

Boys' Extra Trouser Suits!

DO you know of a Boy who does not wear out at least two or three pairs of Trousers to one coat? We don't! An extra pair of Trousers to match the Coat is a—
Sp er did Investment!

It pays well in the end, to buy the extra Trousers for they make one Suit about equal to two Suits.

We have several of our best styles of Suits made with two pairs of Trousers. We will sell them to you either way. the result.

Suits 8 to 15 years, with Extra Trousers.

Try the Extra Trouser proposition for the Boy and you'll be highly pleased with

The JOHN McLAUHLAN Co., Ltd.,

The up-to-date Clothiers.

WOODSTOCK and HARTLAND

When YOU are in need of Printing
Try
The Dispatch Job Printing Dept.

First-Class Work
Prompt Delivery
Reasonable Rates

Re Club Rates THE DISPATCH

WITH	For New Subs.	For Renewals
" Weekly Witness	$1.25	$
" World Wide	1.50	1.85
" Northern Messenger	.95	1.00
" Canadian Pictorial	1.25	1.50

FLORENCEVILLE

Mrs. George Wheeler has returned from a visit to Grand Falls.

The Florenceville Consolidated School is closed on account of Scarlet Fever.

Miss Carrie Wilson is visiting relatives at Grand Falls.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Thompson has been gladdened by the arrival of a young daughter.

Misses Lillian Shaw and Jennie Chapman are home from Normal School until after Easter.

A Mother's Praise Of Baby's Own Tablets.

Mrs. Fred Tinkham, South Canaan, N. S., writes:—"Please send me another box of Baby's Own Tablets as I do not care to be without them. I have used them repeatedly and consider them the best medicine in the world for little ones." Thousands of other mothers say the same thing. The tablets cure all the minor ills of childhood such as constipation, sour stomach, colic, colds, simple fevers, etc., and are guaranteed to be absolutely safe. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Mrs Charles Tilley

Mrs. Mary Amelia Tilley, aged 75 years, widow of the late Charles Tilley, and formerly of Woodstock, passed away Friday night at the residence of her son in law, Mr. Charles K. Palmer. The deceased, who had been living in this city for the past few years, had only been ill with pneumonia a few days. One son, J. Frank Tilley, of Montreal, and three daughters, Mrs. George F. Burpee, of Avondale, Carleton county, Mrs. Charles K. Palmer and Mrs. J. T. Brewer of this city, survive. A short service was conducted at the residence of Mr. Palmer on Sunday evening at 8.30 o'clock by Rev. Neil McLaughlan. The remains were taken to Woodstock on Monday morning for interment.

—Gleaner.

Mrs. W. C. H. Hazen.

An old and very much respected resident of Upper Woodstock passed away on Thursday evening last, after a long and trying illness, in the person of Mrs. W. C. H. Hazen. Mrs. Hazen came to Woodstock many years ago, at the time the Iron Works were first started, from England, before her marriage she having been a Miss Coutts. She was pre-deceased by her husband some five or six years. One daughter, Annie, survives. Mrs. Hazen had a large circle of friends and acquaintances and was held in high esteem by all who knew her. She was a devout member of the Anglican church. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon at St. Lukes Church, and burial was at the Parish church cemetery. Service was conducted by the Rev. A. S. Hazel. Among those from a distance who attended the funeral were J. Davidson Grimmer, of St. Andrews, and Frank Nevers Houlton, relatives.

Miss Delia Dibblee

Miss Delia Dibblee died at her home on the River road, Woodstock, on Saturday last. She had been an invalid for over a quarter of a century and at the time of her death was within a few weeks of being eighty-five years of age. She was the eldest daughter of the late Harry Dibblee for a long time Collector of Customs at Woodstock. Although living a retired life Miss Dibblee was well known by many people who admired her for her gentle character and wonderful patience in suffering. C. E. K. Dibblee, of Woodstock and Edmond, of New York, are brothers and Mrs. F. Byron Bull and Miss Fanny Dibblee, sisters. The funeral was on Monday at the Parish church, service being conducted by the Rev. A. S. Hazel. Attending the funeral were the three nephews of the deceased, Harry, M. Lebaron and Irvine Dibblee.

Mr. Amos Bulmer.

Mr. Amos Bulmer, who has been employed by Mr. A. J. Hayden for a quarter of a century, died Friday night, aged 65 years. He is survived by a wife, four daughters and two sons, Mrs. Ernest Robinson, Misses Ida, Cassie and Beatrice at home; Frank, of Portland, Me., and Alfred at home, also five sisters, Mrs. Alfred Murphy, of South Newbridge, Mrs. James Brooks, of River Bank; Mrs. A. C. Miso, of Caustigan, Me., Mrs. Charles Brawn, Milford, Me., Mrs. W. M. Berriman, Renham, Mass., and four brothers, George, of Andover, Lawson, of South Newbridge, Bamford, of Southampton and William, of Sackville. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, service was conducted by Ensign Miller, of the Salvation Army. The pall bearers were Messrs Godfrey Worth, Horatio Atherton, Will Bragdon, John Smith. Interment was in the Methodist cemetery.

John C. Arnold.

John C. Arnold died suddenly on Wednesday evening of pneumonia, at his residence on Richmond Street, in his 70th year. He leaves to mourn their loss a sorrowing wife, two daughters, Mrs. Fred Short of Brown's Flat, N. B., and Mrs. Elmer King of this town, one son, Guy, of Woodstock, one brother, Horatio Arnold of St. Stephen, one sister, Mrs. John Hornbrook of St. John, as well as a large number of relatives and friends. Mr. Arnold was a blacksmith by trade and had followed this occupation here for a number of years. He was always a very active man and only took sick the Saturday previous. All was done for him that could be and no anxiety was felt until on Monday when the dread disease developed and he gradually grew worse until the end. Mr. Arnold was a man of genial disposition and will be much missed by all who knew him. The funeral service was held on Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. H. C. Archer. The following selections were rendered, "Crossing the Bar" and "Son of My Soul." The pall bearers were B. M. Colpitts, F. M. Boyd, F. W. Nevers, F. L. Mooers, Chas. Mutch and Samuel Coulthard.

B Harrison Thomas

News was received in St. John on Friday morning of the death of B. Harrison Thomas, only son of Rev. Byron H. and Mrs. Thomas of Dorchester, N. B., after an illness of one year and six months resulting from tuberculosis developed from an injury received to his left arm.

Deceased was born at Jacksonville, N. B., on November 9, 1892; and was a young man of exemplary habits, winning friends and general favor wherever he was known. Until July last he was in the employ of the Royal Bank of Canada and was serving as paying teller at the North End branch St. John, when he was granted sick leave, his resignation being sent in last November.

Complications of the dread disease set in two months ago which hastened the end. Besides his parents the young man is survived by two sisters, Miss Muriel M., of the teaching staff of Feller Institute, Grand Ligne, Quebec, and Miss Myrtle M. at home.

F. L. Harrison, of St. John, is an uncle. Widespread sympathy for the family will be expressed in their bereavement.

Mr W L Price

CANTERBURY, April 6. — The death of Mr. William L. Price at the age of 88 years, took place at his son's residence, Northampton, Saturday. The funeral took place from the residence of his eldest son, Mr. John A. Price, postmaster at Canterbury, today and was largely attended. He is survived by four sons and two daughters. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. A. Barton at the Baptist Church. The pall bearers were Messrs. Amos Estey, K. H. Scott, E. Hillman and George English.

James Aird

The death took place at the Public Hospital, Winnipeg, Man., on March 27th, of James Aird, oldest son of Robert and Alice Aird, of Beaufort, Car. Co, N. B..

The relatives and many friends of James Aird heard with regret the announcement of his death from pneumonia, following measles. James left for the west about two years ago and was a popular man of 21 years of age. His parents and relatives have the sympathy of the whole community.

Enoch Burpee

Enoch Burpee, a popular young Jacksonville man, died at his home, Thursday morning, of tuberculosis, aged 33 years. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Burpee and besides his parents he leaves three brothers and three sisters. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon.

JACKSONVILLE

March 30th., 1914.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Margieson spent the week end recently at Knoxford.

The Circle of the Jacksontown Baptist Church held a most successful sale and tea at the home of Mrs. Fred Burpee. A good sum was realised and a happy social time was spent by all who had the pleasure of being present.

Mrs. Wilmot Burtt spent several days in Hartland recently with friends.

Rev. and Mrs. Ayers with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Plummer were guests, last week to supper, with Mr. and Mrs. Wm Hamilton.

News has reached the many friends of Mrs. Jonathan Harding, telling of her meeting with an accident by falling on the ice, which resulted in her death.

The deceased has made her home for some time in Haverhill, Mass., near her daughters who all reside there. The bereaved have the sympathy of their many old friends here.

Mrs. Bert Gardiner, of Woodstock, accompanied by Master Jack has been the guest, for a week, of her sister, Mrs. Charles Margieson of this place.

Mrs. Baird, of Andover, was the week end guest of her sister, Mrs. John Emery.

Mrs. Perry, of Houlton, spent several days last week with her sister, Mrs. Nelson Turney.

Rev. Charles Stebbings, of Lindsay, passed through here en route to Hartland last Monday, where he attended the evangelistic services being held by Rev. Mr. Gouthey. Mr. Stebbings is a young man of sterling qualities and is working earnestly on his circuit to present the Gospel to his people in a manner which must strike conviction to many hearts.

Rev. Mr. Seely of the United Baptist Church of this place, is preaching, with power and impressing his hearers with the need of conservation and fixed purpose in the Christian life.

Rev. Mr. Ayers has been presenting sermons of exhortation and warning, withal so full of the love of God, that all who hear him, realize that he has, with his brother ministers in this vicinity, a passion for souls. The responsibility of those who are thus ministered to is certainly very much increased.

The debating Club is keeping up its enthusiasm and is rendering a real social benefit to the community. The club at Jacksontown and Waterville interchanged visits and had most interesting discussions on City versus Country; Rum versus War. The arguments were strongly put and the facts given evidenced a research and study of the subjects in hand. Country life was decided upon as the best in the former debate and War was declared the most destructive in the latter controversy.

WILLIAMSTOWN

March 28th., 1914

We have had very fine weather all this week, the roads are getting very soft, and in some spots bare.

There is an epidemic around here resembling Dysentery, it attacks old as well as young, is very severe but only lasts a few days, in most cases.

Hauling potatoes to Peel and Hartland is done, on account of bad roads.

Deputy sheriff Armstrong bought a lot of fresh pork here last week.

The Florenceville jews are still buying beef cattle around here.

James Page, Pioneer, is in failing health. Dr. White in attendance.

John King, Lakeville, is also sick, with little or no hopes of recovery.

Mrs. Howells Corbett, Lakeville, was the guest of Mrs. Wm. Page, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perkins, Charlerton, spent Sunday at John A. Porter's. Miss Sarah Jameson is visiting at Lakeville this week.

Mrs. R. D. Smith, Pioneer, spent one afternoon this week at her father's, Andrew Jameson.

Miss Taylor, of Pennsylvania, is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Pickard, Keswick, has returned home after spending the winter at her cousin's, John A. Watters.

Miss Lena Smith, was visiting her sister, Mrs. Slipp, Bridgewater, part of this week.

Isaac Nelson, Pioneer, is celebrating his 70th birthday to-day.

Report says Harry Corey will move to Centreville next week.

Mrs. Emily McWaid is visiting relatives at Fort Fairfield.

Mrs. Eldon Watters and children were guests of Mrs. J. A. Porter one day this week, Mrs. A. Jameson was also a caller there the same day.

LATE MISS PAISLEY.

The remains of the late Miss Jane Paisley arrived here Friday evening by C. P. R. and the funeral took place Saturday morning with service at the Methodist church by Rev. Neil McLaughlan. Interment was made at the Rural cemetery.

—Gleaner

"YORK and KENT Timothy and number 111 long late Clover are the highest standards, branded, according to Government test. See that you get them."