Is a Popular Way to Travel.

Tourist Sleepers—light and airy, with big comfortable berths, accommodating two adults, if desired—are carried from Montreal on Fast Transcontinental Express Trains for points in Western Canada, British Columbia, and on the Pacific Coast.

Not as luxurious as the Palace Sleeper, but they meet the requirements of a superior class of patrons just as well—and at half the cost.

Potatoes are now being shipped from Centreville and those who have always contended that no railway would be built are reaping the advantages of a short haul for their farm produce.

The cold weather of the past few days makes it necessary for the farmers to protect the potatoes stored in barns and outside store rooms. There are still some fields of grain that have not been gathered.

Rev. G. A. Ross pastor of the Methodist Church here occupied the pulpit in this church yesterday for the first time for a few weeks, being unable to be here before on account of his family having sickness.

An unusually cold snap caught some of the farmers with some of their potatoes stored in barns, and considerable damage is reported. The space of the potato houses here was completely filled on Saturday evening last and many teams with their loads had to return with them home.

The condition of E. D. Ratchford Phillips still causes his friends much anxiety, as there is but little improvement in his health.

Circuit Court Cases.

Circuit Court resumed its sessions on Tuesday afternoon and finished its business on Friday afternoon.

Mr. Justice White presided, Fred Devine stenographer, W. M. Connell, clerk, Wm. Armstrong, deputy sheriff, Mathias Watson, crier, Neil McKinnon, constable, Herb Holmes, caretaker.

The Drake vs Montgomery land case was continued with the following jury: Herb Anderson, H. N. Boyer, J. Ednar Long, Clark Watt, Nelson McBride, A. Thomas and J. J. Rogers.

On Thursday morning the jury was addressed by J. C. Hartley, K. C. counsel for defendant, and in the afternoon by W. P. Jones, K. C. counsel for plaintiff, who was associated with Mr. A. N. Vince, after which the judge charged the jury which retired and after two hours deliberation returned to announce that they could not agree. There were three questions submitted by the judge, five jurors out of seven agreeing on one question and standing four to three on the other two.

The judge remarked that it was one of these cases in which juries were liable to disagree. He thanked them for their attendance, dismissed them, and stated that the case could not be retried this term.

The three questions submitted by the judge follows:—

QUESTIONS BY THE JUDGE.

1. Did Hanson, in 1903, find and partly retrace the Blair line running north (by the magnet of 1827) from the southwest corner of Lot No. 1?

2. Did successive predecessors in title of the defendant at any time between the date of the Martha J. Stickney grant, Feb. 18, 1839, and the date in 1906 when the plaintiff erected, or helped to erect the wire fence, which he claims was on the western boundary of his lot occupy the disputed land continuously for a period of at least 20 years, and during the whole of such period of occupancy openly hold the sole and exclusive possession of such disputed land adversely to the plaintiff, or his predecessors in title or under a claim of ownership thereof?

(Note—By the words "the disputed land" in this question I mean the land bounded on the west by the Hanson line or its prolongation northward; on the north line of the plaintiff's lot or its prolongation westward; on the east by the line to which the defendant now claims (that is to say a line parallel with the Hanson line and about 20 rods east of the Hanson line) and on the south by the south line of the plaintiff's land or its prolongation westward.

3. Did John Drake in 1906 while he was the owner of the Martha J. Stickney lot, and the plaintiff agree to accept and adopt the wire fence erected in that year as marking dividing line between the plaintiff's lot and the Stickney lot where the latter abuts the plaintiff's land; and did the plaintiff and said John Drake thereafter during the occupancy of the Stickney lot by John Drake both treat said wire fence as being erected on the dividing line between their said lots and each continue to hold and occupy up to said fence as such dividing line?

If you find such agreement was made was it made by both parties without fraud or misrepresentation on either side and for the purpose of settling the question of the disputed line bounding the plaintiff's land on the west and fixing it permanently as the dividing line between the parties?

On Friday the case of A. R. Williams Machinery Co. St. John, vs Alex Dunbar, and Harry Dunbar, for machinery sold to defendants, was taken up. W. P. Jones, K. C. for plaintiffs and J. C. Hartley, K. C. for defendants. In selecting a jury, Alex C. Gibson and George Hall were objected to by plaintiffs and Denis Cronin by defendants. The following jury was sworn: J. A. Lindsay, E. J. Clarke, Colonel Good, A. P. Ritchie, Chas. Wilkinson, and Lipsett, and Robert Currie.

On Friday morning a non-jury case, Jack McKay Co., vs Kennady & McDonald, a dispute over railway grading was before the court.

The Circuit Court under Mr. Justice White, adjourned on Friday afternoon until January 27th., 1914. The jurors were not discharged but will hold themselves in readiness for the adjournment session.

The learned judge commented on the absence of some of the jurymen and fined H. P. Carvell, Robert N. Jones and John F. McBride, $7 dollars each, which was to be paid in ten days, otherwise a bench warrant would be issued.

The case of Williams vs Dunbar was settled and the record withdrawn.

Conditions in Vancouver not too
Flourishing

(Moncton Transcript.)

After a two months' visit to Enderby, Winnipeg, Vancouver and other points in the Canadian West, Captain J. E. and Mrs. Masters returned to Moncton on the Ocean Limited Monday afternoon. They report having had a most enjoyable trip in the course of which they met many former Monctonians at various points along their line of travel.

'Vancouver city is at the present time very much depressed,' said the Captain. 'I would not say that there are three thousand houses vacant in Vancouver, but I was told so. It may be an exaggeration, but there are certainly enormous numbers vacant. I saw numbers of vacant houses on almost every street. The land in the cities, and especially in the suburbs of the cities, is abnormally dear. Prices have been artificially inflated. The great evil, in my judgement, is that the real estate agents have created into suburban lots and suburban sites land which cannot possibly be occupied as such for many, many years to come; and therefore lands which should really be farm lands, are held as town or suburban sites at prices so abnormally high as to preclude the lands being used as farms. Consequently the lands are lying idle, and farms are few adjacent to the large city. In other words, the farming is driven back. This is a condition which cannot fail to react unfavorably upon the urban community. The real estate agent has, on the whole in recent years been a detriment to genuine progress in the Vancouver district.'

DRILLING FOR NATURAL GAS AT SUSSEX SUSPENDED

Moncton, N. B., Nov. 3.—The drilling operations for natural gas at Sussex, which have been carried on by the Maritime Oilfields Co., Ltd., have been abandoned and work will not be resumed until the spring. The well at Sussex, showed good indications at the start, and it was thought that a good flow of gas would be struck about fifteen hundred feet down, but as they bored deeper the indications, were not so good.

BANK CLERK'S PAY

London Truth returns to the subject of bank clerk's pay in an article entitled "The Banker's Muzzled Ox."

The writer says: "The bank clerk is still the muzzled ox that treadeth out the corn. He is muzzled because he thinks it is derogatory to his dignity to organize for the improvement of his position. Doctors may adopt—as they did a little while ago—all the methods of trade unionism, striking and picketing included, in a fierce fight over fees.

"Lawyers, school teachers, journalists these and many other classes may band themselves together in societies and unions, but the bank clerk cannot thus debate himself. He may have his grievances, but he will not take the only effective steps to remedy them. The bare idea that bank clerk should combine as bus drivers do sends a shudder through his genial soul.

'So long as bank clerks are too genteel to help themselves, it is futile for them or for parents who allow them to embark upon such a career to complain of the slenderness of their salaries and the poorness of their prospects.'

EASIER MONEY LIKELY AFTER FIRST OF YEAR.

(Montreal Mail)

"There certainly is a better undertone in the financial market," commented Charles R. Hosmer yesterday, to a Daily mail representative.

"The big crop and the unusually large movement of grain is responsible for this betterment of conditions. The fact that almost 50,000,000 bushels have been moved since the harvest started means a considerable flow of money. If you take that wheat at, say, 70 cents, it means that $35,000,000 has gone into the country, and 35,000,000 will, certainly pay a lot of debts.

"There is an improvement and money is becoming easier, but I do not anticipate there will be any more money for speculative purposes until after the first of the new year."
