

UNDERWEAR

We study the underwear question pretty thoroughly and realize the different requirements of different men

Some men want WOOL and nothing but wool.

Others won't have wool at all

So we are able to supply all with good comfortable underwear. Heavy and medium weight wool Natural wool and Merino

The man that is always troubled in getting satisfactory underwear can be relieved here.

We also carry a Large Assortment of Union Suits in different weights

The John McLauchlan Co.,

LIMITED
Outfitters,

Woodstock and Hartland

When YOU are in need of Printing
Try
The Dispatch Job Printing Dept.

First-Class Work
Prompt Delivery
Reasonable Rates

For Bald Heads

A Treatment that Costs Nothing If It Fails.

We want you to try three large bottles of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic on our personal guarantee that the trial will not cost you a penny if it does not give you absolute satisfaction. That's proof of our faith in this remedy, and it should indisputably demonstrate that we know what we are talking about when we say that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will retard baldness, overcome scalp and hair ailments, and if any human agency can accomplish this result, it may also be relied upon to promote a new growth of hair.

Remember we are basing our statements upon what has already been accomplished by the use of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, and we have the right to assume that what it has done for thousands of others it will do for you. In any event you cannot lose anything by giving it a trial on our liberal guarantee. Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedy in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store. E. W. Mair.

$100,000 Fire in Montreal.

Montreal, Dec. 29.—Fire, which broke out early Saturday afternoon did $100,000 damage to the roofing mill of the Standard Paint Company of Canada.

DIED

BEARDSLEY—At the Grove on Sunday, Dec. 29 Matilda L. Beardsley, age 78 years, funeral at 2:30 on Tuesday 31st inst.

Masonic "At Home"

St. John's day was celebrated by Woodstock Lodge F. and A. M. on Friday evening last, by an "At Home" given in the Hayden-Gibson Theatre.

A fine programme consisting of musical selections and readings was rendered, the first part of the evening, after which dancing, to the splendid music of Herjick's Orchestra was kept up until 3.00 o'clock.

The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Munro, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Skillen, Dr. and Mrs. M. G. McLean. The Misses Marguerite McLauchlan and Gretchen Smith passed the programmes.

A large number of very pretty gowns were worn by the ladies. Among the number noticed were, Mrs. M. G. McLean, a beautiful black velvet with silver trimmings, Mrs. Williamson Fisher, grey silk with green trimmings, Mrs. Guy McLauchlan, cream silk with over-dress of beaded chiffon, Mrs. Arthur Bailey, black voile with gold trimming, Mrs. J. A. Lindsay, violet silk with lace trimmings, Mrs. F. B. Carvell, cream silk with gold embroidery Mrs. John McLauchlan, black silk with over-dress of embroidered chiffon, Mrs. J. C. Hayden, taupe silk with Persia, trimming, Mrs. J. N. W. Winslow, pale blue satin, Miss Ida Hayden, pale blue silk, Miss Jean Smith, cream silk, with rosebud trimming, Miss Marion Lindsay, pale pink silk with over-dress of blue Miss Bessie McLauchlan, pink silk with over-dress of beaded net, Miss Helen Hand heliotrope silk, Miss Hattie Gabel, yellow silk with over-dress of net.

Perkins-Bull

St. Luke's church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Thursday afternoon Dec. 26th, at 3 o'clock when Miss Helen Bull, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bull was united in marriage to Arthur Raymond Perkins, son of C. H. L. Perkins, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. S. Hazel. The bride entered the church with her brother Charles H. Bull, who gave her away. She wore a very pretty travelling dress of blue cloth with hat to match trimmed with a black ostrich plume. The ushers were Douglas Winslow and George Dibblee. As the bridal party entered the church the Surplice Choir sang, "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden," and during the ceremony the Hymn "Oh Perfect Love" was sung. As the bridal party left the church Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played. After the ceremony the guests numbering about 40 drove to the residence of the Misses Neales, aunts of the bride, where luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins left on the express for Sault St. Marie where Mr. Perkins has a splendid position with the Algoma Central Railway. On their way they will visit Montreal and other Canadian cities. Mrs. Perkins received many beautiful gifts in silver, cut glass china, some beautiful needlework beside several substantial cheques.

Mallory-Burpee

At the home of the bride's parents Jacksonville, on Dec. 25th by the Rev. Joseph A. Cahill, in the presence of near friends, Mr. Fred E. Mallory of Jacksonville to Miss Georgie L. Burpee daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David M. Burpee. The happy couple left by evening train for Vancouver, B. C. where after visiting friends in Minnesota, they will reside.

Harry A. Lovely.

Harry A. Lovely, of East Florenceville, youngest son of the late George Lovely, died at the Fisher Memorial Hospital, Woodstock, Sunday morning December 29th, from abscess of the brain, aged 25 years. He is survived by his mother, four sisters and two brothers. Mrs. Sam Bishop of River de Chute; Mrs. Frank Spalding and Mrs. Henry Akerley, both of Lowell, Mass; Mrs. John Sinnott of California; A. B. Lovely of East Florenceville; and Rainsford Lovely of Bristol. The remains were taken on Monday to Bristol or interment.

Concert and Presentation

The Upper Woodstock Hall was packed on the evening of Dec. 27th, to listen to a concert given by the Union Sabbath School of that place. After a splendid programme was carried out in such a way as to reflect great credit on both teachers and scholars, some of the teachers were kindly remembered by their pupils, and the whole school was treated by Santa Claus to candy and nuts.

At the close of the programme the chairman, Mr. C. Estey, called Mr. Draper and Rev. G. Ayers to the platform, and Mr. Draper on behalf of the good people of Upper Woodstock, presented Mr. Ayers with a beautiful fur sleigh robe, and read the following address, Mr. Ayers though taken completely by surprise replied in a few words thanking the people for their generous gift and kind expression of good will.

Rev. Geo. Ayers,
Dear Brother:—

We a number of your Friends at Upper Woodstock appreciating you for your true worth and work's sake, and also recognizing the deep interest you have taken in the Spiritual welfare of the place, and what you have done for the good of its people: Therefore at this festive season wish in some small way to tangibly express our appreciation of your work. Hence will you please accept this robe, not for its monetary value, but because it is a token of the high esteem in which you are held by us. May you long live to be warned by it, and be long spared to tell "The Old Story" to us and others. And as the years come and go may the robe warm the body and the thought of what it expresses cheer you in the inner man on the trial way of Life's journey. Hoping that God's blessing may rest on you and your work in the future as it has in the past we are yours.

The address was signed by a large number of the friends.

George L. Howard.

George L. Howard, a respected resident of this town, died on Sunday, Dec. 22nd, after an illness of three months from heart trouble, aged 68 years.

Deceased was born in Gageton, Queens county, and came to this town when a young man. He is survived by a widow and one son Charles. He was a member of the Baptist church.

Funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon. Services at the house were conducted by Rev. A. C. Berrie. The burial was in the Methodist cemetery. The pall bearers were H. E. Burt, Thomas Hagerman, Abram Brewer and Walter Shaw.

Miss Matilda L. Beardsley

Miss Matilda L. Beardsley, who has been ill for some time, died at her residence, "The Grove," on Sunday evening aged 78 years. She leaves to mourn her loss two sisters Mrs. H. W. Bourne, of Woodstock and Miss Jennie at home, several nephews and nieces; besides a large circle of friends. She was a life long member of St. Luke's church. The funeral took place on Tuesday at 2.30 service being conducted by the Rev.

CHESTER

Dec. 28, 1912.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle, St. John, are visiting Mrs. Earle's father, Hugh Tweedie, Wicklow.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jack Patterson spent a few days last week with Mrs. Patterson's parents Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Estey. They will return to Cockhrane, Ont. Monday, 30 inst.

Mr. W. I. Goodwin, New Westminster was a recent visitor at Mr. T. H. Estey's.

Miss Agnes M. White, of Waltham, spent Christmas with her brother, Stanley White.

Messrs. Frank H. Estabrooks and Gordon Mackenzie, of McAdam spent Christmas at H. H. Estabrooks.

Misses Miriam and Bernice Tweedie, Watrous, Sask. are visiting their uncle Charles Giberson.

Byron E. Hutchinson returned recently from the West and will spend the winter with his family in N. B.

The ice closed in the river on Christmas morning. Four persons crossed on foot on the 26th.

Snow is falling at this writing. We trust sleighing will follow.

ANDOVER

Senator Baird is confined to the house with a severe cold.

Miss Margaret Curry went to St. John last week to visit friends.

Mrs. Kitchen, of Florenceville, is visiting her son B. W. Moore.

Miss Kathleen Beveridge is recovering from an attack of pneumonia.

George Baxter is visiting friends in Boston.

Mrs. J. A. Perley left for Calgary last week to spend the winter with her son Harold.

Miss Elva Miller, of the Western Union, spent Christmas at her home in Edmundston.

Mr. and Mrs. Dinsmore, of Fort Fairfield, spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McGill.

Miss Jessie Jamer is visiting friends in St. Mary's.

Mrs. H. N. Macalary and son Sandy are visiting friends in St. John.

Miss Myrtle Crawford is visiting her Grandmother Mrs. Crawford in St. John.

Miss Ruth Matherson is visiting friends in Cabino.

Vaugh Bedell, of the St. John Valley, spent Christmas at his home here.

Paul Bedell is visiting friends in Woodstock.

Mrs. Shaw, of New York, is visiting her sister Mrs. D. R. Bedell.

Cecil and Blondie Matherson are visiting their uncle in Kintore.

Mrs. John Stewart left last week to spend the winter in Boston.

Mrs. Marsten and daughter Helen are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George McDonald, of Sussex.

Miss Ethel Kelley, of Presque Isle, was in Andover on Saturday.

Miss Erma Kelley, who has been visiting her parents, left for the West on Monday.

Miss Charlotte Sloat left for Burt's Corner on Tuesday to attend the wedding of Miss Edna Allen.

Miss Muriel Kupke is visiting Bessie Kilburn, of Kilburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baird spent New Years with Mr. Baird's parents.

Miss Cecil Sisson is visiting friends in Woodstock.

Peter Watson, of Houlton, spent last week in Andover the guest of his sister Miss Sarah Watson.

Miss Iva Baxter, of the Normal School Fredericton, is spending her vacation home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bates, of Halifax, have arrived in Andover to spend the winter with their daughter Mrs. Wooteen.

John King who has been visiting at the home of George Baxter returned to his home in Haverhill, Mass., last week.

Mrs. Savey, of Foxcroft, is visiting her mother Mrs. Charles Everett.

George Wooteen, of the Staff of the Bank of Montreal who has been at Edmundston for the past year, has been transferred to Perth.

Miss Ruth Pickett, of Hillindale, is the guest of Miss Edith Beveridge.

Mrs. James Scott and two daughters are visiting friends in Centreville.

RICHMOND

Wishing you all a prosperous New Year.

A green Christmas makes a fat graveyard is an old saying which if true will be fulfilled this year.

A Christmas tree for the Sunday School children was held Friday night, but owing to the storm many could not get there.

William A. Teed is home from St. John to spend the Holidays with his parents.

Miss Blanche Teed is home from Windsor College for the vacation.

Mrs. Delia Gartley and her son, Earle have been visiting relatives here.

Mrs. John Gartley, Watson Settlement spent the week end with her daughter Mrs. Garnett Campbell.

Miss Mildred Williams, Long Settlement is visiting her sister Mrs. W. B. McIntyre.

Mrs. Augustus Kirk is still in very poor health.

A very pretty marble cross has been erected in the memory of Miss Mary McIntyre at St. John's church cemetery.

Butter Parchment for Sale at "The Dispatch" Office