Camp-King.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth King, Broadway, Wednesday afternoon, at 3.30, when her daughter, Alice May was united in marriage to Arthur John Camp, by the Rev. F. L. Orchard, in the presence of a few relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties.

The bride was becomingly attired in a dress of white crepe de chene, with bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white roses and ferns. The couple were unattended. After the ceremony dainty refreshments were served.

The bride and groom left for a trip to Montreal Mrs. Camp travelling in a sand colored suit with hat to match. Upon their return they will reside at McAdam where the groom is employed in the C. P. R. shops.

Wilson-Isaacson.

One of the most important events of the season was the marriage at the Hadyen-Gibson theatre Tuesday evening, of Marion Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Isaacson, and Abraham Wilson, both of Woodstock. Rabbi Abraham Rutberg of St. John, officiated. The Jewish residents of Carleton, Victoria and Aroostook counties to the number of some hundreds, occupied the pit of the theatre, while 500 invited guests had seats in the balcony.

As the bridal party, surrounded by their compatriots carrying lighted candles, left the pit for the stage Clyde Camber's orchestra delightfully rendered "Mendelssohn's Wedding March." The bridesmaids were Geneva Jacobson, of Perth, and Freda Acker, of St. Stephen; Jennie Jacobson, of St. John, maid of honor; Annie Isaacson, a sister, Jennie Schwartz, Esther Rapaport of Caribou, and Ida Rapaport, of Millinocket, were flower girls. Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz, of Caribou, attended the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Campbell of Fredericton, the bride's father, the bride waited upon the bride, who was given away by her parents.

Before going on the stage for the ceremony, the bridal party and friends marched round the hall three times and after the ceremony, the bride and party marched around the groom three times, having some significance from a Hebrew standpoint.

Mrs Geo. O Britton

Early on Tuesday morning, June 1st, the death occurred of Mrs. George O. Britton of Windsor. The deceased was a daughter of Ami Shaw and was in her 47th year. She was the mother of seven children, three of whom died in early womanhood, having fallen victims of tuberculosis. The funeral was held Thursday June 3rd, from their residence, Rev. George Kincaid conducting the service. Great sympathy is extended to Mr. Britton, who is the well known manager of the Farmer's Telephone Co.

Death has tearfully scourged his family, and this is not the first sad occasion on which the sympathy of the country has been outpoured for him. The sad instance touches the heart of every one of the many friends of the genial manager of the local telephone company. The recent deaths of his daughters has saddened many hearts. What seems sadder than all is that another daughter, Miss Hazel, is expected to return today from the Jordan Sanatorium, from which she has been dismissed as incurable.—Observer.

J. K. Sutton, paying teller of Royal Bank, King street, has been transferred to that institution's branch at Port of Spain, Trinidad. He will leave for Woodstock, his former home, on Tuesday, and sail on S. S. Chardiere from Halifax, June 13.—St. John Globe, June 7.
