You Never Call The Doctor Unless You Need Him

You listen with grave attention to every word he says. BUT THEN—what do you do with that vitally important thing—the prescription he leaves?

Do you use the same care in choosing the druggist to fill it that you do in choosing the doctor who writes it? And shouldn't you? Doesn't the success of the doctor's treatment depend more than anything else on the exactness and care with which his prescription is filled, and the freshness, strength and purity of its ingredients? We also claim that nowhere else near here can you get your prescription filled with more exact skill and care—the same exact precision—as in our prescription department. People who have us fill their prescriptions will tell you that our claims are based on facts. And these facts are becoming more widely known daily, as is evidenced by our constantly increasing prescription business.

BORN

LENEHAN—At Dr. Prescott's Hospital, March 14th., to the wife of John Lenehan, a son.

Death of Mrs. Catherine Craig

The news of the death of Mrs. Catherine Craig, widow of the late Moses Craig, which occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John McNair, of Wapske, came as a great shock to her many friends here on Monday morning. Although having suffered from a severe illness last summer, it was thought that she had completely recovered. She was spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. McNair, and seemed in her usual good health till Sunday afternoon, when she complained of a distress in her stomach. Mrs. McNair went to her room several times during the night to see how she was resting. About 2.00 o'clock she went and asked her mother how she was and on being told that the pain was still there, Mrs. McNair said she would build on a fire and heat water. She went to her room but returned to her mother in a minute, to find that life was extinct. Her granddaughter, Miss Edyth McNair, was rooming with her at the time. Mrs. Craig leaves to mourn the loss of a loving mother, Mrs. John McNair, Mrs. William Appleby, Mrs. E. W. Larlee, Mrs. S. Lovely, Mrs. William Anderson and Franklin, Edward, Harry, Tom and Barney of Woodstock, besides a large number of grandchildren and other relatives and friends. Her age was 73 years. The remains were brought to Perth to her late home Tuesday, on the afternoon train. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon at the old United Baptist church. The family have the sympathy of a large number of friends in their hour of sorrow. In the death of Mrs. Craig, Perth loses one who was always ready to lend a helping hand to anyone in sickness or trouble, and her loss will be keenly felt. —Fort Fairfield Review

A Pictorial Treat

The "Canadian Pictorial" for March is, as usual, overflowing with fine half-tone copper engravings illustrating leading events and personalities in all parts of the world.

One of the features comprises photographs of a house which was built in twenty-four hours at Hamilton, Ontario. The house is a pretty substantial one of two stories and nine rooms, and about four hundred workmen were engaged on its construction.

Two pages of photographs deal with the private museum of Mr. David Ross McCord, of Montreal, which has led to a considerable discussion of late. Mr. McCord, whose collection is extremely valuable, is anxious that it should form a nucleus of a Canadian National Museum, and offered it on certain terms to McGill University, which, however, has not been able to accept it under the precise conditions which Mr. McCord lays down.

The latest news in the United States, Great Britain, India, South Africa, and other places is pictorially described in the March number which is, if anything, in advance of the customary excellence of the "Pictorial," and that is saying a great deal.

Order a copy (ten cents) from local newsdealers or send direct to the publishers. The subscription rate is One Dollar a year. The Pictorial Publishing Co., "Witness" Block, Montreal.
