Don't Scold Baby For Being Cross.

Mothers, don't scold your little ones for being cross. A baby's nature is to be happy and if he is cross it is not his fault—crossness shows that he is unwell and needs a good medicine to bring him back to the healthy, happy state again. Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine a mother can give her little one's to keep them happy and well. There is a smile in every dose. They cure constipation, indigestion, expel worms, break up colds, and make teething easy. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. William's Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Catherine Lenahan,

Miss Catherine Lenahan, a highly respected woman of this town, possessing many friends, died on Friday night. She had been in failing health for some years. She is survived by two sisters, Miss Julia Lenahan of Salem, Mass. and Mrs. Nora Donovan of Lynn, Mass. and two brothers Daniel and Thomas living in the States. The funeral took place Tuesday morning from her late residence, Connell street, to St. Gertrude's church, where a requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. F. J. McMurray, after which the burial was in the Catholic cemetery.

Tragedy Over Real Estate Deal.

DALLAS, Texas, Feb.—During a conference over a proposed real estate deal in an office building here yesterday, James L. White, treasurer of the Republic Trust Company of this city, was shot and killed, and A. Silvers, vice-president of the Republic Trust Company, and president of A. Silvers & Company, probably fatally shot. J. A. Clapton of San Antonio, the third man in the conference, is charged with the crimes. It is said that the trouble started over difference of opinion as to how the proposed deal should be financed.

James McLean is putting steel ceilings on the stores of R. B. Jones and the McLauchlan Company.

Mr. Clark of the Bank of New Brunswick, East Florenceville, has been transferred to the Woodstock branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia.

Town Council.

The Town Council met in special session Monday night, with all present but Coun. Burden who was absent through illness. J. C. Hartley, clerk, being absent, J. P. Malaney acted in his place.

Coun. Lindsay said that owing to the absence of the clerk, from many meetings of the Board, he thought it necessary that a deputy clerk should be appointed and he would move that J. P. Malaney be appointed.

Coun. Libblee—What salary is attached to the office?
Coun. Jones—If Mr. Malaney works for the town he should be paid.

Mr. Malaney was heard and said he had been doing this work and the records would show his hand-writing for years back. He did it to oblige Mr. Hartley and was quite surprised at the motion to make him deputy clerk.

Coun. Jones—If it is in order he would suggest that Mr. Malaney get the salary paid Mr. Hartley when filling the position.

Coun. Dibblee—If Mr. Malaney acts pro tem council should not object. We pay the town clerk and if the Council is not satisfied with Mr. Hartley's services he should be notified. Don't think Council has any right to vote salary. It was up to Mr. Hartley to make arrangement.

Coun. Balmain—If this Council appoints Mr. Malaney, deputy clerk, we must pay him—we have no right to cut off Mr. Hartley's pay. If Mr. Malaney is willing to do the work and Mr. Hartley makes the arrangement he should provide the pay. If the Council appoints a deputy clerk the Council must pay him.

Coun. Lindsay—was sorry he was the innocent cause of all this discussion. He thought it only a graceful act to appoint Mr. Malaney. Often times we are without a clerk and it is very embarrassing. With the consent of the seconder he would withdraw his motion.

Coun. Gallagher—If Mr. Hartley wants Mr. Malaney to act he should pay him. He could see no harm in making the appointment—as seconder of the motion he agreed to withdraw.

Coun. Lindsay moved that the old revisors J. H. Stairs and Stephen Green be reappointed. Carried.

Coun. Jones presented a petition from C. Hanson asking for extension of water system to his house. Supt. Fields in reply to the question said the work would entail a cost of $1100. The petition was laid on the table.

Coun. Balmain moved that the Clerk be authorized to draft a bill to amend the bye-law in relation to liens on real estate and that taxes be first lien. Carried.

Coun. Dibblee spoke of the vaudeville put on by a moving picture house which he said was represented to him as being indecent. He thought it time for the authorities to take some action to stop such exhibitions. If allowed to continue where will it end?

Couns. Lindsay and Jones had seen nothing objectionable. If anyone finds fault a complaint should be made to proper authorities. Had often seen worse shows than that of Saturday night.

A discussion took place on the question of licenses for shows and resulted in a motion by Coun. Lindsay that picture houses pay $20, a month license—this is to apply to the Bijou. Carried.

The financial budget for the year was taken under consideration, and the amount, as compared to last year, to carry on the affairs of the town, is higher.

The Water and Light Department ask for $1000 more than last year—or $8,500 in all. The streets get $5,000 divided $3000 for permanent and $2000 ordinary. The fire department gets $300 more and police $200. The assessment ordered is $44,000. There is an increase in the estimated receipts.

Mrs. Lucy Ann Phillips

On Tuesday morning, February the 18th, there died at the residence of her son, Mr. George Edward Phillips, Victoria street, Mrs. Lucy Ann Phillips, aged 85 years.

Mrs. Phillips was born at Batley Carr, near Leeds, Yorkshire, England, on Nov. 28th, 1827. She came to New Brunswick to live with her son in October, 1904.

Mrs. Phillips was a woman of much culture and of exceptional refinement and nobility of character. She had an unusually well informed mind, having in her youth, had the advantage of attending some of the excellent old country schools. Her interest in foreign missions in the work for seamen, and the poor, was aroused in early life, and to the end, she prayed fervently and gave liberally to these and other worthy causes. She was connected through her ancestry with some of the courageous Moravian missionaries, and it was an unceasing source of delight to her to talk of the work of these, and of other Missionary heroes, many of whom she had heard speak and under whose personal influence she had been early brought. She also took a keen interest in legislation the aim of which was the social and moral uplift of the masses. She held decided and pronounced views, and these she expressed with invariable grace and facility. She was a woman naturally greatly beloved, being gentle and beautiful in her life, of unflinching courtesy, of great faith and patience. She rests from her labours and her works do follow her.

Mrs. Phillips was a Congregationalist by religious profession, but since coming to Woodstock she attended and supported the Presbyterian Church. She leaves her son, Mr. George E. Phillips—an only child—and two granddaughters, the Misses Lucy and Martha Phillips.

Interment will be in the town Cemetery on Thursday, at 2.30 p. m. Rev. Frank Baird officiating.

Miss Isabel Lindsay

Miss Isabel Lindsay of Lakeville died on Feb. 5th of paralysis, aged 81 years. She is survived by two sisters Mrs. I. S. Carvell and Mrs. A. B. Carvell, both of Lakeville, Carleton county. Miss Lindsay was born in Lindsay, a daughter of two of the pioneers of this county, the late Wm. Lindsay and Betsey Porter Lindsay.

Bruce Giberson

A very sad accident took place recently in the lumber woods near Plaster Rock, when Bruce Giberson lost his life by a falling tree. Death, however, was not instantaneous. The men who were working with him started as soon as possible for his home, some eighteen miles away, where they could get medical aid, but death came before they had been long on the journey. He leaves to mourn their loss a sorrowing widow and four little daughters, the eldest only eight years, besides a large circle of friends and relatives. The funeral services were held on Sunday and the attendance was the largest ever known in Plaster Rock. The services were under the direction of the Orange Lodge, of which Mr. Giberson was a member. The funeral sermon was preached by pastor C. S. Young in the United Baptist church. Rev. Mr. Burnett of Arthuret was present and took part in the ceremony.
