Queen St., Woodstock, N. B.

Mrs. T. W. Griffin received for the first time since her marriage on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, at her home on Connell St. On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Griffin was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Alison B. Connell. The bride looked charming in a lovely dress of white lace, with corsage of peach colored silk and Mrs. Connell was gowned in black satin, with trimmings of jet. In the tea room, the prettily appointed tea table, centred with a handsome lace centre, bearing a tall cut glass vase of yellow chrysanthemums, was presided over by Mrs. John Stewart, in black velvet with black hat, and Miss Janet Brown in white silk with black and white hat. The young ladies assisting were Miss Marion Winslow, in Nile green silk, with touches of lace and black and gold hat, Miss Katharine Brown, in white silk, and black hat with net rose trimmings, and Miss Mary Wright in pink brocaded satin with black hat. On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Griffin was assisted by Mrs. E. W. Mair and the tea room was in charge of Mrs. W. L. Carr and Mrs. J. N. W. Winslow, assisted by Miss Janet Brown, Miss Katharine Brown and Miss Cassie Hay. Mrs. Carr wore black and white satin with black and white hat, Mrs. Winslow lavender ecru with black velvet hat, and Miss Cassie Hay in old rose silk dress with trimmings of squirrel and squirrel hat with osprey of old rose. The rooms were especially bright and attractive with decorations of greenery and quantities of yellow chrysanthemums. Little Miss Charlotte Winslow in a dainty white frock opened the door for the guests.
