PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. A. Page have returned from a visit to St. John.

Geo. E. Phillips, who underwent an operation about a month ago, is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burpee, of Woodstock have moved into Mr. Phillips' house at Mt. Pleasant.

Rev. J. Archer left on Tuesday for Grand Manan where he will spend a week in the interests of missions.

Donald Munro, M. L. A., who was confined to his home for the past two weeks with illness, is able to be out again.

Grand Master Knowlton, of St. John, will be here on January 6th, to install the officers of Woodstock Lodge, No. 11, F. and A. M.

Mrs. Hayward, wife of ex-Sheriff Hayward, of Carleton County is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harold Montgomery, Campbellton.

The C. M. B. A. have secured rooms in the Brown block, Main street, which they will fit up for society and club room purposes.

George Clark, of Perth, who was operated upon some weeks ago at the Fisher Hospital for appendicitis, will return home this week almost recovered in health.

J. W. Black, superintendent of the New Brunswick Telephone Co., in company with Walter E. Stone, manager of the local branch, were looking over the proposed extension of toll lines on Wednesday.

Michael Johnston a student at Memramcook College and Miss Mary Johnston, nurse at the Worcester Hospital, arrived home on Saturday to attend the funeral of their father Hugh P. Johnston which took place on Monday.

A large circle of friends met at the home of Mrs. H. O. White on Dec. 10th after spending a pleasant afternoon. Mrs. E. L. Clarke, on behalf of the ladies, presented Mrs. White with a china tea set. Much regret was expressed that Mrs. White is leaving Woodstock to make her future home in Nova Scotia.

St. Gertrude's church will be closed all this week, the first time the like has happened for 75 years, to enable workmen to remove the old altar, which has been in use for about 76 years, and replace it by a new altar which has just arrived from Montreal. The new altar is a fine piece of workmanship, the equal to any altar in any church in the province, which will reflect credit on the pastor, Rev. F. J. McMurray and the congregation as a whole.

Messrs W. Cowper and C. H. Ascott two prosperous farmers of Kent, England, arrived in Woodstock last Wednesday and on Thursday purchased from Charles Gough his valuable farm of 300 acres in Speerville, where they have moved with their families and will make a specialty of pure bred stock; on Saturday they bought from Messrs Kennedy and McDonald a valuable pair of work horses for use on their farm.

Miss Iva A. Baxter, of the Manual Training Department of the Provincial Normal School, has been granted a six months' leave of absence by the Board of Education. Dr. Carter, Chief Superintendent, has been empowered to name a substitute. Miss Baxter has not been enjoying the best of health for some time. Donald Innes, of Tobique River, killed a pig recently that weighed, when dressed 450 lbs. Can any one beat it. T. J. Carter, M. P. P., left on Friday last for a trip through Nova Scotia. He will visit the Winter Fair at Amherst during his trip.
