ADVENT SERVICES

Advent Christian Church, Rev. Charles F. King, pastor. Preaching at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. Morning Subject: "The Elijah Spirit." Evening Subject: "Found Out." Prayer service at 10 o'clock and Sunday School at noon.

The services in the Methodist church on Sunday next will be missionary in their character, and the sermons, morning and evening, will be preached by Rev. George Steele, superintendent of missions for Maritime Provinces.

SUCCESSFUL CONCERT.

The concert given by the Sunday School children of the Catholic church in St. Gertrude's Hall, on Monday evening, January 5th., was a most successful affair, and reflected great credit on the Misses Ella Gallagher and Annie Riordan, who had charge of the literary part of it and the drills, as well as Miss Margaret Hughes who supervised the musical program. There was a large attendance and the children acquitted themselves in a highly creditable manner. The pastor, Rev. F. J. McMurray, ably assisted in making it such an enjoyable function. The net receipts were $65.

Robert Newton, B. S. A., at present Chief Assistant Cerealist at Ottawa, has accepted the principalship of the new Agricultural School at Woodstock. Mr. Newton is a graduate of the Macdonald Agricultural College, graduating with class '12. For a time he did District Representative work in Quebec, later going to Ottawa as chief Assistant to the Dom. Cerealists. Mr. Newton is a young man who made an excellent showing in class mark while at college and should be most successful in this new position.

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. W. B. Nicholson on Tuesday. The reports showed the society in a healthy and prosperous condition. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Frank Baird; 1st Vice, Miss Emma Henderson; 2nd Vice, Mrs. Donald Monro; Secretary Treasurer, Mrs. H. V. Dalling. At the close of the business meeting, a delicious lunch was served.

Mrs. A. D. Holyoke entertained at the tea hour on Thursday afternoon, Mrs. Holyoke received in a beautiful, gown of nell rose satin with tunic of white net embroidered with crystal, and was assisted by Miss Valerie Steeves who was gowned in yellow satin trimmed with brown marabout. Mrs. J. S. Creighton and Mrs. George E. Balmain presided in the dining room, and were assisted by Mrs. E. W. Mair and Miss Cassie Hay and Miss Alice Neill.

Mrs. Allison B. Connell was hostess at a very enjoyable auction bridge on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Connell received her guests in a gown of pale grey and white striped cloth with touches of white lace. The decorations in the drawing room and library were palms, ferns and scarlet geraniums. Mrs. Arthur G. Bailey, Mrs. Walter E. Stone and Mrs. Ketchum won the prizes. There were eight tables. Mrs. Connell was assisted by Misses Mary D. Clarke, Gussie Connell, Maude Smith and Gretchen Smith.

Mrs. A. D. Holyoke was hostess at a most enjoyable Auction bridge on Friday afternoon, followed by a dance in the evening given in honor of her guest Miss Valerie Steeves, of Fredericton. The house was beautifully decorated with greenery, palms, ferns and pink white and crimson carnations, and crimson roses. Mrs. Holyoke received her guests in a dainty white gown with corsage bow of mahogany red. She was assisted by Miss Valerie Steeves who wore a lovely gown of pale blue satin, with tunic of blue ninon trimmed with gold fringe. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. George E. Balmain, Mrs. B. Harry Smith, Mrs. William Balmain, Mrs. J. S. Creighton, Mrs. George W. Gibson, Mrs. E. W. Mair and Miss Valerie Steeves. The pretty prizes were won by Mrs. J. Norman Loane and Miss Mable Lister.

Week of Prayer

The union services in which the evangelical churches of the town observed the Week of Prayer had an auspicious beginning on Monday evening, in the Advent Christian Church. The attendance was one of the largest seen at a Week of Prayer service in years. Rev. Charles F. King presided and a stirring address on "Personal Evangelism" was given by the Rev. Mr. Mac-Luckie of Florenceville. The speaker in terse and eloquent phrase set forth personal piety, courage and zeal as the cardinal qualifications in the successful winner of souls.

The service on Tuesday evening was in the United Baptist Church. In the absence of a pastor, Rev. H. C. Archer had charge of the meeting. The address of the evening was given by the Rev. William Penna of the Methodist Church. His theme, "The Promise of the Father," had to do with the influence and authority of the Holy Spirit. It was an earnest, practical and helpful address.

The service on Wednesday evening in the Methodist Church was up to the two preceding ones in attendance. A fine spirit of fellowship and harmony prevailed. Pastor Wm. Penna was the leader and the Rev. Frank Baird gave a studied and well balanced address on "The Church."

The meeting Thursday evening was in the Presbyterian Church. Rev. H. C. Archer spoke on "Christian Co-operation."

On Friday evening the service was held in the Reformed Baptist Church, Rev. Charles F. King gave the address Subject: "The Place and Power of Prayer."

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. conducted prayer services each afternoon in the vestry of the Advent Christian Church.

There was a general exchange of pulpits among the pastors Sunday evening. Churches and Preachers as follows:

Advent Christian—Rev. H. C. Archer.
Methodist—Rev. Charles F. King.
Presbyterian—Rev. H. G. Kennedy.
Reformed Baptist—Rev. Wm. Penna
