Gillett-Davies

The marriage of Miss Madeline A. Davies to Mr. Sydney Howard Gillett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Gillett, of Lyndhurst, Parkend Road, Gloucester, Eng., took place at half past three Wednesday afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Davies, Broadway. The drawing room was prettily decorated with ferns and pink and white flowers, the bridal party standing under a bell of white honeysuckle. The Rev. R. W. Weddall performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given away by her father wore a gown of white charmeuse satin with pearl trimmings and hand embroidered veil caught up with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister Miss Jessie Davies, wearing a gown of pink charmeuse satin with overdress of shadow lace and carried a bouquet of pink roses and smilax. Mendelssohn's wedding March was played by Miss Grace Porter, of Andover.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillett left for a trip to Montreal, Toronto, Niagara and Buffalo after which they will reside at North Bay, Ont. Going away the bride wore a tailored suit of fawn broadcloth with Bulgarian trimming and hat to match and carried a silver purse the gift of the groom.

Jewett-Wardless,

A pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening, June 18th at Christchurch Cathedral, when Miss Alicia A. Wardless, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Wardless, of this city, and Mr. Healey F. Jewett, of Florenceville, Carleton county, were united in the bonds of matrimony by Rev. Dean Schofield.

The bride wore a travelling suit of grey broadcloth, with hat to match, and carried a white satin prayer book. Both the bride and groom were unattended. The Cathedral choir rendered the hymns 'The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden, Oh Perfect Love, and the psalm Blessed are They Who Fear the Lord.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewett left on the 9 o'clock train on a short honeymoon trip before making their home at Florenceville, Carleton county. Among the numerous wedding gifts were a beautiful piece of cut glass from the Cathedral choir, of which the bride was a valued member, cut glass from the employees and linen from the firm of F. B. Edgcombe Co., Ltd., where the bride was employed.

Tupper Roberts

The marriage took place very quietly on Tuesday afternoon in the Eglinton Methodist Church, Rev. M. J. Balfour officiating, of Miss Eva Irene Roberts, daughter of the late Mr. George Roberts and of Mrs. Roberts, to Mr. Sydney Brock Tupper, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Rice Tupper, Toronto. The bride, who was given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. Norman Withrow, wore a blue charmeuse gown and becoming hat to match and corsage bouquet of American beauties and lily of the valley. There were no attendants, and Mr. and Mrs. Tupper left immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip up the Hudson River to New York, Boston and Atlantic City.

Miss Alice Marshall,

The many friends of Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Marshall, of Charlottetown have been made sorry by the death of their daughter Alice, who passed away on Thursday of last week, after a lengthened illness. It was especially sad in view of the fact that the Conference, of which Mr. Marshall is an honorable member, was meeting in the city at the time. A committee was sent to wait upon the family and present the sympathy of the Conference. The body was taken to Sackville N. B., for interment on Saturday.

—Wesleyan.

Thomas Kelly

Thomas C. Kelly, a former resident of this town, and a well known horse-man, who has driven over all the parks in this province, died Thursday morning at his home in Fort Fairfield, after a lingering illness from tuberculosis. He is survived by a widow, one brother John Kelly in the west, and one sister Mrs. Owen Kelly of Plymouth. The burial took place at Fort Fairfield.

UNITED BAPTISTS MEET.

Addresses on Church Work by Rev. A. C. Berrie, Rev. J. MacLuckie, Dr DeWolfe and J D Spurden

The seventh annual meeting of the United Baptist churches for District No 2, was held in the Woodstock church, commencing on Friday evening and continuing over Sunday. The sessions were presided over by Rev. S. W. Schurman of Hartland. The speakers from outside were Dr. DeWolfe of Acadia University, J. D. Spurden of Fredericton, and Miss A. Slipp, who represents the U. B. W. M. Union.

PASTORS PRESENT.

Woodstock—Rev. A. C. Berrie.
Jacksonville—Rev. F. B. Seeley.
Victoria—Rev. E. C. Jenkins.
Hartland—Rev. S. W. Schurman.
Coldstream—Rev. Thomas Gillan.
Florenceville—Rev. Jas. MacLuckie.
Windsor—Rev. J. A. Corey.
Meductic—Rev. C. N. Barton.

FRIDAY EVENING.

At 7.30 there was a song service, which was followed by a practical address on Young People's Work by Rev. James MacLuckie of Florenceville.

Rev. A. C. Berrie, having been asked by the Home Mission Board of New Brunswick to present Home Missions gave his address on Friday evening. The address showed that there are 40 Home Mission Fields in the Province, comprising 94 churches and 166 stations. They have a resident membership of 3617. There are also 73 Bible Schools, with 2375 scholars. The figures being for year ending May 31st, 1912, show that the Home Mission Pastors received an average salary of about $540.

Surely there will have to be much work done before these pastors will receive $800, and parsonage. Of the 31 churches in our District to whom allotments were made not one reached the amount asked, unless it was Lakeville, $4 being contributed, the amount asked not recorded. The churches in the District gave to Home Missions $390. $100 of this was given by the late Col. D. McLeod Vince, $130 by the Woodstock U. B. church, leaving the remaining $160 to about 1100 resident members, an average of about 15c. Such figures do not indicate generosity. The amount contributed in the District for all purposes would show but an average of $9.20 per resident member which is certainly less than one half it should be. I am persuaded that the returns for this year ending May 31st, will be much better.

SATURDAY SESSION.

The first item for the morning was an old-time conference meeting led by Rev. J. C. Bleakney, and the appointment of committees took up the time till the noon hour.

After dinner, Rev. C. N. Barton led in a prayer and praise meeting, after which the Women's Missionary Meeting was held.

The following business was carried out during the remainder of the day:—

- P. M. 3 00—Report from church
- P. M. 4 00 Church Covenant, by Rev. E. C. Jenkins. Discussion brief.
- P. M. 4. 40—Denominational condition of the District, by Clerk.
- P. M 5 15—Words of welcome from pastor A. C. Berrie. Enrollment of delegates with District Clerk,
- P. M. 7 30—Worship of song.
- P. M. 8 00—Foreign Missions, by Mr. Spurden. The Women's United Baptist Mission report of work,

Sunday morning opened with prayer by Deacon W. Margison of Jacksonville.

At 11 o'clock a very able address was presented to the large congregation by Dr. T. H. DeWolf of Acadia Seminary. His message was on Acadia what Acadia is, and what Acadia is doing.

At 3.30 was held the men's mass meeting, addressed by Rev. Thomas Gillan, lately from Scotland. The message was straight and convincing.

At 3.30 the woman's mass meeting was addressed by Rev. Fred. Seely.

The Sunday School Session was largely attended. The various classes were taught by the visiting pastors. Two addressees were given before the close of Sunday School.

1st. The Place Undenominational Literature has in a Baptist Church, by Rev. Schurman.

2nd. The Place the Bible has in Sunday School, by Rev. Jenkins.

The evening congregation was treated to the second address by Dr. DeWolf Rev. A. C. Berrie is the new president of the district and E. C. Jenkins, secretary.

The members of the Woodstock Baptist church and the people of the town as a whole proved to be good entertainers.

John Ring

John Ring, a respected resident of Grafton, died on Wednesday evening at seven o'clock at the Fisher Memorial Hospital, after a lingering illness, aged 60 years. He is survived by one daughter, his wife having died some years ago. For nearly all his life he was connected with the Hale lumber interests in the upper part of the province. His funeral took place the following afternoon, at which the pall bearers were Chief Kelly, George McElroy, Colin Campbell and Warren Hale.

Mrs Chas F Manuel.

Mrs. Chas. F. Manuel, a highly respected woman of this town, died very suddenly on Friday morning at a quarter to seven, aged 29 years. She is survived by a husband, her father Mr. Albert Hickey of West Waterville, York county, two sisters Lillian Cumberland of St. Stephen, and Lucy McHatten of West Waterville and two brothers Levi E. Hickey of Grand View and Allie of Woodstock.

The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon. Services conducted at the house by Rev. H. C. Archer, and the interment was made at the Methodist cemetery. The pall bearers were Wesley and Arthur Delong, Wm. Cooper and Sandy Dickinson.

Charles Yerxa Dead.

The death of Mr. Charles Yerxa occurred this morning, after a lingering illness. The deceased was seventy-nine years of age and was a son of the late James Yerxa, of Keswick. The late Mr. Yerxa was twice married, his first wife being a daughter of the late Mr. Michael Yerxa, of Keswick. The children by the first wife are Mrs. Robert Baird and Mrs. Herbert Colwell, of this city; Mrs. Horace Lockwood, of Woodstock, and one son, Parkine Yerxa, of Bangor, Me. He is survived by his second wife, formerly Miss Ebbett, daughter of the late James Ebbett, of Keswick. The children by the second marriage are Mrs. Albert Libbey and Miss Lulu Yerxa at home. He is survived by one sister Mrs. Edward Hughes, of St. Stephen.

The funeral will take place on Monday with services at the house at 7 a. m. Rev. T. S. Roy will conduct the services. The remains will be taken to Keswick by train where interment will be made at the cemetery there.

Belyea Wheeler,

Miss Ellen P. Wheeler, daughter of Mr. Preston Wheeler, and Mr. Harry M. Belyea, formerly of St. John, were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. D. A. McKendrick, 21 Water St., by Rev. A. C. Berrie, pastor of the United Baptist church.

The bride was becomingly gowned in white Duchess Satin. Her veil was arranged with lilies of the valley and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

The presents were numerous and beautiful consisting of Silver, gold, linen, cut glass and furniture.

Among the out of town guests were: Mr. Belyea's sister and brother, Miss Pearl Belyea of Boston, and Mr. Lorne Belyea of St. John, Miss Gertrude E. MacKendrick of Springfield, Mass., and Mr. Archie Scott of Glassville, N. B., a great uncle of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Belyea left for St. John on the evening express, and will spend their honeymoon at Mr. Lorne Belyea's summer cottage at Cherry Ridge, twenty miles above St. John. They will reside in Woodstock where Mr. Belyea has a lucrative business.

Douglas Winslow, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. W. Winslow, left on Thursday last for Halifax, where he will join a government party enroute for Port Nelson, Hudson Bay. Three steamers have been chartered for the trip. A complete steel bridge will be taken with them. A harbour and dockyards are being built at the above port named.
