Mrs. Kearney was formerly of Woodstock. She leaves one son, Norris, of North Woburn and three grandchildren.

Bachelors Ball

The bachelors' ball given in the Hayden-Gibson Theatre on New Years night, was one of the most enjoyable functions held in town for a number of years. The chaperones were: Mrs. J. T. Allan Dibblee, Mrs. W. P. Jones and Mrs. A. G. Bailey. About seventy-five couples were on the floor and danced to the excellent music furnished by Palmer's orchestra, of Houlton. During intermission refreshments were served, after which dancing was kept up until two o'clock. Every detail of the affair was nicely arranged, and the bachelors are to be congratulated.

The Rev. H. G. Kennedy, of Houlton, will preach in the United Baptist church on Sunday Jan. 11th.

Miss Gertrude McKendrick, of Springfield, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. McKendrick.

DUROST PERKINS

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. Albert Perkins, Scribner, Kings Co., on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 31st., when their daughter Clarissa Edna was united in marriage to Mr. H. Beecher Durost, B. S. A. The house was decorated for the occasion with green and white. The ceremony took place in the drawing room under an arch of green and white with a white bell. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a very pretty gown of white silk poplin. Her veil was fastened with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her bridesmaid who was her sister, Miss Mabel Perkins, wore a gown of blue silk. Her brother, Mr. Tulley Perkins, was groomsmen. As the bridal party entered the drawing room the hymn, "The Voice that Breathed o'er Eden" was sung. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. G. Lawrence. The guests comprised the immediate relatives and personal friends of the bride and groom and numbered about forty. Supper was served after the ceremony. The bride received many beautiful presents in silver, china, cut glass and several substantial cheques. Her travelling dress was blue broadcloth with black beaver hat with black plume. Mr. and Mrs. Durost came to Woodstock last week and expect to leave the last of this week for a trip to Montreal, Toronto and Guelph.

Address and Presentation to Supt. A. V. Harshaw

A large number of the friends of Supt. A. V. Harshaw met in the Carlisle Hotel on Saturday evening and presented him with an address and a handsome solid leather suit case. The presentation was made by His Worship Mayor Jones.

Mr. Harshaw in reply said that he could not find words to express his gratitude at this token of appreciation. Since coming to Woodstock with his wife and daughter he had made many staunch friends with whom he found it hard to part, and hoped that he would be able to visit them occasionally in the future.

Speeches were made by those present who had enjoyed his companionship in a social way, testifying to his courtesy and fairness as a business man, and general regret was felt that he was about to leave Woodstock. The gathering broke up by singing "Auld Lang Syne."

Following is the address:

Woodstock, N. B. Jan. 8, 1914.

A. V. Harshaw, Esquire,
Supt. of C. P. R.
Woodstock, N. B.

Dear Sir:

It is with regret that we learn of your intended departure from the Town of Woodstock, where you have made yourself one of us in all our social gatherings, but this regret is not unmixed with pleasure. When we consider that your removal can mean but one thing, and that is promotion in your chosen profession.

We have met you under various conditions since you came amongst us and we have ever found you generous in your dealings and genial in your social activities. In other words you have always been a good mixer, whether it was a social evening, an occasion of this kind or a fishing trip.

We your friends can only hope that in the place in which you are to take up your new residence, your associations may be pleasant and that you and your family may enjoy health and prosperity. We also bespeak for the people of the town and especially the undersigned friends a place in your remembrance and trust that in the not too distant future we may have the pleasure of again spending with you in Woodstock a social evening such as we have been wont to enjoy in the past.

We hope you will accept as some slight token of our esteem and respect for you the accompanying gift and that it may not only prove useful, but may at times draw your memory back to old friends and associations connected with your sojourn in our midst.

With esteem and best wishes for your continued success, we sincerely subscribe ourselves

Mr. Harshaw was also the recipient of a handsome scarf pin from H. C. Nelson, district engineer.

CENTREVILLE.

The Baptist church in Centreville is being well attended and a strong interest in the services is manifested by a large number.

The farmers are much disappointed in not having the railway accommodation that was promised them for the winter to market the farm produce without hauling to Florenceville or other stations. It was thought that the farmers could get an easier haul and better prices, by shipping over the border, but yankee shrewdness has put a stop to that at present and so the American market will be mainly for American producers.

The Agricultural Society have decided to buy a goodly number of young stock and have engaged Anson H. Margison to go to the markets and make the selection.

The Sunshine Choir made Rev. Mr. Williams a Christmas present of two handsome chairs.

Mrs. Jos. Vandine is spending the winter in Portland Me., the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Cheney.

Mrs. John A. Burt, of Royalton who had been an invalid for years passed away last week leaving a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

It is reported here that the store in the Centreville Hotel will be filled up in the near future with a general stock of new goods and a favorite clerk put in charge.

Judging from the number of teams hauling fertilizer the farmers of this section are not discouraged with potato raising.

Our school reopens today with the same teachers in charge.

A Presentation

A very pleasing function took place at the Royal Hotel on Friday evening, 2nd inst., when the local representatives of the Singer Sewing Machine Co., for the St. John river counties, were tendered a banquet by the manager, Mr. T. U. Mason.

The following gentlemen were present: M. B. Gunter, Bear Island; J. F. Rice, Edmundston; F. R. St. Amant, Grand Falls; Geo. McQuarrie, Perth; C. W. McQuarrie, Waterville; J. J. Williams, Plaster Rock; J. Stairs, Jacksontown; F. D. Nason, St. Stephen; Wm. Morton, Hartland; B. A. McQuarrie and E. O. McDonald, of Fredericton; S. F. Veness, of Benton; M. Titus, of Centreville.

A telegram from the supervisor regretting his inability to be present was read.

The table was very prettily decorated for the occasion, the Singer trade mark being tastefully worked in red, white and blue to form the center piece.

After the usual toasts were honored Mr. Maxon in a neat speech announced the results of the Agency's contest for the last three months and presented to M. B. Gunter, the winner, a beautiful seal-ring with the company's monogram.

The program was interspersed with music and addresses dealing with the art of salesmanship and collections and this first get-together function reflected great credit on the company's manager, whose popularity with the men was instanced in a presentation by them of a handsome set of furs for himself and a purse for Mrs. Maxon.

ANDOVER.

Mrs. Frank Tinker, and son, of John, have been spending the holiday with Sheriff and Mrs. Tibbits.

Robert Murphy, of Kenora, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Adam Beveridge. His many friends and relatives are glad to see him.

Judge Alcorn, of Toronto, who has been the guest of H. L. Alcorn and wife, returned home this week.

Peter Watson, Houlton, is visiting Miss Sarah Watson.

Rev. R. H. Stavert, Harcourt, spent the past week in town.

Among those attending the ball at Fort Fairfield, on New Years' Eve., were: Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bedell, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Porter and Mrs. S. P. and Miss Pearl Waite. All report a most enjoyable time. Excellent music was furnished by Pullen's Orchestra of Bangor, Me.

The Masonic ball given in the Lodge rooms on New Years' night, was a great success. Music was furnished by the Presque Isle Orchestra. Many new gowns were worn, and there was quite a number in attendance from outside towns.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Green, of St. Lambert, Que., returned home on Friday after a short visit at Mrs. Green's old home here.

The annual Xmas supper given by those interested in the Presbyterian Sunday School was held in the I. O. F. hall on Tuesday evening last and was largely attended.

Mrs. J. W. Niles entertained at a thimble party on Monday afternoon, Jan. 5th., 1914.

YOUNG'S COVE ROAD

Jan. 1st., 1914.

Our year has opened clear and cold today, being the coldest of the season, 14 below, with plenty of snow for sleighing and lumbering as well.

Mrs. Duncan Farris passed away a few days ago. She leaves a husband and family of six, two boys and four girls. She was a daughter of the late Richard Knight.

Walter Griffiths, who has been in the Canadian West for some time, returned home a few days ago on a visit to his family.

William G. Kennedy, who was ill for time, has recovered.

Ansel W. Smith, J. P. fell some days ago and is laid up from his bruises.

We have about six inches of ice in Grand Lake. Victor V. Wiggins skated across to-day, the first to cross on the ice this year.

Mrs. T. M. Wiggins, who was visiting friends of Oakville and Maine, returned home a few days ago, also Miss Nydia O. Wiggins, who taught at Peterboro, Victoria Co., returned to Lakeside.

Mrs. Edith Wasson, of Wiggins Cove returned last week from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Archie McPhail, of Bona Cord, Victoria Co.

William Kennedy, Jr., is doing quite an extensive lumber operation on the property owned by Mrs. Efram Ferris, of Waterborough. Richard Stowell being his chopper.

Wesley McManara, who kept the Waterborough school last term, has taken the school at Belenden. Miss McDonald, who was in charge of Young's Cove school last term, returns to the same school for another term.

St. Luke's church, Young's Cove, is without a rector, since the resignation of Rev. G. Edgar Tobin.

Mr George Watson

Mr. George Watson, Upper Woodstock, died Saturday morning, aged 64. Besides his wife, he is survived by two daughters, Miss Pauline, a nurse in Boston; Mrs. Clarence Mallory of Upper Woodstock, and one son, Ross, at home. Samuel, James and Matthias Watson are brothers. Two sisters reside in Upper Woodstock.

The funeral which was largely attended was held on Monday, in charge of Director Bailey.
