I O O F Annual Roll Call and Banquet

A large number of members of Carleton Lodge, I. O. O. F., attended the annual roll call and banquet which was held in Odd Fellows Hall on Monday evening. A fine program of music and readings was enjoyed during the evening and at the close a splendid supper was served by members of Rebekah Lodge.

The Odd Fellows is one of the largest orders in the world and a very popular order. Addresses were made by Mrs. C. A. Lindow, of St. Stephen, president of the Rebekah Assembly, of the Maritime provinces, Rev. A. W. Fields, Grand Chaplain, Rev. Frank Baird, W. B. Belyea, and A. G. Bailey. Vocal solos were finely rendered by Mrs. Leslie Watters, Miss Nellie Montgomery and Harry Dunbar, and a piano solo by Miss Elva Vanwart. A quartette composed of Mrs. C. Watson, Mrs. Watters, Dr. R. Currie and Mr. Clyde Watson sang most acceptably. Readings by Miss Sarah Morrison, and R. L. Allingham were much enjoyed. Ogilvie's orchestra furnished delightful music during the evening.

A vote of thanks was tendered the Grand President, Grand Chaplain, and other members who were present and who assisted in the evening entertainment. A vote of thanks was also tendered the orchestra. H. D. Stevens was chairman for the evening. The accompanists were Misses VanWart, Montgomery, and Mr. Roy Mroers.

Among the out of town members present were Dr. Dickinson, Mr. Scott and Mr. Wright, Andover; H. D. Thompson, Florenceville; Rev. A. W. Fields, Andover; C. D. Stevens, Centreville.

Frederick William White

On Sunday, March 8, the death occurred of Frederick Wm. White fourth son of G. L. White, Esq., M. L. A., and Mrs. White. The deceased, who was in his seventeenth year, was a great favorite with all who knew him.

The funeral, which was one of the largest ever witnessed in Centreville, took place Tuesday morning at 10.30. Practically the whole population of the place attended. The rector of Wilmot read the burial service, and the choir of the parish church of St. James sang, 'Peace, Perfect Peace,' 'Tender Shepherd, Thou Has Stilled,' and 'Vinc Dimittis.' The pall bearers were John Scholey, Roland O'Hara, Douglas Downie and Frank McKenzie. Interment took place in St. James churchyard.

John Mavor

Alderman-elect John Mavor, of Fredericton, met a tragic death, Monday night, March 9, from a fall of a few feet. It is supposed that he was the victim of a sudden attack of heart failure, as the late Mr. Mavor was confined to his home a short time ago for a week or so, and at that time it was feared that he was suffering from heart trouble. His son, James Mavor, who was engaged with the Cook Construction Company at Halifax, came on to his home here on account of his father's illness. His death came as a great shock to his many friends.

The late Mr. Mavor, who was 55 years old, was one of the party of Scotch people who came to New Brunswick 41 years ago and settled at what is known as Kincardine, in Victoria county. He was a son of Mr. John Mavor, and was a member of a large family. Thirty years ago he removed to Fredericton and with his brothers has engaged in railway construction work in this province and in the State of Maine, having held sub-contracts under Mr. A. E. Trites and other well-known contractors on the Bangor & Aroostook, the Gibson and Minto, the St. John Valley and other railways. He was elected an Alderman for Carleton Ward by acclamation this year and would have been sworn in on Thursday.

Besides his widow he is survived by three sons, Mr. J. Stewart Mavor, barrister, of Bassano, Alta., Mr. Jas. Mavor, who lately returned from Halifax, where he has been engaged with the Cook Construction Company on the terminal works, and Master Leslie, at home, and one daughter, Miss Olga, at home. Mr. Alex. Mavor, engaged with Baird & Howie on I. C. R. construction work at Penniac, Mr. George Mavor, Clear View, Car. Co., Mr. Jas. Mavor and Mr. Leslie Mavor, of Mavor Bros. contractors, Woodstock, are brothers of the deceased, and three sisters also survive.

The funeral of the late Ald. Mavor took place Wednesday afternoon from his late residence on Needham street and was largely attended, the new City Council being present in a body. Rev. Dr. W. H. Smith conducted the services at the house and members of St. Paul's Presbyterian church choir sang the hymns Nearer My God to Thee and A Few More Years to Roll. Interment was made at the Rural cemetery.

The mourners were: James Mavor, Leslie Mavor, George Mavor, James Mavor, sr., Leslie Mavor, sr., Alex. Mavor, George Barclay and James Duncan. The four brothers acted as pall bearers.

The floral tributes included:

- Wreath—The family.

There was an Angle Band in Heaven,
That was not quite complete
God took our darling Lloyd
To fill the vacant seat.

Rev. Kenneth McKay.

Rev. Kenneth McKay, first pastor of the Presbyterian church in Houlton, and its pastor for nearly a quarter of a century, died at his home in Houlton, on Sunday, aged 78 years. Mr. McKay was born in Pictou, N. S., and after graduating from Princeton Theological School, went to Richmond, N. B., where he was pastor of the Presbyterian church until going to Houlton in 1888. He is survived by a widow, three daughters, Mrs. S. H. Hanson, of Houlton; Mrs. J. D. Walker, of Millinocket; and Miss Helen, at home; and four sons Dr. George, of Millinocket; Kenneth of Boston; Murdock and John of Houlton. CENTREVILLE

The farmers in this section are getting in some busy hours just now shipping their farm produce. The price of potatoes is still one dollar per barrel and the "million barrels" that were to be "thrown over the dump" as spoken of by the prophet last fall will dwindle to a very small proportion of that amount.

Fred, the invalid son of G. L. White, died on the eighth of this month. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Rigby.

Mrs. Thomas Orhard has been under medical treatment for the past two weeks and is slowly improving.

Eliphalet Jones, of Knoxford, has been sick for some time. His advanced age proving an obstacle to speedy recovery.

A number of cases of scarlet fever have been reported. Medical attendants cannot exercise too much care in such cases in preventing the spread of the disease.

Frank Sloat has been under medical treatment for some time past with slight improvement in his condition.

The heavy crust on the snow gives the young folks a fine chance for amusement.

The Assessors are again making up their lists for correction. Now is the opportunity for the man who thinks his assessment is too low.

Beef is scarce and prices still on the Aroplane pork a thing of the past and future.
