LARGE PINE.

A pumpkin Pine measuring three feet in diameter at the base and 62 feet tall containing approximately 11,600 feet of lumber was perfectly cut last winter near Canterbury Station, by Geo. A. Moir.

TRAVEL BY MCADAM ROUTE.

The C. P. R. has been issuing transportation between Fredericton and Woodstock today good via McAdam Junction at the same rates as charged via the Gibson branch. This order is for the period during which the conditions on the Gibson branch are improved. Considerable trouble has been experienced the past few days with the roadbed on the Gibson branch, causing several runoffs and delays. Commercial men and others coming from Woodstock today were able to purchase single fare tickets via McAdam at the lower rate.

Death Of Former Governor General

The Duke of Argyll, son-in-law of the late Queen Victoria, and former Governor-General of Canada, died on Saturday at East Cowes, aged 69.

John Douglas Sutherland Campbell was the ninth duke in the succession. In 1871 he married H. R. H. Princess Louise, forth daughter of Queen Victoria. It was as Governor-General of Canada, a post he held from 1878 to 1883, that he was best known to Canadians. He published in 1884 Memories of Canada and Scotland, and in 1885 Canadian Pictures, though undoubtedly the best known of his literary productions was the Life and Times of Queen Victoria, which appeared in 1901.

The successor to the title is Lord Archibald Campbell, a managing partner in the great banking house of Coutts & Company. He was born in 1864 and married Janey Sevilla, daughter of James Callander. Her mother was a famous beauty. The new duke was educated at Edinburgh Academy, Eton and Göttingen. Germany. He entered business life in 1884 and is the author of several works of family records and Celtic lore, notes on swords from the battlefield of Culloden and on Highland dress and armaments.
