KIRKLAND

May 21st.

We are having very warm weather at present with not much rain, the farmers are busy planting their potatoes and sowing the grain.

Thomas Scott has purchased a motor cycle.

John Murphy made a business trip to this place recently.

Several of the people have purchased mail boxes as the post office has been taken out.

Mrs. D. Dykeman and daughter Ada called on friends in Monument Settlement recently.

C. R. Watson of Woodstock, passed through this place recently.

Wilmer Bunting and Andrew Bustard Jr. have returned home from the Drive.

TEETHING BABIES.

Teething time is usually a time of worry to mothers. It is usually accompanied by nervousness, stomach trouble and extreme fretfulness. The mother can avoid all this; she can have her baby pass through the dangerous teething time without pain or crossness. Baby's Own Tablets are the mother's greatest friend at this time. They sweeten the stomach, regulate the bowels, allay feverishness which usually accompanies the coming of new teeth, and in this way make teething easy. The tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Samuel Burpee of Edmundston Dead.

One of the Best Known Men in Northern New Brunswick.

Edmundston, May 22.—Samuel Burpee died here at two o'clock yesterday afternoon, the 21st instant. He suffered from an attack of pneumonia in February last, and never fully recovered his health.

Mr. Burpee was the oldest resident of Edmundston, being in his eighty-fifth year. He was born at Sheffield, Sunbury County, November 13th, A. D. 1829, and was a son of the late Samuel Burpee, Sr., of the same place. He was the youngest of a family. He came to Edmundston in the fall of 1876, when the New Brunswick railway was built to this place and was station agent here from that time till 1899, when he retired. He is survived by his widow, who is a daughter of the late William Mitchell of Keswick Ridge, to whom he was married November 15th, 1854; also two sons, Charles W. Burpee, now of Medicine Hat, Alberta, formerly Superintendent of the C. P. R. at Brownville, Me., and Samuel E. Burpee, of this place, and four daughters, Mrs. P. K. Holmes, of Sangerville, Me., T. C. Burpee, of Fredericton, Mrs. Aaron Lawson and Mrs. Frank K. Murchie, of Edmundston. There are also nine grand children and four great grandchildren. The late Mr. Burpee was well known in the northern part of New Brunswick, especially among railroad men and was highly respected by all. He was at one time a member of York County Council. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and a lifelong Liberal. He was a man of fine physique and enjoyed his health and strength until his recent illness. The funeral will take place here on Sunday afternoon next.

Donald W. Foster.

At 3.30 on Tuesday morning, May 12th., the death occurred of Donald W. Foster, of Middle Simonds, after ten days illness of pneumonia, aged 35 years.

Mr. Foster was the youngest son of the late George Foster, for years deputy sheriff in this county. He is survived by his wife, one brother, Albion R. Foster, of Simonds, C. P. R. detective; five sisters Mrs. Webster Ross, of Vancouver; Mrs. Harry Perkins, of New Bedford, (Mass.); Misses Edna, Bessie and Emma, of New Bedford. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon at the residence. Rev. P. A. Fitzpatrick conducting the service and preaching a sermon. At the grave, Rev. N. Franchette read the burial service of the Knights of Pythias, and a large delegation of brethren attended the funeral.

On Annual Visit to Rebekah Lodges.

Mrs. Olive E. Lindow, of St. Stephen president of the Rebekah Assembly of Odd Fellows, of the Maritime Provinces and Newfoundland, visited Saphire Rebekah Lodge, North End, on Thursday evening, accompanied by the deputy grand master, and past grand president Harriet Smith. The president and suite were received with the honors of the order, after which Mrs. Lindow was presented with a bouquet of roses and carnations by the members of the lodge. She thanked the members for their kindness and good will towards herself.

Mrs. Lindow is a very fluent speaker, and her address last evening was a masterly one. She told of the benefits of Rebekah branch of the order, and the good they are doing. She described the many Odd Fellows' homes she had visited in the United States, where children and women were taken care of, also of other institutions of the order for those who could not take care of themselves through adversity. She also spoke of the large increase in the membership of the Rebekah branch during the past year.

Mrs. Lindow is now on her annual visit to the different Rebekah lodges. She will visit Sussex lodge this evening and then proceed to Nova Scotia. Before her return, Mrs. Lindow will go to Newfoundland, where she will visit the lodges at Grand Falls and other points.

After the lodge closed last night, refreshments were served by the members of the lodge.

Presentation to Bessie Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Phillips entertained the members of class No. 8. and a few friends last Thursday evening, the event taking the form of a surprise party for Miss Bessie Watson, who left on the 19th inst. with her mother for St. John. After a social evening was spent, Mr. B. M. Colpitts, teacher of the class, read the following address, in the course of which he presented Miss Watson with a very nice bible and parasol, to which she made a very fitting reply:

Dear Miss Watson,—

It is with mingled feelings of pleasure and sadness we greet you tonight, for on learning of your intended departure for St. John we would have felt as though we had slighted you by not taking some measure of showing our appreciation of you by this surprise and also by this parasol and bible. We will miss you much in church for your testimony was always forthcoming and you have really become one of the stand-bys. One who was always in your place. We as a class, both teacher and scholars, will miss you even more, for you were always ready with a question and answer given in your own original way which we have all appreciated so much. In going to your new home we know you will find friends but hope your mind will often wander back to the old ones with fond remembrances. Wishing you all good things possible along with a heart full of love to your Redeemer and realizing continually there is power in the blood to save, sanctify and keep.

Yours in behalf of the class and friends:

B. M. Colpitts, Mrs. Sam Coulthard, Mrs. Guy Arnold, Mrs. J. E. Jewett, Mrs. Arthur Everett Mrs. C. P. Phillips, Mrs. Stanley Hallet Mrs. Frank Watson, Mrs. Fred Boyd, Mrs. George True, Mrs. Harley Watson, Miss Maud Bryden, Mrs. Ella Boyd, Miss Lottie Allingham, Miss Annie Morgan, Miss Clara Scott, Miss Luella Colpitts, Miss Vie Cummings, Miss Ethel Shea. Reformed Baptist S. S. Woodstock.

CENTREVILLE

The evidences of a backward spring are gone the farmers are making rapid strides in the way of cropping.

Large quantities of potatoes have already been planted and the sowing of grain is well advanced.

Miss Winnifred Keirstead, of Hartland, is visiting friends in Centreville.

Miss Deware, of Waterville, is also visiting in the village.

D. W. Perkins, is at work rebuilding his barn and will have an up-to-date barn when finished.

George J. Burt has moved into the house formerly occupied by F. D. Tweedie.

The great outcry against the Auto is growing less as the numbers increase. They are becoming so common now that little head is paid to them.

The whole community are mourning to-day the unexpected death of Rev. Jos. Cahill in the hospital in Portland, Me. None of his many friends here had the remotest idea that his case was so serious when he went away, in fact every one expected him to return in the near future. So much improved physically that he would be fitted for years for service in the cause he loved so well. He was fearless in his denunciation of wrong from the Pulpit; and Christian Ministers of all denominations express their profound regret at the sudden taking away of one so eminently fitted for the cause of Christianity. His life companion predeceased him but a few weeks and he will be laid by her side in the Baptist cemetery in Centreville.

UNION CORNER

The weather has been cold but the farmers have been more than busy and a lot of seeding has been done.

The roads are good this spring the best for many a year.

The Rev. Thomas McDonald held service here in the Baptist church last Sunday both morning and evening.

Tymothy Meyher has sold his farm and moved his family to Houlton Me.

Beacher Daw met with a painful accident the other evening. His horse became frightened and threw him out of the carriage dislocating his shoulder. He is being cared for at the home of his sister Mrs. Edmond Dickinson.

Mrs. John Jackson, whose death took place at the home of her son George at Woodstock, was buried here in the Baptist cemetery on Friday.

Harold and Fred Barton, who have been working in the oil fields of Mexico for over a year and for whose safety their parents were very anxious, arrived home last week and were calling on their many friends.

Southam--White

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. White, Hartland, was the scene of a quiet home wedding; on Wednesday, April 29th, at high noon, when their youngest daughter, Anna B., was united in marriage to Walter J. Southam of Wicklow N. B. by Rev. C. H. Orser of Mars Hill, Maine. The bride, who was unattended, was very becomingly gowned in pale blue charmeuse, and carried bride's roses. Her travelling suit was of golden brown crepe meteor with hat to match. The happy couple left on the 1.30 p. m. express for their future home in Wicklow, N. B. The bride was the recipient of many useful and valuable gifts from friends in Boston, Lowell, St. John, Wicklow and Hartland.

John Ferguson.

The death occurred at Woodstock, Thursday morning after a long illness from asthma and heart trouble, of Mr. John Ferguson, for many years a resident of Fredericton.

Deceased, who was born at Lakeville Corner, Sunbury County, and was 72 years old, was formerly a well-known lumberman and after leaving Sunbury County was in charge of lumbering operations on the Tobique river for the firm of Simmons & Burpee for a number of years. He later was the caretaker of the I. C. R. bridge here.

Since last fall Mr. Ferguson had been so seriously ill that he was confined to his bed, but in March he rallied sufficiently to permit his being moved to Woodstock, where he went to live with his daughter, Mrs. Harry Currie. Towards the end he suffered much pain, but, while his death was not unexpected, it came as a shock to his many friends here.

Besides his widow, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Currie and Mrs. Murray H. Bailey, both of Woodstock, and one son, Mr. Geo. H. Ferguson, western representative of the Hartt Boot & Shoe Company, with headquarters at Vancouver, B. C. Mrs. William Uptam, of Philadelphia, Pa. is a sister.
