Gift of the Working Girls Club to the "Duchess of Connaught" Hospital.

After purchasing sufficient yarn to keep the members in knitting through the summer, the "Working Girls Club" have invested the remainder of their Red Cross funds, $9.00, in a box of Maple Sugar, to be forwarded to our boys in the "Duchess of Connaught" Hospital, Cliveden, England.

Dr. T. F. Sprague attended the annual meeting of the Council of Physicians and Surgeons of New Brunswick in Fredericton Wednesday evening.

Walter Shaw, who made an extended trip for the Baird Company, in different parts of the Maritime Provinces, has returned home.

Fred Mooers who has been in Lakeville during the past winter has accepted a position in Griswold, Me.

BABY'S OWN TABLETS USED ELEVEN YEARS

Mrs. McEa. hern, Glencoe, Ont., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for the past eleven years for my children and have every reason to praise them as they always do good." Once a mother uses the Tablets for her little ones she will use no other medicine. They are absolutely safer pleasant to take and never fail to regulate the bowels and stomach. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Mrs. Wm J Bennett

Many Woodstock friends will regret to learn of the death at Victoria, B. C., on March 25, of Mrs. Wm. J. Bennett, formerly Miss Jean Saunders youngest daughter of W. S. Saunders, a former mayor of Woodstock.

Mrs. Bennett leaves in addition to her husband and infant son, her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Saunders, of Calgary, and five brothers and two sisters.
They are Dr. W. E. Saunders, of Cochran, Alberta, and Murray S., Harry P., Fred S. and Grant Saunders, and Mrs.
A. D. Baker, and Mrs. Neemen, of Calgary. The remains were interred at Victoria.

Michael McGrath

Mr. Michael McGrath succumbed to heart trouble last Wednesday evening, March 24th., at his home in Lindsay after an illness of five weeks.

Deceased was born in Bangor Me., March 25, 1852, with his parents moved to Woodstock.

Since 1855 has made his home at Lindsey. Although his death was not wholly unexpected, he had been sorely afflicted with heart trouble for months up until a few weeks ago was able to be about the house with his family.

He was conscious until the last and died trusting in God whom he had faithfully served.

The funeral was held at St. Gertrudes Catholic Church of which the deceased had been a life long and devoted member. Services were held Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. F. J. McMurry, and burial was made in the Catholic Cemetery.

A large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place.

The deceased is survived by his wife who was Mary A. Smith of Richmond, and eight children namely; Frank, Fred and John at home, Eva of Boston, Mrs.
Frank McLaughlin of Millinocket Maine, Effie, Mamie, and Tessie at home.

The Tribune joins with the many friends of the family in extending sympathy to the bereaved wife and family of the deceased.

Mrs. G. S. Chute

Hanna, Alta.

Death has again cast its dark shadow over us by removing from our midst Alberta H. Chute, beloved wife of G.
S. Chute a well known farmer of this district. The sad event came unexpectedly, for, though she had been ailing for some months, and the doctor had expressed grave fears last Fall, yet lately she appeared to be gaining strength. She had been living in the town since the first of February, putting her two children to school. On the 9th of March, her daughter having come from Castor with husband and children, they all came out to the homestead—a pleasant surprise for G. S. On Saturday the 13th, she and her daughter drove to Hanna on business, returning in the evening, feeling as well as usual. A happy family circle gathered for supper between 8 and 9 and after the meal, as is their usual custom, all bowed in prayer. The mother prayed earnestly for her loved ones, especially for the salvation of their souls. On rising from her knees, she complained of a pain in her side, on which her husband told her to lie down for awhile, thinking she was tired. She agreed, and this was the last time she spoke.
Later she was discovered to be unconscious. Dr. Wade was summoned at once, but she was past aid, and without recovering consciousness, about 1 o'clock on Sunday morning March 14th she passed away. The immediate cause of death was apoplexy.

Deceased was the daughter of John Clarke, of Lower Wakefield, N. B., where she was born on Feb. 20, 1867.
She was married to G. S. Chute on May 6th, 1884.

She was "born again" into the Kingdom of God's dear Son on July 10th, 1905, while praying out in a strawberry field. She became a lover of pure and undefiled religion; she delighted in a lively prayer meeting; and she laid aside all outward ornamentation in order to conform to the Bible. It was her expressed desire that she be buried without pomp or display; and this desire was fully carried out.

While living in Hanna she wrote frequently out to her husband. Her last letter (dated March 9th) contained the following: "I am bound for the Kingdom and I'm going every step of the way with Jesus, if I have to go alone.
Oh Darling I am happy this morning; I can read my title clear." The snow will soon be gone and then I shall come home, the time may be short."

Much more could be said of our dear sister who was gentle and kind to every one. Our loss is her gain. She had a loving home where God's Name and cause were revered. She had gained the respect and esteem of all who knew her.

Her favorite portion of Scripture was the 14th chapter of St. John's Gospel, and her children selected the 27th verse for the Text at the funeral. Her favourite hymn "He promised never to leave me," was sung at the grave.
Service was conducted by Rev's. Leedy and Hornby. The remains were interred in Hanna c. metery.

She leaves to mourn their loss, one sister, Saba Gans, Upper Woodstock, N. B. her sorrowing husband, and three children, Maria Clarke Wren, Pearl and Bennett. Pearl and Bennett were both converted last Spring while Rev.
J. W. Dey of Calgary was paying them a visit. They were a great help to their mother.

WILLIAMSTOWN

March 29th 1915.

We have had the warmest winter and spring, so far, that we remember of, but rain and a lot of it is much needed as most all the wells in this district are dry. Some have been hauling water for some months.

Gillis Bros. are sawing wood for Wm. McWaid, there are several more parties to saw for yet, but as they use a gasoline engine it is not so hard to move if the roads are bad.

Thos. Emery sr., and son Clarence, have moved to the old home again after spending the winter at Ernest Mc-Cleary's.

Sarah Jameson visited Mrs. Emily McWaid last week. This week she is the guest of Mrs. John A. Porter.

Mrs. John King, Lakeville, was the guest of her niece, Mrs. R. D. Smith.

Ada Reed, Centreville, has returned home after spending a few days at John A. Porters.

Andrew Jameson has so far recovered that he was able to drive to Centreville [4 miles] last week.

Johnson Emery and wife were callers at Ernest Souells, one day last week, Mrs. Bert Slipp, Bridgewater, spent part of last week with her mother, Mrs.
Eliza Smith, Pioneer.

Mrs. Emily McWaid and Mrs. E. A.
Savage were guests of Mrs. Thos. Corbett one day last week.

Mrs. R. D. Smith spent one day last week at John McAuley's, Pioneer.

Mrs. Havelock Anderson was a visitor at John McEgan's one day recently.

Red Cross Society meet Wednesday in the Lakeville Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Good and Miss Clara Tracey, Good's Corner, were guests of Mrs. Ann Savage one evening last week.

Mr. Bearisto, Fort Fairfield, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Harry Gilliss.

Mr. and Mrs. Burns King, Mrs. Ruel Fowler, Lakeville, visited Centreville today.

Frederick Anderson is to be buried at Lakeville tomorrow. He died Sunday p. m. at his home, Deerville, after a long illness, leaving a wife and some small children.

Geo. Watters is visiting his son Allen over in Brighton.

Carr-Smith

The wedding of Miss Ella Smith, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
Smith, and niece of the late L. P. Fisher, and Mr. James Stewart Carr, of Boston, second son of Mr. James Carr, took place in the Methodist church at 3.30 on Tuesday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Richard Opie assisted by the Rev. R. G.
Fulton, of Chatham. The guests consisted of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with potted plants and cut flowers. The bride who was unattended wore a very pretty dress of Delft blue silk poplin the corsage being trimmed with real lace, and white ostrich boa, a black shadow hat trimmed with real numidae and touches of jet. She carried a large bouquet of cream roses and fern with ribbon streamers knotted with lillies of the valley.

The bride was given away by her cousin Mr. Fisher, of St. John. The ushers were Gordon Bailey and Geo.
Dibblee. As the bridal party were leaving the church, the wedding march was played by the organist. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. Harry Smith, Connell Street.
The house was decorated with smilax ferns and cut flowers. The bride's going away gown was a tailored suit of seal brown and sand hair line stripe, small hat of seal brown tagal trimmed with brown ospray and brown veil.

Mr. and Mrs. Carr left on the evening train for their future home in Boston. The groom who was a former Woodstock boy, has been living in Boston for the last 24 years, where he has been in the employ of a large firm of stock brokers. He is at present a selectman in Winthrop, Mass. The bride received many beautiful and useful presents. Among them being a handsome mahogany serving table from the Sunday school of the Methodist church and a silver tea service from Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, St. John.
