Renewal of War in the Balkans?

London, June 21—Bulgaria, in a note sent to Greece, has assumed the same attitude that she took in her voluminous note addressed to the Servian government on Thursday. The note says Bulgaria declines to cease the concentration of her troops on the Greek lines or to demobilize their forces unless Greece consents to a joint occupation of disputed territory. According to reports current at Saloniki, Bulgaria will require another ten days to complete the concentration of her forces against Serbia and Greece. Numerous small skirmishes between the opposing armies are reported.

New York, June 21—A cable to the Tribune from London says: Unless Bulgaria and Serbia can be induced to take up a less uncompromising attitude in the dispute over the division of their territorial spoils or the powers put prompt and effective pressure on them, a renewal of war in the Balkans still seems probable.

A state of absolute deadlock prevails and all Europe is anxiously awaiting the next move. Vienna thinks war is almost certain and Bulgaria is undoubtedly in a much stronger military position now than before.

New York, June 21—A cable despatch from Athens says: Despite Russia's efforts for peace, little hope is entertained in political circles here for a friendly understanding among the allies regarding the new frontiers owing to Bulgaria's irreconcilable attitude.

Bulgaria has almost completed her concentration of troops in Macedonia, seventy thousand facing the Greeks between Pravista and Angista and between Doiran and Kilkighs, with the object of cutting the communications between the Greek and Servian armies by seizing the Uskup and Salonika Railway at Gevgheh.

The main Bulgarian army concentrated against the Servians between Ishtip and Kochane has ten divisions of 25,000 men each, being spread along the Serbo-Bulgarian boundary between Kustendil and Slivnitza and Vidin in order to defend Sofia.

The troops facing the Servians are under the command of General Savoff, whose headquarters are at Sofia, which is also the headquarters of General Ivanoff, who is commanding the troops which will operate against the Greeks in case of war.

the Association. Mr. Lawler, the Secretary of the Association, reports that the recent advances in ideas of wise use of the forest resource are very noticeable in the West at the present time, and that it is not unlikely, considering the demands which are being made on all sides for further scientific management, and in view of the importance of the question to be considered at the Winnipeg Convention, that considerable progress should be the direct outcome of the present activities.

THE METHODIST CHURCH CONFERENCE in Toronto has succeeded the Presbyterian Assembly as one of the most important events of the week. The greetings of the Presbyterian Church was conveyed in person by the Moderator, Rev. Dr. Murdoch Mackenzie; Rev. Dr. John Somerville and Mr. John Condon. This meeting between two historic Churches on the common plane of Christian fellowship touched a sympathetic chord in the Conference, and the applause was spontaneous and generous when the Moderator exclaimed: "We have been doing our work in our way and you have been doing yours in your way, and it is for you to say how much the Presbyterian Church owes you, but I do know how much we owe the Methodists. May God bless you in your work. To-day we stand shoulder to shoulder, heart beating with heart, and Canada may soon be wholly for Christ."

OPPOSITION TO CHURCH UNION has taken definite shape within the Presbyterian Church as the result of the vote of the General Assembly. A meeting was held on Wednesday last and an organization formed to conserve the rights of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. There were 150 present, and the committee, it is stated, includes Rev. Mr. MacBeth, of Paris; Rev. G. H. Smith of St. Catharines, Mr. Walter Paul of Montreal and Rev. Mr. Cunningham of Welland. It is proposed to organize a campaign against Church union, and in a statement issued to the Press it was disclosed that "three of the millionaires of the Presbyterian Church have offered to finance a new Presbyterian journal."

THE IRISH HOME RULE BILL has again passed its second reading in the Commons by a large majority, the Unionists refusing to take any part in suggesting possible amendments. The bill will again appear in the House of Lords, and this is the last opportunity the Peers have to stay its passage. On the next occasion in 1914 the bill will be come law if the Liberals are then in power, despite the third refusal of the Upper House to father it. Of course much depends on the little "if." The Marconi discussion has undoubtedly shaken the Liberal Government, and the cumulative effects of this Marconi incident and the depressing defeats at bye-elections may hasten the end before the home rule bill reaches its third and last stage under the Parliament act.

THE DANGER OF ANAEMIA Consumption May Follow Unless It's Ravages Are Checked.

There is danger to every girl and every woman who falls a victim to anaemia—that is bloodlessness. They become listless, feel to weak, too wretched and too helpless to take prompt steps to stop the trouble. Too often, through neglect, they drift into a worse condition, forgetting that anaemia frequently leads on to consumption. If you are anaemic in the least degree you should lose no time in beginning treatment, to increase and enrich the blood supply. To do this there is no other medicine so good as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Every dose helps make rich, red blood, which drives out disease and brings again the bloom of health to pale and sallow cheeks. There are thousands of women and growing girls in Canada who owe their present good health to the timely use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Among those who have been restored to health by this great medicine is Miss Rose Neville, Mount Forest, Ont., who says: "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills performed almost a miracle in my case. I was a victim of anaemia, in what my friends considered a dangerous form. I was very pale, always felt tired out, suffered from severe headaches, and had no appetite. I was taking doctor's medicine for a long time—in fact I tried two doctors—but instead of improving I seemed to be growing worse. My parents were at a loss to know what to do for me and thought I would not recover. Then a friend advised Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I had only taken them a few weeks when I began to feel better. This greatly encouraged me and I continued taking the Pills for some time longer, and found my health again as good as ever it had been. In fact I am stronger than ever I was before. I have advised the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to other girls who have found the results equally beneficial."

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

AN IMPASSIONED SPEECH in defence of the outrages committed by militant suffragettes was delivered on Tuesday in the central criminal court by Miss Annie Kenney, during the trial for conspiracy of the suffragette leader Women formed the majority of the audience, and among them were Mrs. Winston Churchill, wife of the First Lord of the Admiralty, and Miss Violet Asquith, daughter of the Premier. Miss Annie Kenney devoted much of her speech for the defence to attempts to prove that the action of the Ulster Unionists and the speeches of Cabinet Ministers—who, she averred, had asserted that the unfranchised were justified in rebelling in order to get their grievances remedied—furnished ample warrant for the course pursued by the militant suffragettes. If further justification were necessary, she said, "the trickery and treachery of Cabinet Ministers who had hunted and bounded the women from pillar to post" justified it. "I am a rebel and a rebel I shall remain until women receive the vote," she exclaimed. "If, like Miss Emily Wilding Davidson, it should be necessary for me to sacrifice my life, then I shall die."

Militant Outrage On Friday Night.

LONDON, June 21—Militant Suffragettes " arson squads," were out during last night at St. Andrew, Scotland, and at South End on the lower Thames, and succeeded in causing considerable damage. At St. Andrew's the "fire fiends" destroyed the east wing of the Gatty Marine Laboratory, connected with the University. Many valuable instruments, scientific materials and charts, were burned to ashes. Inflammable oils and cotton wool were used to insure the brisk spread of the flames and the local police assert that they have secured clear evidence that the outrage was the work of the Militant Suffragettes. The object of attack at South End was the church of St. John, a modern and costly edifice, completed only a year ago. The organ loft was set on fire, but soon ceased to burn, and the damage caused was negligible. Cart-ridges, oiled rags and combustibles were found scattered around, and a quantity of suffrage literature was left about to show the origin of the outrage.

Bad writing had its apothecis when the House of Lords was in committee on the Reform Bill of 1837. The clerk of the House intimated that an amendment had been handed in, the writing of which was so illegible that he could not say what it was about or who had written it. It was discovered that Lord Lytton was the author, and that the amendment proposed the disfranchisement of all persons unable to write.
