CENTREVILLE.

The District Meeting at Tracy Mills proved a grand success in point of numbers present as also in the matter of business.

It is now reported that, instead of going to Bateh Mr. Waldon will locate at Norton, Kings Co.

Rev. Jos. Cahill preached a very interesting sermon in the Centreville Baptist Church last Sunday; Subject; "The Ark of the Covenant."

Mr. Crabtree, a young minister, preached in the evening but the congregation was not as large as would have been if the District Meeting had been closed.

The farmers are calling for rain and hot sunshine in order that the crops put in may get a successful growth.

Niel Gox has purchased a good large lot in Centreville and will erect a substantial set of buildings in the near future.

Construction work on the Valley Railway is still being pushed on the north side of the stream but bridge work is delayed until a pile driver can be secured as a good foundation cannot be secured without.

Mr. Daggett spent Saturday and Sunday in the village.

The road machines are doing much work and men are beginning to realize more than ever the great need extended effort along the line.

S. W. Niles has Jos. Estabrooks of Avondale moving his barn.

The parties excavating for the foundation of the Oddfellows Hall have found a very hard task and an expensive one as well.

RICHMOND

Clarence Hay left for Sarance New York last week to enter a Sanatorium there.

Miss Strong, Oakville is visiting her niece Mrs. Garnett Campbell.

Miss Alice McIntyre who spent the winter with her sister at Laurence Mass., has returned home.

Mrs. Don Neales of Augusta Me. is visiting relatives here.

Thomas Watt met with a severe accident last week being thrown from his sloven wagon and the front wheel passing over his body. He is still confined to the house.

Henry Hay has a large new barn in course of erection.

Miss Margaret Folkins of Woodstock, who has been attending the Houlton Business College, has been placed in the Postoffice at Fort Fairfield as clerk and stenographer. Mr. Richardson the postmaster is an old graduate of the school.

About 1,500 people attended the field day at Connell Park, Tuesday, held by the base ball association. The principal interest centered in the drawing of the automobile which was held in the armory. The judges and other officials in charge were selected from the audience and were out of town men. Drawing of tickets commenced at 9 o'clock and it was 3.30 a. m., before the lucky ticket appeared, and it was held by A. D. Holyoke of this town, who is now the owner of a handsome McLaughlin-Buick touring car.

Methodist Conference Station Changes

Final Draft Was Made Up On Saturday.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I. June 16—A breezy debate on Sabbath observance enlivened Saturday morning's session of the Methodist conference. Sunday funerals and the winter port work were discussed.

Rev. J. A. Ives submitted a lengthy report of the Sunday School committee. Superintendents were asked to forward circuit schedules more promptly.

More hearty co-operation of pastor and Sunday School workers with secretaries in holding circuit institutions was urged, also the necessity of all purely Methodist teachers' training classes being registered with the conference connexional department.

The general conference fund report showed Receipts, $24,529; expenditures, $22,861; church and parsonage aid fund receipts, $81,202; expenditures, $29,460. Educational fund committee reported receipts from districts as follows: St. John, $478; Fredericton, $294; Woodstock, $98; Chatham, $120; Sackville, $346; St. Stephen, $71; Charlottetown, $272; Summerside, $145. The total increase is $118 over last year.

The committee recommended as prebationers Tennyson A. McDonald, H. Peters, G. Stanley Helps, Christopher Graham, B. W. Turner, Hubert T. Smith, Robert Smart, Walter J. Domville, Roy C. Dalsiel, George T. Methcort, A. E. Tingley.

The assessment for supernumeraries' children will be $650, a reduction from last year of $82.

The final draft of the station sheet passed with the following change from the first draft:

Exmouth street, St. John—R. S. Crisp.

Gagetown—Dr. W. W. Brewer.

Oromocto—F. R. Bertram.

Canterbury—George N. Somers.

Florenceville—George A. Ross.

Baie Verte—J. L. Dawson.

Deer Island and Grand Manan—Roy Dalsiel, Supply.

Mount Stewart—J. K. Hudson.

Sunny Brae—Supply.

The chairman, financial secretaries and Sunday school secretaries of districts elected were:

St. John—H. E. Thomas, J. J. Pinkerton Gilbert Earl.

Fredericton—Neil McLaughlin, T. Hicks, Charles Flemming.

Woodstock—William Penna, George Ayers, G. A. Ross.

Chatham—Dr. Wm. Harrison, F. A. Wightman, J. A. Ives.

Sackville—Samuel Howard, A. D. McCulley, A. E. Chapman.

St. Stephen—G. F. Dawson, R. Opie, T. S. Crisp.

Charlottetown—Thomas Marshall, E. E. Styles, Jacob Heaney.

Summerside—G. M. Young, Hammond Johnston, John B. Gough.

J. A. Lindsay moved, seconded by C. F. McTavish, a resolution that it would be inadvisable to extend the pastoral term to an unlimited extent. This resolution was laid on the table.

The general Sunday School fund report showed receipts, $566, an increase of $70, and the Young People's Society, $48.

The sustentation report acknowledged the receipt of $500 from the Ralph Brecken estate, Charlottetown. Receipts amounted to $210,58, leaving a surplus of $87.

Rev. Arthur Whiteside presented the report of class leaders. It regretted the neglect of class meetings. Some churches have done without them, but at sacrifice of worldwide reputation as a force in spiritual power, holy being and aggressiveness. Owing to such neglect the door of Methodism is nearly broken off its hinges, so that hardly any discrimination is made between the serious and gay penitent and unpenitent; regenerate and unregenerate, saint and sinner, wherefore there is grave reflection on the church on account of the spirit of worldliness rendered thereby, which has become a crying shame to her name and fame.

The state of sustentation fund rendered it possible to aid circuits on the following basis: $775, for ordained married men; $600, for ordained single men, and $400, for probationers. The total receipts were $1,981, an increase of $172.

Rev. Geo. Steel was re-appointed superintendent of missions.

A resolution was passed, approving of Mr. John Bradford's work, and the willingness of the conference to co-operate with other churches in that work.

Rev. Thomas Hicks was appointed successor on the board of trusts to Rev. C. R. Flanders, resigned.

Visiting ministers occupied most of the city churches on Sunday.

Strong Opposition to Church Union

Toronto, June 13.—The Rev. R. G. MacBeth, of Paris, who is taking an active part in the organization in the Presbyterian church to oppose union, when interviewed made the following statement:

"In view of the attitude manifested by the Assembly, or certain members of the Assembly, a meeting was called of all those opposed to organic church union at the St. Andrew's Institute, which was remarkably well attended. There was a discussion of the situation and a committee of twelve was appointed to perfect organization for the conservation and defence of the Presbyterian church in Canada. Those at the meeting took the ground that if there is any separation in the church it will be due to those in favor of union seceding in the church to enter the new body."

Continuing, Mr. MacBeth made reference to the trouble that will arise in regard to the disposition of church property of any such action is taken. This question would be vitally effected, he declared.

Asked as to the providing of funds for this organization, Mr. MacBeth said there would be no difficulty in obtaining financial assistance, as there were many men in the church, who were in sympathy and who had ample funds.

As to the three millionaires who were reported to be behind the new organization, Mr. MacBeth stated that he could give no definite information. Setting the number at three, he said, was not just right, as the committee as yet could not make any such statement as they had no definite understanding with the men who would give the assistance.

"It is necessary to assume that this will lead to a permanent cleavage in the Presbyterian Church," said Mr. MacBeth, "because it is generally known that the members of both sides are anxious to maintain the church intact. Our position is not that we are set against the form of union, but we hold that, present active co-operation between the churches of Canada would be the most effective manner of working."

Questioned as to the institution of campaign, Mr. MacBeth stated that all plans were merely in embryo as yet and he could not give any information in this regard.

"We do not intend to go into the printing business," he replied to a query as to the founding of an anti-union Presbyterian publication, but volunteered the information that large volumes of literature would probably be used in that connection.

The Geologists are Coming to N. B.

Ottawa, June 13.—The geologist department has announced that several field parties will be sent to the Maritime Provinces this summer. A. O. Hayes will head a party to the Saint John district, to map out the geological areas, and W. J. Wright will head another party to do area mapping at Moncton and to start preliminary examination of geological sections at Dorchester and Joggins.

Mrs. C. A. Estey and children of Wicklow, spent a few days this week in Richmond with her father, Henry Jamieson.
