The Working Girls Bazaar held upon Friday evening, Dec. 4th proved eminently successful, every article from clothes to cheese cakes being quickly sold at remunerative figures. The proceeds netting $73.50. The hall was most artistically draped with flags, under the special direction of Col. Dibble while the Boy Scouts did many good turns on that and subsequent days in furnishing and running the fish pond, wood supply and nearly all the hundred and one odd and hard jobs essential to the successful carrying out of the enterprise.

Mr. Fred Moore painted and hung two tasteful and attractive banners besides assisting in every possible way. This club was only formed at Halloween to promote the social welfare and establish a responsible centre for all girls coming to Woodstock to work. This first entertainment was held in aid of Red Cross work, because many of the girls have relatives and friends at the front.

The management desire to most heartily acknowledge the efficient support and cordial goodwill manifested toward the movement, by the citizens generally and especially the ladies who so willingly gave of their substance and time. They wish especially to thank Mrs. F. H. J. Dibblee who furnished the hall for the occasion, Mr. Chas. Watson who supplied a beautiful new "Willis" piano and Mrs. Geo True who gathered and trained the orchestra, and to Mr. Lafayette Rogers of Northampton whose violin work was so much applauded by the many who attended.

Among the prizes, the Beauty Doll, called the Belgian Orphan fell to Mrs. Henry Duthrie, the sofa cushion [No 13] to Mr. Wm Sutton, while Mr. Hugh Flemming held the lucky number for the Flag Coverlet.

Mr. McCain, of Florenceville, was in town on Wednesday. He was a caller at "The Dispatch" office.

Ira Weatherhead, Wm. Weatherhead and Ernest Weatherhead, of Gillespie, and Mr. Hetherington, of Aroostook Junction, were in town last week to attend the Conservative Convention. They were guests at the Stephenson House.

Mrs. John L. Harris

Mrs. John L. Harris passed away about 4 o'clock this morning at the home of her son, John H. Harris, Alma street, after an illness of some two or three weeks of heart trouble. The deceased lady was the widow of John L. Harris, who, in his life time was one of Moncton's foremost citizens, being identified more particularly with industrial and commercial life of the city. Mrs. Harris was the daughter of the late Dr. Cowie, and had been a resident of Moncton nearly all her life, being familiar with every stage of the growth of the city. She was well known, especially to the older citizens, and was held in the highest esteem.

She is survived by a son and a daughter. The son is John H. Harris, Alma street, with whom she resided and the daughter is Mrs. E. W. Jarvis, of Woodstock, N. B. Mrs. Jarvis was at her mother's bedside when the end came. Mrs. E. A. Record, of Medford, Mass., is a sister, and was also summoned to Moncton a day or two ago.

All who enjoyed the acquaintance of the deceased lady will deeply regret to learn of her demise.

THE SALVATION ARMY.

Dear Sir:—

It may be of interest to the readers of your valuable paper to know that the Salvation Army still maintains its interest in the poor of any town or city in which their work is in operation, and as the Winter season is close at hand with its many disadvantages for the poor-class we are taking this opportunity of making an appeal to those more fortunate who may have garments or clothing for which they have no particular use that would be of great value to those less fortunate. We have already come in contact with several cases of need.

We will deem it a pleasure to call upon you regarding the above if you will drop a card to Adj. W. E. Parsons Box 357.

We may say that we are at your service to serve you in the best interests of the Town in any way possible.

Trusting this appeal will meet with a ready response.

I remain yours sincerely
Adjutant W. E. Parsons.
