the Debec school.

Miss Gertrude, daughter of Rev. H. E. Thomas, St. John West, who has been spending part of her vacation with Col. and Mrs. Good, returned to her home last week.

Messrs. Stillman and Howard Everett accompanied by their wives and Master Douglas Everett were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Everett and called upon several friends in their new Ford Auto when returning to Presque Isle on Monday last.

Rev. George Ayres and Mrs. Ayres spent a few days this week with old friends in Centreville.

The Friendly Workers Mission Circle held its regular meeting on Thursday, Aug., 21st.

The Sale held by the Mission Circle on the previous Thursday was a great success, financially and socially. With the guidance and active leadership of the pastor Rev. Mr. Ayres and Mrs. Ayres a most artistic booth was arranged with small tables where several kinds of ices and fruit were served. The ferns and abundance of flowers overhead and all around made a pretty background for the dainty tables, pretty girls in light dresses and the happy company gathered to enjoy the evening. Among those present were Dr. and Mrs. P. T. Kierstead, Miss Effie Kierstead and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lindsay, of Woodstock.

Charles Perks,

Chas E Perks, a retired merchant, well known in Woodstock, died at Houlton, on Wednesday night, aged 75. For years the deceased was associated with his brother in the drug business. Burial was in Fredericton his native town.

The funeral of the late Mr. Chas. Perks, of Houlton, a former resident of this city, took place from St. Dunstan's church on Friday morning. The remains were brought here Thursday evening from Houlton, accompanied by the Rev. Father Silke and Mr. John Perks, a nephew of the deceased. At the church a solemn requiem was said by Father Silke, assisted by Fathers Carney and McLaughlin as deacon and sub-deacon respectively. In his sermon Father Silke paid a high tribute to the deceased, and spoke eloquently and feelingly of the Christian life he had led. Interment was made at the Catholic cemetery.

Gleaner.

Charles McDade

Mr Charles McDade, one of the early settlers, died on Friday morning at his home, East Newbridge, aged 85 years. The deceased is survived by nine children, Mrs John Lenahan, the Misses Mary, Alice, Elizabeth and Catherine, Mr Edward, at home, and Messrs John, Charles and Owen McDade at Vancouver.

The funeral was held at 9.30 yesterday morning. Services at St Gertrude's church by Rev F J McMurray. The pall bearers were Owen McCarty, Edward Lee, John Colter and John Clark.

Rogers Dommings

Maccan, N S, Aug 29.—An interesting event took place on Wednesday at the home of Mr and Mrs Ira Wood of Maccan, N S, when their niece Miss Nellie Demming of Woodstock, N B, was united in marriage to Mr Charles F Rogers, also of Woodstock, N B.

The ceremony was performed by Rev J G A Belyea, B A, uncle of the bride, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the family. The wedding march was played by Miss Bessie Fraser of Williamsdale. After the ceremony a very sumptuous repast was served by the hostess, this being also the occasion of a family reunion of Mrs Wood's sisters.

The bride was becomingly attired in a tailored suit of brown French Bedford cord with hat to match. Mr and Mrs Rogers left on the C P R for a trip through the Provinces and will visit some of the New England cities before returning to their home in Woodstock.

The groom's present to the bride was a fine muskrat coat with hat to match.

St. John Defeats Woodstock

Eleven men of the St John Golf club came to Woodstock Saturday last and defeated a like number of the home team in an exciting game on the golf links. Although the result was disappointing to the home team, they are consoled by the fact that they performed a like feat in St John July 1st. Two of St John's best players, Andrew Jack and Dr Magee, were unable to be present at this game, but they had able substitutes in Col McAvity and Paul Longley, two of the old guard. The visitors were entertained at noon at the club house by the ladies of the Woodstock club. Following is the score:

WOODSTOCK	ST. JOHN
Creighton..... 1	Stetson..... 0
Holyoke..... 1	Currie..... 0
Sprague..... 1	Thomas..... 0
Mitchell..... 0	Longley..... 1
Balmain, G E..... 3	Porter..... 0
Jones, A E..... 0	Harrison..... 1
Jones, C J..... 3	Peters L..... 0
Jones, W P..... 0	Miles..... 3
Baird..... 0	McCready..... 3
Dallig..... 1	McAvity..... 0
Balmain Wm..... 0	Peters C H..... 3
	10
	11

This is the first year in fourteen years that either club has won on the links of their opponents.

Masonic Grand Lodge

Representatives from all parts of the Province attended the 46th annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of New Brunswick, A F and A M., in the Masonic Temple, St John, on Tuesday and Wednesday. In the reports which were read the membership was shown to have increased 135 during the year, making the total membership, December 27, 1912, 3320. Woodstock Lodge, No. 11, is still the strongest lodge in the province having 195 members. The finances were found in found in a satisfactory condition. F J G Knowlton was re-elected grand master, and H V B Bridges elected deputy grand master. J Twining Hart Grand Lodge.

At the meeting of the Supreme Grand Council of the Royal and Select Masons of the Masonic Order of the Maritime Provinces, Donald Munro, M L A., of Woodstock, was elected grand marshal.

Among those in attendance from this town were Donald Munro, John A Lindsay, E K Connell, A G Fields, G J D, E K Connell, G Steward, R M Gabel Grand Scribe and E L Hagerman, Grand Steward. Grand Lodge meets next year in Fredericton.

C. Miles Moore

C. Miles Moore died on Tuesday morning at the home of his mother Mrs F. B. Moore, Broadway, after a long illness from cancer, aged 48 years.

He went to Vancouver a few months ago and arrived home only on Wednesday before his death. He failed rapidly until the end. He is survived by his mother, his wife, one son Fred and three daughters the Misses Hazel, Louise and Bertha; one brother, Geo. B. Moore and two sisters, Mrs. H. L. Grant and Miss Mary Moore, all of Woodstock.

Mr. Moore was a member of a well-known lumbering concern, Fred Moore & Sons, who, at one time, had lumber interests spread over various parts of New Brunswick and Maine. His business career started in Meductic, where he became the junior member of the concern, and his ability gained promotion for him and he was recognized as a lumberman of exceptional capabilities.

The funeral was held on Thursday at 2.30 and was under the direction of the Masonic Order, and was largely attended, the burial being in the Methodist cemetery. Rev. H. G. Kennedy, of Houlton, conducted the services at the house, while the beautiful Masonic ceremony was carried out at the grave. The pall-bearers were Col. W. C. Good, Dr. W. D. Rankin, George W. Gibson George Shea. Many beautiful flowers were sent by relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Gillin, of Bangor, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thompson at "The Carlisle" and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fewer, have returned home.

BUY Holeproof Hosiery FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

And Get This Guarantee

OUR line of Men's Hosiery will interest Men who are having "sock troubles."

We place Insurance policy on some of our Hosiery and guarantee it to be absolutely "Hole-proof"

Come to us with your Hosiery troubles and see that we can do for you.

Hosiery of Cotton, Lisle, Silk, Merino and Cashmere

Black or in many choice colors.

Test out our Hosiery .25, .50 and .75 per pair when sold by the Box at this price. The Manufacturers of "Holeproof" Hosiery claim that it is the strongest hose in the market.

The JOHN McLAUCHLAN Co. Ltd.,
The Outfitters.
WOODSTOCK and HARTLAND

When YOU are in need of Printing
Try
The Dispatch Job Printing Dept.
First-Class Work
Prompt Delivery
Reasonable Rates

H O White

A telegram was received here Saturday announcing the death of Mr H O White, who left here a few months ago for Fort George, B C. The remains will be interred at Fort George. The deceased is survived by a widow, who was a Miss Burgess, of Nova Scotia, and five children. Mr G A White manager of the Bank of Montreal at Shediac, is a brother.

DIED

GRAHAM.—In Andover, N. B., Monday, August 25, James Graham, aged nearly 98 years.

GREER.—On Tuesday Mrs. Edward Greer, leaving her husband and five children.

STAIRS.—On Sunday afternoon after a long illness of cancer, William Stairs aged 65 years, leaving a wife and five children.

Geo. W. Byer, J. W. Woolverton James Gallagher, E. McLean attended the Houlton Exhibition on Thursday.

Miss Gertrude McKendrick, of Springfield, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. McKendrick.

Miss A. S. Calder, of Deer Island, was in town over Sunday.

ANDOVER

Mrs. Joseph Paull and children, who have spent two months with her mother, Mrs. C. M. Tibbits, left on Saturday for their home in Vancouver.

Miss Gertrude Tibbits left on Saturday for a month's visit in St. John and Fredericton.

Miss Harriet Gabel of Woodstock is the guest of Miss Pearl Waite.

Mrs. Geo. Baird left on Saturday for Vancouver to spend several weeks.

Miss Charlotte Sloat is spending her vacation in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Manzer are attending the Toronto fair.

Miss Rema Evans, Grand Falls and Miss Bessie Lawson, Caribou were in town for the Ross Curry wedding.

Mrs. N. A. Hanson entertained on Tuesday in honor of Miss Gwendolyn Hopkins.

Mrs. W. A. Gillett and daughter Violet are visiting friends in Toronto.

Miss Nellie Stewart has returned to Boston.

Mrs. Fred Baird returned to her home in Fredericton on Saturday Mrs. Herbert Baird accompanied her to spend a few days.