Baby's Own Tablets Used For Years.

When a mother uses only one medicine as long as there are little ones in the home it certainly bears grand testimony to the value of that particular remedy. Thousands of mothers use nothing else but Baby's Own Tablets. Concerning them Mrs. M. LeBlanc, Memramcook West, N. B., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for my little ones for the past ten years and know of nothing to equal them during teething time or for colic, constipation and indigestion. All my neighbors, who have used them, think as I do." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Basket Sale and Social

An enjoyable Basket Sale and Social Evening was carried to a successful issue at the Bull Creek School on Wednesday, the 11th., inst., the school-room being crowded for the occasion.

On behalf of the school teachers, Mr. J. H. Stockton explained that the proceeds of the Sale were to be devoted to the purchase of a few chemical instruments for demonstration purposes, as well as for other necessary school requirements, for which there were no funds in hand and he invited a hearty response to the appeal.

Mr. James Stevenson undertook the duties of Auctioneer and was eminently successful in his efforts. Spirited bidding was the rule and good prices were obtained for all the many dainty and elegant baskets that were offered. The handsome sum of $40 was realized from the total sales, which exceeded all expectations.

At the close of the sale an enjoyable hour was spent in disposing of the toothsome contents of the baskets and to listening to the various musical selections which were rendered.

Mrs. Wilson, the school mistress, has expressed her gratification with the successful termination of the affair and she certainly is to be congratulated on the possession of so many friends, who, by their presence at the function and their practical sympathy, have generously placed her in a position to provide for and carry out her desire to improve and create a larger interest in the work of the school.

The Ambulance

An ambulance for the town and country has long been deemed a necessity, especially since the establishing of Hospitals and the consequent more frequent moving of invalids. This necessity has now been met by the purchase of a very fine ambulance, at a cost of between eight and nine hundred dollars. Of this amount $300, was contributed by the Municipality of Carleton; $100, by the Municipality of Victoria; $200 by the Woodstock Town Council; and upwards of $200 by the young ladies, who manipulated the tags in town a few weeks ago.

The Ambulance was received here Tuesday; and is to be kept, for the present, at the stables of Gallagher Bros. on Emerald street. It is held in trust and under the control and management of the "Woodstock Ambulance Association." This Association is composed of members by each of the churches of the Town appointing one, the Mayor of the Town, the Warden of the Municipality of Carleton, and the Warden of the Municipality of Victoria.

The following rates are to be charged paid by persons who use the Ambulance:—to or from any Hospital in the Town; or from any place to other place in the Town—$1.50; to or from any part of the Town to Grafton or Upper Woodstock, or any similar distance $2.00; longer distances in proportion. These rates include the team, which will be furnished by Gallagher Bros., who are authorized to collect the rates. The Officers of the Association are—J. Albert Hayden, President; James W. Gallagher, Treasurer; Geo. L. Holyoke, Secretary.

For the progress of this good work thus far much credit is due to the several clergymen of the Town.

George L. Holyoke, Secretary.

Mrs Emma C Harding Dies In Haverhill Mass

Mrs. Emma C. Harding, widow of Jonathan Harding, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank E. Beckman, 240 Groveland street yesterday morning, March 17th, aged 77 years 4 months and 14 days.

Mrs. Harding was born and lived the greater part of her life in Jacksonsville, New Brunswick. Eight years ago she came to this city to reside with her daughter. She was well and favorably known in Riverside and was a member of the Ladies Guild of the Memorial church. About eight weeks ago she fell on the icy sidewalk near her home, broke her wrist and fractured her hip. While a serious heart trouble was the immediate cause of her death, she had never recovered from her fall.

The funeral was held from the home of her daughter, yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. The Rev. Arthur G. Lyon, pastor of the Riverside Memorial church conducted the service. He spoke of Mrs. Harding's exemplary life and the high esteem in which she was held in the community. Mrs. E. G. Sawyer and Walter Littlefield sang two duets: "Jesus Lover of My Soul," and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." The Rev. A. G. Lyon read a beautiful poem entitled "Only a Step Removed."

The room was filled with beautiful floral tributes. The bearers were: Arthur E. Fernald, Frank Williams, Frank Brown and Frank E. Beckman. The remains were placed in the receiving tomb at Liniwood cemetery. Burial will be in Liniwood cemetery at the convenience of the family.

Four daughters survive. They are Mrs. George Ham, of Lynn, Mrs. Ida J. Emery, Mrs. Frank E. Beckman, and Miss Harriett Harding; also one son, John Harding of Montana.

This week the management of the C. P. R. Telegraph passes out of the hands of Miss Bertha Reid into the hands of Miss Clerk, late of Yorkton. Miss Reid has been very competent and has brought the office to a high degree of efficiency and there is no doubt but the standard will be maintained under Miss Clerk. Citizens generally will regret Miss Reid's departure but will cordially welcome her successor.

The Electric Light Question.

On Monday afternoon a meeting of the Town Council was held in the Town Hall, to deal with an application of Mr. A. R. Gould on behalf of the Aroostook Light and Power Company for leave to introduce their system into the Town. It will be remembered that a similar application was made to the County Council and leave to come into the county was granted. At the hearing of the matter on Monday, Mr. Gould was present personally and by his solicitor Mr. E. K. Connell. The Woodstock Electric Light and Power Company was represented by Mr. Carvell and several of its members. Mr. Connell was heard and he claimed that under legislation the Town could not avoid letting the Aroostook Company in, but could say where and how the poles for the wires should be placed. Mr. Gould said that under their charter, they had to be ready to supply so much power on this side of the line. It was the intention of the company to come down the river and serve the small towns along the way, and they wished to be allowed to come into Woodstock. They would then go through to Houlton and connect with the town this way, making a circuit. He did not wish to take business from any existing company, but, to be on hand at such time as more power was required as he understood that the present company had not much surplus power to supply in case new industries arose in the town.

Mr. Carvell opposed the application. He contended that the present was a local company made up of men who had put their own money into the enterprise and at much risk had made it a success. He claimed the Town was getting a service for its lighting and pumping that could not be bettered and at a rate lower than in any town in America, that the people individually were getting good service and cheap, and that it would be unfair to allow the applying company to come in and compete, especially as the rates were altogether reasonable and could at any time be modified by the Utilities Commission if not satisfactory to the citizens. The company was giving good service, was composed of citizens who paid large taxes and were interested in the town and had a right to protection. He claimed the Council had a right to refuse the application. The company had much extra power to sell and would be in a position to supply more with improvements being made in the plant.

Mr. Gould said that his company intended to come down the river as he had indicated, but, the cost would be large, and if he represented that they could not get into Woodstock which was the only large town, on the route, with the prospect of considerable growth, the scheme would not be considered practicable. A number of questions were put and an informal discussion followed, after which the Mayor announced that the Council at a future meeting, would decide upon the matter.

As an evidence of a Tea firm operating their business in the interest of the public, as well as themselves, it may be mentioned that the "Salada" Tea Co., have installed patent electrical machinery at their different packing plants, to extract the dust from their Teas before enclosing in their packets, so that all of their customers may be assured of getting nothing but clean, whole leaf Teas of uniform quality and goodness. It is just such care as this that has given "Salada" the enormous sale it now enjoys.
