CENTREVILLE.

Rev. Mr. Penna preached a very interesting sermon last Sunday morning in the Baptist Church from the words "That I May Win Christ; and be found in Him."

The sunshine choir did much credit to themselves and those who helped them in the preparations for their service of last Sunday evening. A white robe gave each singer a very attractive appearance and the singing was greatly appreciated by a very large audience.

Elbridge Good, of Saco, Maine is here on a business trip as well as to meet old acquaintances.

Emery Flewelling, who has been out west for a number of years, is again visiting his old-time friends and home.

Word was received last evening that Joseph Cheney, of Bloomfield, who sometime ago was stricken with paralysis, had passed away. Mr. Cheney, years ago, was one of Carleton County's most successful agents.

Robert Smith has bought the Harry Corey farm in Williams-town and report says that Mr. Corey has bought the "Homestead" farm of the late G. L. Cronkhite, in Royalton.

Cyril Brown, son of Dr. J. W. Brown, has fitted up fattening yards for poultry and has gone quite extensively into the purchase of fowls for the Montreal Market.

Mrs. J. G. Simonson is reported very low with heart trouble, her warmest friends not permitted to see her at the present time.

Mrs. Nellie London, of Bloomfield, spent several days last week in the village.

The farmers have finished plowing, the weather for the two weeks being just suited to the work before them.

Henry W Grant

Henry W. Grant, a well known and highly respected citizen, died at his home in Northampton, Monday morning of cancer of the stomach, aged 67 years. He leaves a widow and four sons, Leslie and Frank of Brainard, Minn., Ansley of Woodstock, and Harry at home, and one daughter, Mrs. Eldon Gerow of this town. The funeral was held on Wednesday. He had very many friends who will regret to hear of his death.

When Baby Cries

Do not get out of patience or scold or shake your baby for crying. He does not do that to be ugly—that is not a baby's nature—he wants to laugh and be happy but when he cries that is the way he takes of telling you he is in pain; that his little stomach is out of order or that his new teeth hurt him. Instead of being cross give him a dose of Baby's Own Tablets and you will soon see him laughing and happy again. The Tablets sweeten the stomach; make teething painless; breaks up colds, cure constipation and expel worms. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

BATH

Nov. 24th., 1913.

The farmers are taking advantage of the fine weather and are adding to the many acres of ploughed land ready for spring.

The shipment of all kinds of farm produce from this point in large quantities still continues, and shippers are experiencing difficulty to obtain help and cars.

The young people and friends of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Tompkins made them a surprise party on Friday evening last where a good program was attended to and all enjoyed themselves.

The many friends of E. D. Ratchford Phillips will be pleased to know that his condition is slightly improving for the better.

William Miller, of River de Chute, N. B., was a caller in the village to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Stapleford, of Winnipeg, arrived here last week from their trip in N. S. and will spend a few days with friends before returning to Winnipeg.

There is a rumor of another potato house being erected at this point in the spring. Already the parties have secured a site for the same.

William Mitchell, of Johnville was a caller here last week on his way to Boston, Mass., to visit his daughter.

Mrs. James Barter, of Lakeville, is spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Milberry here. Mr. and Mrs. Milberry are two of Bath's oldest residents.

C. Carey, of Bristol, spent Sabbath here and addressed the Union S. S.

Joseph W Cheney

Joseph W. Cheney died of paralysis at Bloomfield Carleton county, on Friday aged 60 years. He leaves a wife and two daughters, Mrs. Leverett London of Bloomfield Corner and Mrs. Norman McLeod of Monticello, Maine. The funeral was held on Monday.

The deceased who was at one time represented his parish at the Municipal Council, was a successful farmer, horse fancier and fisherman. Some years ago he sold out his farm property and has been residing at Woodstock and Monticello, spending the summers at his cottage at Skiff Lake. Many friends will mourn his death.

Rev IN Thorne.

The death of the Rev. Isaac Newm an Thorne took place at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning at the residence of his brother Mr. Samuel Thorne, 122 Bridge street. Mr. Thorne had been ill for about a year, and during the past two months his condition had been precarious. News of his death will be heard with regret by a large circle of friends both here and in St. George, where the deceased had his last pastorate. He is survived by two brothers, Samuel of this city, and Thomas, of Tennant's Cove, one sister, Mrs. Richard Harrington, of Coady's; and one son, George, of Coady's. The body was taken to Westfield for interment there. Mr. Thorne's second wife and one son, Foster, died at Woodstock some years ago.—St. John Globe.

Mrs Calvin Churchill

Mrs. Calvin Churchill, one of our aged residents, who has many friends in this county, died on Thursday at the home of her nephew, Thomas Corbett, Lakeville, aged 81 years. She is survived by one sister Mrs. John Smith and one brother Howels Corbett, both of Lakeville. The services were conducted at Lakeville by Rev. Mr. Pierce, and on Saturday at Jacksontown by Rev. Henry Penna, the burial being in the cemetery of the latter village. The pall bearers were George Smith, Robert Smith, Hanford Lindsay and Thomas Corbett.

TWELFTH VICTIM OF HUNTING SEASON

Lambert Lake, Maine, Nov. 24.—Edward Harding, of Richfield, N. B. (?) was shot and killed here on Saturday, the twelfth human victim of the hunting season in this State. Harding and his brother-in-law, Wm. Gavel, also of Richfield, had been hunting together. They separated, and Gavel, seeing a movement in the bushes which he thought was made by a deer, fired. The bullet struck Harding, who was instantly killed.

Bosko-Buraglia

A very pretty wedding took place in St. Gertrude's church on Saturday morning, Nov. 22nd., at 9.30 o'clock, when the Rev. F. J. McMurray united in marriage Miss Tecla Buraglia and Mr. Hubal Bosko. The bride wore a lovely white satin gown with overdress of white chiffon with silver trimmings, and a veil of embroidered net. She carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations. She was attended by Mrs. Murray, who wore a yellow silk gown and carried a bouquet of pink roses and carnations. The groom was attended by Mr. Joseph Murray. Dinner was served to a number of their most intimate friends at the bride's new home at 3.30 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Bosko left on the express for a trip to Boston and Bangor. The bride's going away dress was of black satin with Bulgarian trimmings, with white plush hat trimmed with white plume, and a set of Black Marabou. She received a large number of beautiful presents.

Mexican Rebels Again Victorious.

VERA CRUZ, Nov. 25.—John Lind went aboard the United States battleship, Rhode Island, to-night, and will proceed to Tampico, in accordance with instructions. At a late hour the ship was still coaling, but will probably leave before dawn.

Villa gave the order for his cavalry to charge and the Federals were pursued to their trains, which immediately retreated to the southward.

Then came word into Juarez that Salazar, the general who had won so many victories under Madero, was pressing Juarez upon the left and that his attack seemed successful. Col. Juan N. Medina, in command of the Juarez garrison, dispatched every available trooper to assist the rebels to the east of Juarez. There a battle waged fiercely for three hours and as the main portion of the army dropped back from its victory additional reinforcements were sent to Rancho Flores and the entire Salazar command was surrounded by rebels. At midnight the fighting ceased, with Salazar and his men caught in the rebel trap. An attempt will be made to take Salazar into Juarez to-day. At a moment last night, when the result looked grave for the rebels, and Salazar's assault upon Juarez became threatening, all the American and foreign people were ordered out of Juarez, and, under military escort, were conducted to the International Bridge in El Paso. Those Americans who were dilatory about leaving Juarez were placed under arrest and forcibly ejected. No reports were made here to indicate that the Americans or foreigners had been subjected to any indignity other than the forcible deportation, which to Colonel Medina seemed necessary for their protection. Newspaper correspondents were not permitted in Juarez, until midnight, and those who accompanied Villa's troops to the south did not return until this morning.

Shortly after the heat of the battle had passed there came a report that Chihuahua city had fallen into the rebels' hands, it having been almost deserted by the Federals sent to reinforce the government troops at Samalayuca. This report is yet unverified, but, it is known that a strong band of Constitutionalists under General Chao, were in the vicinity of Chihuahua city yesterday.
