Free Surgery.

Solomon Kinney

Beacon: Now that the foliage has gone, a better idea can be had of the piece of tree surgery that was performed on the ancient willow, which guards the southern approach to Fort Tipperary, St. Andrews, in front of Sir Thomas Shaughnessy's summer home. This tree is probably one hundred years old, and its stately proportions have been the admiration of visitors for years. Its massive trunk has become so seamed and scarred by age that the danger of its going into decay. Last season Sir Thomas Shaughnessy called in tree specialists and they did a marvelous piece of work on it. The openings in the main trunk were sealed up with cement and other filling, and the great limbs were strengthened with massive chains and iron bars and bolts, cleverly interwoven and braced. The 'operation,' it is said, cost Sir Thomas $600, but if it results in the life of this great tree being indefinitely prolonged, it will be money well expended.

Mr. Solomon Kinney passed away Friday night, Dec. 5th., at the age of 89 years and eleven months. He leaves three sons and three daughters to mourn the loss of a kind and loving father.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon from his residence, Jacksonville, Rev. G. A. Ayers, officiating.

Hugh P. Johnston

Hugh P. Johnston, a highly respected resident of Newburg, died suddenly on Friday night, aged 61 years. He had been working in the woods near his residence and not coming home to supper two of his sons went in search and found the body. He is survived by the widow, four sons, Dennis, Nicholas and Hugh at home, and Michael, a student at St. Joseph's College, and two daughters, Nellie at home and Mary A., of St. Vincent's hospital, Worcester, Mass.

Coroner John A. Lindsay and Chief Kelly drove to Newburg on Saturday morning. An inquest was held with the following jury which brought in a verdict of death from natural causes: John McGuire, John P. McGuire, James A. McGuire, Murray McGuire, Joseph Cunningham, Thomas Cunningham and Patrick Montague. The funeral was held on Monday morning, was largely attended, and was in charge of Undertaker Kelly of Woodstock. Rev. Francis Bracey officiated at the requiem mass, with interment at Newburg cemetery.

Speaking of the deceased, Geo. W. Upham, ex-M. L. A., said that he had worked for him for 16 winters and he was a most honorable man. To show the heroism of the deceased, he said that some seven years ago, while snow-shoeing through the deep snow, Mr. Johnston, while crossing over a blown down tree, the snow bank caved in and he landed in a den of two bears and two cubs. Without a moment's hesitation Johnston shoved his gun into the mouth of one of the bears, fired and killed the animal; before the other could attack him, he fired again and killed the second one; picking up the cubs, he worked his way out of the snow drift, and went home none the worse of his experience.

A Lovely Face— But Ugly Hair

How often you see an otherwise lovely face spoiled by homely hair—a face that would be most charmingly beautiful if she only had prettier hair. What a pity!—and how foolish! Because that ugly hair, stringy, dull, lifeless looking though it may be, can be made as glossy, soft, silky and beautiful as the heart could desire if only taken proper care of.

Harmony Hair Beautifier is just what it is named—a hair beautifier. It is not a hair dye or hair oil—it is just a dainty, rose-perfumed liquid dressing to give the hair its natural gloss and brightness, its natural wavy softness, its natural rich beauty. Very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. It contains no oil, and will not change the color of the hair, nor darken gray hair. To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet-smelling cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped very ornamental bottles, with sprinklers. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00 Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold in this community only at our store The Rexall Store one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which own the big Harmony laboratories, Toronto, where the celebrated Harmony Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are made. E. W. Mair, Woodstock N. B.
