Leave For England On March 17th

OTTAWA, March 10.—The Duke and Duchess of Connaught will leave Ottawa at the middle of the week, and after spending two or three days in Montreal, will sail on March 17 from Halifax for England. The Duke is expected to return to Canada at an early date, but it is not expected that the Duchess will return to Ottawa again. Their departure owing to the illness of the Duchess, will be of a quiet nature and marked by no ceremony.

Sir Donald Tells Of One Horrid Mistake

Sir Donald Mann, of the Canadian Parliament, is stopping at the Ritz Hotel, New York.
 "The other day," said Sir Donald, "I witnessed a funny scene in a refreshment room of the Canadian Pacific station, Montreal. An Englishman was sitting at one of the large tables and next to him was a man who seemed to belong to the humbler walks of life.
 "Please pass me those potatoes," said the man to the elegant gentleman. The latter slowly focussed his eyeglass on the speaker and haughtily asked, "Did you think I was one of the waiters?" I expected to see our poor friend shrivel up, but he turned and beckoned to a waiter.
 "George, come here, please!"
 "What is it, sir?" asked George.
 "I want to apologize to you. You see, I mistook this party here for you but I hope you won't be offended at it. And now pass me those potatoes."
 "That's what you call a boomerang, eh, what?" laughed Sir Donald.
