Baby's Health

During Hot Weather.

During the hot spell the health of baby must be carefully guarded. Diarrhoea, cholera infantum and dysentery carry off thousands of precious little lives every summer. Baby's Own Tablets are especially adapted to keep the little ones well during the summer. They regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach, and an occasional dose will prevent the dreaded summer complaints or if they do come on suddenly the prompt use of the Tablets will set baby right again. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brookville, Oat.

West-Collins

Presque Isle, June 12—A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Collins, on Wednesday morning June 10, at 8.30 o'clock when their daughter, Miss Charlotte Hume Collins, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Franklin West, of Grand Falls, N. B. The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of the wedding march and took their places in front of a beautiful screen of white roses and hawthorne blossoms, the bride and groom standing on a white bear skin rug, which had served on similar occasions for several of the bride's friends. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. J. L. Tripp, Rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, the single ring service being used, and was witnessed only by the immediate families and a few intimate friends of the bride and groom. A pleasant reception was held at 10:00 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. West started at once for Grand Falls by automobile. These young people have the best wishes of a legion of friends.

STEVENS—SEELEY.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Seeley, Victoria Corner, Carleton County, on Wednesday, when their youngest daughter, Phoebe Eliza Durose, was united in marriage to Halbert Hayward Stevens, of Portage, Maine. The bride was charmingly gowned in white charmeuse satin with pearl trimmings, and wore a bridal veil with Juliet cap trimmed with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. She wore a diamond and pearl pendant, the gift of the groom. The bridal party stood under an arch of evergreen and was attended by Mrs. W. F. Harradon of Auburn, Maine, a sister of the bride, who wore a gown of white silk trimmed with Irish lace and carried a bouquet of carnations. Little Miss Ruth Harradon acted as flower girl and wore a dainty costume of white embroidered swiss. The groom was attended by the bride's brother, James B. Seeley of Fredericton. The wedding march was played by Miss Viva Duplissea of Blissville. After the ceremony the guests proceeded to the dining room where a sumptuous luncheon was served. The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts, consisting of linen, cut glass, china, silver, money, etc., showing the high esteem in which they are held. The groom's present to the matron of honor was a gold brooch, while the best man received a sapphire stick-pin. The happy couple left on the 5 o'clock train for Boston and other American cities. Many out of town guests were present, including the brother of the groom, Mr. Ray Stevens of Portage, Maine.

The Methodists and Church Union.

Chatham, June 15.—At this morning's session of the Methodist Conference, Rev. Dr. Chown, General Superintendent of the Methodist church in Canada, was present and addressed the Conference along the lines of Church Union, intimating that the Methodist church was no longer to delay in the work, but was to go forward and was not to allow the question of Church Union to interfere with the work of the congregations in mission.

Rev. S. J. McArthur, of Newcastle, was introduced to the Conference and brought greetings from the Presbyterian body.

The following reports of the committees were submitted: Children Fund, Church Property, General Conference Fund, Board of Trustees, and Sunday Schools.

The final draft of the station sheet was read, with but two or three changes in the Charlottetown district, namely: F. H. Littlejohns goes to Charlottetown Grace church, E. A. Westmorland remains at Little York and Wisloe, with J. L. Lund, and Mount Stewart is to be supplied.

The conference then proceeded with the election of the chairmen and financial secretaries for each district and at adjournment the ballots were being counted. The appointments will be announced this afternoon.
