NERVOUS MEN WOMEN

are actually weak, run-down—they are slowly deteriorating—they need strength and nourishment for body and brain.

Scott's Emulsion corrects nervousness—it is essentially a food—a concentrated, nourishing, curative food to restore the healthy action of body cells, fortify the blood, sharpen the appetite, make strength, health, energy and vigor.

As pure as milk, it is readily assimilated—nourishes every organ and every tissue. Physicians everywhere recommend Scott's Emulsion with absolute confidence in its beneficial results. Don't wait—start now, but insist on SCOTT'S.

No alcohol or drugs.

After the Doctor's Call bring your Prescriptions to us

The effect of the prescription of the best doctor in existence is lost unless the medicines he orders are properly prepared. The druggist is just as important as the doctor.

Bring your prescriptions to us and know that they will be filled with the right drugs in the right way.

Each drug we dispense is pure and of the correct medicinal value, and our work is according to the highest scientific standards.

It is certainly true that here no chances are taken. Our drugs and our work produce the best results.

These things you should know.

Death of Frank E. Cram

Frank Eugene Cram, one of the prominent farmers of Fort Fairfield, died at his home at 10.30 o'clock Monday morning, February 24, aged a little over 50 years. He had been in poor health the last 2 or 3 years, and sick in bed for more than 6 weeks.

The funeral was held at 2.00 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the Reformed Baptist church. Rev. M. S. Trafton, the pastor, officiating, assisted by Rev. W. A. Richmond, pastor of the Congregational church. Fine music was furnished by the Misses Slipp, assisted by William T. Andrews and William F. Cogswell, with Mrs. M. S. Trafton at the organ. The floral display was very pretty. The pall-bearers were C. H. Armstrong, Blanchard Clark, Edward Higgins, C. A. McIntosh, Richard Clark and James McGarrigle. The body was placed in the tomb of Riverside Cemetery.

Mr. Cram was born in Fort Fairfield, a son of the late Samuel Webster Cram, and Emma McLoughlin. Mr. Cram died about 8 years ago, while Mrs. Cram has been dead for nearly 32 years.

In October, 1902 Mr. Cram was married to Miss Ruby Dow of Woodstock, N. B., who survives, together with 2 sons and 1 daughter, from 9 years old to 17 months.

Mr. Cram leaves 3 brothers, Charles of Fort Fairfield, William E. of Phenix, Arizona, and Elbridge of Los Angeles, Calif; also 4 sisters—Mrs. Attai E. Hayden of Boston, Mrs. Jessie Henderson of Winthrop, Mass., Miss Minnie Alice and Mrs. Ruth Eva Martin of San Antonio, Texas.

The origin of Mr. Cram's physical troubles was probably to great work and exposure, with too little care of his health, as he was naturally of a strong and rugged constitution. By his self-sacrificing effort he leaves a good property. For many years Mr. Cram has been one of the prominent farmers of Fort Fairfield, always a fair-dealing man who meant what he said and said what he meant, as Rev. Mr. Trafton so aptly remarked in the funeral sermon.

A kind father, a true husband, an accommodating neighbor and a firm friend has gone, and to many friends it seems hard to part with one so loved; but they hope, with the poet, that—This world is but the rugged road Which leads us to the bright abode Of peace above;

So let us choose that narrow way Which leads no traveller's foot astray. From realms of love.

HOW TO OBTAIN GOOD DIGESTION.

The Stomach Must be Toned and Strengthened Through the Blood.

The victim of indigestion who wants to eat a good meal, and who will suffer if he eats one, finds poor consolation in picking and choosing a diet. As a matter of fact you cannot get relief by cutting down your diet to a starvation basis. The stomach must be strengthened until you can eat good nourishing food. The only way to strengthen the stomach is to enrich the blood and thus tone up the nerves that control it. The only way to enrich the blood, and tone up the nerves, and give strength to the stomach—strength that will enable it to properly digest any kind of food—is through a fair use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The one mission of these Pills is to make rich, red blood, that reaches every part and every organ of the body, bringing renewed health and activity. The following case illustrates the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in indigestion:

Miss Lottie Carr, of Lequille, N. S., says: "For several years I have been a great sufferer from chronic indigestion. At times I almost loathed food, and no matter how hungry, I found that to eat even lightly was followed by great distress and often nausea. I tried many so-called cures, but did not get any more than temporary relief, and naturally I was going down both in health and strength, and was greatly discouraged. While in this despondent condition I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I doubted that they would cure me after so many other medicines had failed, but as I wanted health and the Pills were highly recommended I decided to try them. I am thankful now that I did so, for after taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for five or six weeks every vestige of the trouble had left me, and I was again blessed with the best of health. From my own experience I believe there is no case of indigestion Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will not cure, if given a fair trial."

You can get these Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail, post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Robert Bull, formerly customs officer, was afflicted with a paralytic stroke on Friday night, affecting one side of his body.

Mrs. Samuel Hamilton, who has been living alone at the upper end of town for a number of years, left for Boston Monday morning to make her home with her son Benjamin in that city.

Howard Cronkhite

Howard Cronkhite, a respected resident of Royalton, died on the 22nd. February, aged 55 years. He was unmarried and leaves four brothers and a sister. Rev. Mr. Hurlow, pastor of the United Baptist Church at Tracey Mills preached the funeral sermon.
