

THE DISPATCH

VOL XIX

WOODSTOCK, N. B., WEDNESDAY, Sept 30, 1914.

No. 18

Ladies Fall and Winter Coats

Every WOMAN should come and see the uncommon showing of Beautiful New
Fall and Winter
Coats

we have on display at this store.

The Choicest Materials
The Most Fascinating Models
we have ever shown

Particular Care has been taken to have no two alike

The JOHN McLAUCHLAN Co., Ltd.,

The up-to-date Clothiers.

WOODSTOCK and HARTLAND

When YOU are in need of Printing
Try
The Dispatch Job Printing Dept.

First-Class Work
Prompt Delivery
Reasonable Rates

Re Club Rates THE DISPATCH

WITH	For New Subs.	For Renewals
Weekly Witness	$1.25	$
World Wide	1.50	1.85
Northern Messenger	.95	1.00
Canadian Pictorial	1.25	1.50

KIRKLAND

The weather is very warm at present with not much rain.

Mrs. Clarence Osgood, of Danforth, Me., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Samuel McIntyre, of Maxwell, has returned home.

Mrs. Sanford Hawkes and baby, of Maxwell, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hall at Union Corner for a few days.

James Doherty, of Elmwood, made a business trip to this place recently.

Mrs. L. Graham and baby Thompson, called on friends at the Corner one day this week.

Messrs Thomas and Douglas Kennedy of Scotch Corner, visited friends in this place Sunday afternoon.

Allan McLean of the Bank of Nova Scotia, New Glasgow, is spending his vacation in town.

Mrs. W. D. Camber has returned from attending the millinery, openings in St. John, Boston and New York.

Miss Gallagher and Miss Riordon have returned from attending the millinery openings in St. John, Boston and New York.

PLEASED TO RECOMMEND BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Mrs. Henri Bernier, Ancelme, Que., writes: "It is with pleasure that I recommend Baby's Own Tablets which I have given my little ones for stomach and bowel troubles, constipation, loss of sleep and simple fevers. No mother of young children should be without them." The Tablets are guaranteed to be free from injurious drugs and may be given to the youngest child with perfect safety and good results. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Earl Thornton

Earl Thornton, son of the late Thornton, who underwent an operation last week for appendicitis in the Fisher Memorial Hospital, died on Saturday night. He was 15 years of age, and is survived by a mother, two sisters and a brother, who left here with the soldiers for the front. The funeral will be held Tuesday. The Rev. F. Orchard will officiate.

Mrs Allan Daley.

Mrs. Allan Daley, after a brief illness, passed away in the Fisher Hospital on Sept. 21st. The deceased was 47 years of age and leaves five young children and two sisters, Mrs. Wm. Brackett, of Springfield, Mass., and Miss Mulherrin, of Woodstock, to mourn her death, and to whom the deep sympathy of the whole community is extended.

The funeral was held Wednesday morning and the requiem service at St. Gertrude's church was of a most solemn and imposing character. Besides the relatives, many friends and sympathizers were present.

The pall bearers were Thomas McCaffery, Alex Beaton, Thomas McCarron and Dan McDonald.

Henry Prosser.

Henry Prosser, a man of an excellent character, died at the home of his son, Manzer, at Windsor, on Tuesday, in the 75th year of his age. He was a member of the Primitive Baptist church ever since he professed religion, many years ago. He is survived by a widow and four sons.

Rev. G. A. Giberson attended the funeral on Thursday and took for his text part of the 7th chapter, 14th verse, of Revelations. The funeral was largely attended, Hudson Dickinson being the undertaker in charge. The pall bearers were the four sons, Manzer, Jordan, Nevers and Albert Prosser. The burial was made at Armond.

Mrs. Hillman Hanson,

Mary Elizabeth Hanson, wife of Hillman Hanson, died on Thursday morning, deeply regretted, age 64 years. Although she had been ill for some years, her illness was not considered critical until a few weeks ago. The husband and three sons, Guy L. Harry and Merton Hanson, all of Woodstock, Mrs. H. R. Smith, Mrs. E. E. Ileyd, both of Dorchester, Mass. sisters; and Willard K. DeLue of Denver, Col., brother, survive.

The funeral took place at 2.30 on Saturday afternoon and was largely attended. Services were conducted by the Rev. Frank Orchard. The pall bearers were W. B. DeLong, C. R. Watson, F. L. Atherton and Cook Hall.

Joseph A McKeen.

Joseph A. McKeen died at his home Houlton Road on Monday Sept. 14th., after a few days illness of paralysis aged 73 years and 11 months. He leaves to mourn their loss, his wife, three sons Leo W., Frank L., and Eugene all at home, and two daughters Mrs. J. L. Carleton, of Woodstock and Miss Gusie McKeen, of the teaching staff of the Broadway School. He is also survived by one brother, John McKeen, of Danforth Me., and one sister, Mrs. Leonard Davis, of Vancouver, B. C. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon from St. Gertrude's church, the services being conducted by the Rev. F. J. McMurray. The pall bearers were Wesley Slipp, Nelson Hillman, Charles Hand, John Milberry, John Bull and Herbert Lindsay.

Hugh McLuskey,

A very sudden death occurred on the afternoon of Sept. 21 when Hugh McLuskey a prosperous farmer of Kirkland South Richmond dropped dead in the oat-field. He is survived by a widow, who was Miss Emma Thompson, of St. John, an adopted daughter Eva and one sister Margaret who is married and lives in Houlton, beside other relatives. He was a prominent orangeman for a great many years, and was in interested every good cause. He was a member of the W. C. T. U. since it was organized. In religion he was a Pro. Rev. G. E. Knight at the funeral services. Eva McKeen presided at the organ. He was buried under the Orange order.

BATH

September 28th., 1914.

The cold wave has caught the farmers with most of their potatoes in the ground, but as yet no damage has been done to them. The first snow this fall appeared here today.

Rev. William Amos attended the Association of the Baptist church at Jemseg last week.

Hiram Drost has the contract for laying the new water main around from the Railway Station to and along Beech street.

A. S. McFarlane of Hartland who is building an addition to John Guest's house at Holmsville, passed through here today.

H. E. Blakslee C. P. Ry. Station agent at North Junction was a caller here on Saturday last, where he was for a number of years in charge of the station here.

Mrs. Wm. Harris is spending a few weeks with her niece in Haverhill, Mass.

Amasa Stanlake who has been spending the last year at Haverhill, Mass., arrived home on Thursday last to visit his mother here.

Messrs. Bohan Bros. of this place are building a potato warehouse at Upper Kent where they already have a hay and grain warehouse.

H. J. Smith and family are intending moving to Truro N. S., in the near future their many friends here will regret their removal as Mr. and Mrs. Smith have resided here for some years where Mr. Smith conducted a Black and woodworking business.

Miss Annie Jones left last week to visit her sister at Haverhill Mass.

Two large barns which had just been filled with grain of Kenneth McIntosh, at Kenneth, were struck with the lightning last Thursday and burned with their contents to the ground.

Grant-Fox

The wedding of Miss Rhoda Fox of this city, and Mr. Arthur Grant of Woodstock, was solemnized at the George Street Baptist Parsonage by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Wilson, Wednesday morning. Miss Lulu Phillips of Woodstock, was the maid of honor, and Mr. Murray Farrell, of this city, supported the groom. After the ceremony the happy couple left on an extended honeymoon trip to St. John, Boston and New York-Fulton Mail.

Flemming-McLellan.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Harriet McLellan, Oakville, on Sept. 2nd., when her daughter, Grace Elizabeth, was united in marriage to Mr. Bruce Flemming of Bloomfield.

A company of about forty guests attended the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Chas. Stebbings.

The bride was tastefully gowned in white voile with overdress of shadow lace and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and maiden hair fern. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion.

After congratulations the guests repaired to the dining room where a most bountiful supper was served.

A large number of costly and beautiful presents testified to the popularity of the young couple.

Amid showers of rice and confetti the happy couple left for their future home in Bloomfield.

Kidney-Hell

An interesting event took place Sept 2nd, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Bell, Oakville, when their daughter, Fannie, became the bride of Wilour Kidney of Weston. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. T. Haig. The bride looked very charming in a dress of white silk with overdress of oriental lace and veil, and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. The bride's sister, Hazel, was bride-maid the groom was unrepresented. The wedding march was played by Mrs. David Bell. The parlor and dining-room were decorated with maple leaves, white ribbon and potted plants. A delicious supper was served after the ceremony.

The presents were numerous and costly consisting of money, silver, glass linen, etc.

Foss-Dow.

The Reformed Baptist church at Woodstock was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon Sept. 16th, when Miss Nettie Dow was united in marriage to Alton C. Foss. The church was prettily decorated with flowers for the occasion. Mrs. Geo True played the wedding march. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. S. Dow. A large number of friends were present at the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Foss will reside at Canterbury, York Co. N. B.

A reception was held at the residence of Mr. Samuel McCain, Florenceville, on Monday Sept. 21st, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Claud McCain, who were married on Sept. 16th. Between fifty and sixty guests were present. Supper was served and a very pleasant evening spent. Vocal and instrumental music was enjoyed.

Mrs. R. E. Guy Smith, of Montreal, is visiting her mother, Mrs. B. H. Smith.

Mrs. Miles Clark, of Lower Wakefield, was a caller at "The Dispatch" office last week.

Miss Purington, of Richmond, spent a day last week with Miss Hazen, Upper Woodstock.

Miss E. Henderson, who spent the summer at her cottage at "The Ledge," Charlotte Co., has returned home.

Mrs. James McBride Bellville, was a caller at "The Dispatch" office last week.

Mrs. S. Claude McCain, of Florenceville, will be at home, for the first time since her marriage on Thursday afternoon and evening October 8.

Miss Long, of St. John, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell, returned home on Saturday.

A. C. Stanlake, of Haverhill, Mass., was in town on Wednesday on his way to Bath, to visit his mother for a few weeks. He with two friends left Haverhill at noon on Monday and motored to Lewiston. They came to Houlton Tuesday. Mr. Stanlake was a caller at "The Dispatch" office.

MILLINERY-OPENING.

Mrs. Arthur Burpee will have her millinery opening on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons October 6-7.

PNEUMATICA STOPS YOUR PAIN or breaks up your cold in one hour It's Marvellous. Applied externally ALL DRUGGISTS.

The Patriotic Fund.

An enthusiastic meeting in the interest of the patriotic fund was held in the Council Chamber on Friday evening. Colonel F. H. J. Dibblee was chairman and delivered a very instructive address.

A. D. Holyoke was then elected secretary of the meeting.

The chairman then asked for the reports of committees.

Wm. Balmain, treasurer of the Soldiers Relief Committee, said that the ladies met with a ready response from the merchants who were asked to contribute. He had waited upon the grocers who freely contributed to the picnic. All the local bandmen gave their services free, the cost being only $2. to pay for the services of a cornet player from outside town. Charles Greer rendered valuable services as a carpenter before the picnic was held. The proceeds of the picnic amounted to $650, which were divided between his committee and the Ladies' Auxiliary. The sum of $518 was now in the Bank to the credit of the committees.

On motion of E. W. Jarvis the report was adopted.

Moved by Mayor Jones, seconded by F. L. Mooers, that the thanks of the meeting be given to the committee, to the citizens in general and to the band in particular, for their valuable services previous to and on the day of picnic.

Concluded on page five.