

THE DISPATCH

VOL XVIII

WOODSTOCK, N. B., WEDNESDAY, JULY 9, 1913.

No. 3

Buy Holeproof Hosiery FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

And Get This Guarantee

OUR line of Men's Hosiery will interest Men who are having "sock troubles."

We place an Insurance policy on some of our Hosiery and guarantee it to be absolutely "Hole-proof."

Come to us with your Hosiery troubles and see that we can do for you.

Hosiery of Cotton, Lisle, Silk, Merino and Cashmere

Black or in many choice colors.

Test out our Hosiery .25, .50 and .75 per pair when sold by the Box at this price. The Manufacturers of "Holeproof" Hosiery claim that it is the strongest hose in the market.

The JOHN McLAUCHLAN Co. Ltd.,
The Outfitters.
WOODSTOCK and HARTLAND

When YOU are in need of Printing
Try
The Dispatch Job Printing Dept.

First-Class Work
Prompt Delivery
Reasonable Rates

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the Assessment Roll for the year 1913 is now in the hands of the Town Treasurer and that a Discount of 5 per cent will be allowed on all taxes paid on or before the 8th Day of August next.

By order of Finance Com.
H. W. BOURNE, Town Treasurer
Collector and Receiver of Taxes

Dated at Woodstock N. B., the 3rd day of July 1913.

DON'T FORGET

the County Shoot to be held at East Florenceville on Tuesday and Wednesday July 15th and 16th.

Cooke Wallace

The Methodist Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday afternoon, June 24th., when the marriage was solemnized of Nita Katherine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace to Arthur Douglas Cooke, son of Colonel and Mrs. J. P. Cooke, of Montreal.

The church was beautifully decorated with ferns, palms and cut flowers. The bridal party stood under a bell of white carnations. Rev. R. W. Weddall performed the ceremony. Mrs. Thorne presided at the organ.

The bride who was given away by her father wore a beautiful wedding robe of white charmeuse, the skirt being cut away in front to show a draping of chantilly lace, the waist and sleeves being almost entirely of the same material and her tulle veil, which was arranged a la Juliet, ruching of chantilly lace caught with orange blossoms, fell almost to the end of the train, which was finished with a large lovers knot of satin. She carried an exquisite shower bouquet of white roses and wore the groom's gift a pendant of pearls.

Miss Kathleen Lynott was bridesmaid and wore a lovely gown of pink satin with gold drapings, a poke bonnet of white trimmed with a large French pink plume and bridle caught up with roses, her bouquet being a shower of pink roses.

The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a handsome gold bracelet and to George Dibblee, the best man, a pearl stickpin, and to the ushers, Chas. Jones and Lawrence Bailey, gold stickpins. After the ceremony the bridal party and guests drove to the home of the bride's parents, "Mountain Cottage," which was beautifully decorated with white and pink carnations and ferns.

Mrs. Wallace, the bride's mother, wore a handsome gown of lavender sa in. After the usual toasts the bride changed her wedding gown for a suit of dark blue serge with hat to match, and left with her husband for Montreal, where they will reside.

Among the many beautiful and costly gifts received was a piano from the bride's parents.

McNellie-Raymond,

In St. Mary's church, St. John, the wedding of Miss Alice Winnifred, daughter of Venerable Archdeacon W. O. Raymond, D. D. and Mrs. Raymond, to George Gardiner McNellie, of Vancouver, B. C. took place at three o'clock Wednesday afternoon, June 25th. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Raymond, father of the bride, assisted by his Lordship Bishop Richardson of Fredericton. The bride who was given away by her brother, Rev. W. O. Raymond, Jr., of Ann Harbor, Mich., was attended by Miss Alice McNellie, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Vera McLaughlin, Cecil Kilgour, of Toronto, was groomsmen, and H. E. C. Sturdee and Harold Crookshank acted as ushers.

Out of town guests present included Mr. and Mrs. James R. McNellie and Miss Alice McNellie, London, Ont., Mrs. Arthur King, Kingston, N. Y., Rev. W. O. and Mrs. Raymond, and Miss Eleanor Raymond, Ann Harbor, Mich., Mrs. Lee Raymond, Woodstock, and E. H. Booley, Montreal.

Ferguson McCain.

At Florenceville, N. B. on June 1st. after a lingering illness, brother Ferguson McCain, aged seventy-five years, passed away, leaving a wife, two sons and one daughter, Mrs. Holland Estey, all of Florenceville, besides a large circle of other relatives and friends, to mourn. He was baptized about thirty-five years ago by the late J. W. S. Young, and united with the Florenceville Baptist church, of which he continued an honored and worthy member until the end. His was a life of faith and a death of victory. He inherited strength of character, his ancestors having come from the North of Ireland. The esteem in which he was held was indicated by the very large attendance at his funeral, which was conducted by a former pastor, Rev. Jos. A. Cahill.

—The Maritime Baptist.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Clark, Lower Wakefield, were in town on Monday on business. They were callers at "The Dispatch" office.

FLORENCEVILLE.

Misses Annie and Kathleen Love, of Glassville, were guests of their aunt, Mrs. William Hagerman, a few days last week.

Miss Marion Currie, Edmunton, Alberta, is spending the vacation with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor.

The meeting of the W. F. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. M. D. Thompson, on Thursday afternoon 3rd. ult. The meeting was especially interesting as Miss Janie Kinney, our missionary from Formosa, told of the work in Formosa. Miss Kinney will give an address in the Presbyterian Church, Greenfield, on Monday evening the 14th. inst.

The Baptists held their annual picnic at East Florenceville, on Monday 1st. inst. The sum of $200.00 was raised.

Quite a number of our young people went on the excursion to Fort Fairfield on the 4th.

Charles Raymond and son Arthur, of Woodstock were callers on Stewart Fiske, on Friday.

Mrs. Cyrus Kinney and daughter Alta Okanagan Valley, B. C. are visiting their old home in Greenfield. Their many friends are glad to welcome them back.

Miss Johnson, Woodstock, is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. James Johnson.

Premier J. K. Flemming gave a very interesting address in the Presbyterian Church, Greenfield, on Sunday evening the 29th. ult. on the impressions he received at the Pre Assembly Congress and General Assembly held at Toronto a few weeks ago.

Mrs. H. F. Jewett was 'At Home' to her friends on Thursday afternoon and evening. Mrs. W. W. Jewett helped her receive. Mrs. McLean, of Woodstock sister of the bride poured coffee in the dining-room assisted by her sister Miss Dorothy, of Fredericton and Miss Adeline Jewett.

Rev. M. H. Manuel accompanied by the Young Mens Sunday School Class of Greenfield are away on a fishing trip to the Miramichi.

Rev. Mr. Ross and family have taken up their residence in the Methodist Parsonage at East Florenceville. Rev. Mr. Ross spoke in the Methodist Church here on Sunday evening the 6th. inst.

Mrs. Samuel York is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Roy McCain.

The annual School meeting of this Consolidated district will be held in the F. C. S. on Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

The soldiers returned home on Saturday.

BATH

(Left over from last week.)

June 30th. 1913

The dry weather in this section of Carleton Co., is having serious effect on the grass which, unless rain comes soon, will be hardly an average crop.

Rev. E. C. Turner preached his farewell sermon in the Methodist Church on Sabbath at 11 a. m. to a large congregation all feeling a personal loss in the retirement from this field of the Rev. gentleman whose fine manner and pleasant disposition and able and scholarly sermons have been of much help here.

The autos are many in evidence on our streets. Two new ones were added to the number last, one by Dr. M. E. Commins and one by W. H. Dyer.

The resident students girls from here are home for the holidays. Miss Edna Giberson from Acadia University, Miss Lilla Giberson from Normal School.

Miss Ethel Simms who also was a student at Normal School last term leaves to-day to write the Superior Exams.—at the Florenceville Station.

Miss Ada Giberson closed her school term here and severs her engagement with the School Board to accept a more lucrative position on the staff of the Penticton B. C. schools. Her many friends and the school regret very much her leaving as she has been a very pains taking teacher.

Mrs. Wolverton of Mars Hill Me., is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jos. L. Shaw.

A very enjoyable party spent a very pleasant evening on Thursday last at the residence of Mrs. P. P. Brennan being the birthday of her daughter Miss Mary Brennan.

Chas. McLaughlin has purchased the flat known as the "Purgburn Farm" and is preparing to build a new residence there for himself and family this summer.

Mrs. Jarvis Tracy arrived home from her visit with friends in Woodstock and Meductic on Saturday last.

Hardie W. Crain is building a large new barn.

The pulpit of the United Baptist Church is still without a pastor. This is fine field for a pastor.

Aunt "Fannie Kinney in her 95th year a resident of Mineral and known as the oldest Sunday School worker in New Brunswick paid her many friends in Bath a visit last week. She expects to attend the County Convention to be held at Hartland next month.

LOWER BRIGHTON

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hamilton, of Jacksontown visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Birmingham, Sunday June 29th.

Mrs. Wm. McGee spent last week with her son W. L. McGee, at Houlton Me., returning on Sunday accompanied by Mrs. C. Haley the Misses Bernice Haley, Louise McGee and Gordon Haley Johnson.

Miss Dora Robinson is succeeding well as stenographer for the Stephens Light & Power Co., of Fort Fairfield Me.

Mrs. Rebecca Robinson and Mrs. E. McKinney visited at the home of Alva W. Dow on Wednesday afternoon. Both are looking fairly well, and are grand specimens of quiet industrious and temperate New Brunswick life.

Miss Mildred Dow, who has been on the sick list, is rapidly convalescing.

B. W. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tedlie attended the graduating exercises of the Woodstock High School, where Miss Evelyn Tedlie graduated. All were delighted with the program.

Russel Brown is at present writing the First Class Examination papers for Normal School and Miss E. Tedlie the Matriculation Examinations.

Mrs. Ada Brown, Mrs. A. Tedlie and the Misses Jessie and Sarah Tedlie and Grace Brown left on Saturday en route to Beulah Camp Kings Co., where the Reformed Baptist Alliance is in session. Miss J. Tedlie will attend the Summer School of Science at Halifax N. S. before returning.

A party from this place viz., Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Brown, Miss B. E. Richardson, Messrs. Alva W. Dow, Cecil Dow, Charles McKinney and Kenneth Brown made a delightful trip to Ayers Lake this week.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Noble was gladdened by the arrival of a baby girl, July 3rd.

Mrs. A. Willett left this week for Grand Falls to live with her daughter Mrs. G. M. Taylor. Miss Sadie Willett has gone to Arthurette for a time. Both will be missed.

Mrs. Lewis Saunders, of Perth, is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McLeary accompanied by her twin babies and Miss Iva.

Miss Jean Hovey, of Florenceville, closed a successful year's school at this place. On Thursday afternoon a goodly number of parents and friends united in having a picnic. All were much pleased with the examination and programme which was given by teacher and pupils. Great regret is expressed that Miss Hovey will not take charge of the school another term.

Mr. and Mrs. Orison Estey, of Upper Woodstock visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Nixon last week.

A large number of the little folks met at the home of Kenneth Dow Saturday afternoon, June 28th., to celebrate his 10th. birthday. All report a good time, and left with best wishes for many happy returns of the day.

Mrs. Alva W. Dow, Miss B. E. Richardson and Master Charles McKinney paid a visit to Rockland, Thursday July 3rd.

REMEMBER

Field Day, Wednesday, JULY 9th.

Try The DISPATCH for all kinds of Job Printing